Silver Wedding

Made by Imperial Oil Co.

January 1st 1903 being the twentyfifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dixon, of Egremont, a number of their friends met at their residence to congratulate with them upon the completion of so long a period of married life. A very pleasant time was spent in feast, song, story and social conversation. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. were presented with an address and a silver tea set in connection with the event. W. L. though taken unawares made a suitable reply thanking his friends for their good wishes and prewith h' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cam- sent, and hoping that he might return the compliment to all.
