THE BIG STORE.

BUNESSAN.

Intended for last week. Well, Mr. Editor, we are not in time to wish you your readers a merry Christmas but we do wish them a very happy new year.

Mr. Wm. Britton's horses took a notion to run away last Friday but did no serious damage before they were caught.

Mr. Alex McPhail of Kent Co. was the guest of Mr. C. Kennedy and family for a few days last week.

Mrs. Alex Bell of the corners is visiting her daughters in Toronto at present.

G. McComb returned from Toronto last week.

Miss Susie McKinnon of Durham visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Several from our burg took in the Glenelg Centre tea meeting which turned out a success. Everybody spent a pleasant evening. Proceeds amounted to about $26.00.

Somebody from Glenelg Centre was telling somebody of Rob Roy that the load that started for Prieville Store didn't get there. It seems the horses were found near another town. Better hold the ribbons with both hands in the future.

MULOCK.

The Bentinck Baptist Sunday School held their annual entertainment and Christmas tree, Tuesday evening Dec. 23rd, notwithstanding the bad roads the Church was filled and $12 taken at the door. Upon entering the Church our eyes beheld two beautiful trees, symmetrical in form and tastefully decorated with artificial roses and numerous gifts of various kinds. At 7.45 Pastor Pineo took the chair, and after singing "all hail the power of Jesus name" in which every one joined, and Prayer by the pastor a carefully arranged programme was carried out, consisting of choruses by the school, selections by choir, solos, recitations, dialogues, readings and addresses by Mr. Duncan McLean, County Commissioner, Mr. Duncan McKinnon, Superintendent of Sunday School, and the choir. The last speaker spoke particularly concerning the good behavior of the children and the accuracy with which they rendered their several parts. He also gave great praise to the Superintendent and teachers for their untiring efforts in training the children, and for their earnestness manifested in everything regarding the school. The best thing on the programme, but not the least interesting was the distribution of gifts; each pupil receiving a suitable present, together with a bag of candies. The Pastor and his wife were also remembered, each being presented with a handsome present by the Sunday School workers.

Rocky School.

On the evening of Friday Dec. 19th, the teacher and pupils of the Rocky school, north of Durham, held their annual concert. The weather being favorable, and the roads in very fair condition, a good audience gathered to enjoy a lengthy program of well prepared readings, dialogues and songs. Mr. John A. Graham, who by the way is a resident of our section, acted as chairman and good feeling prevailed.

Among those who assisted in the program, may be mentioned Mr. Ed. McClocklin, the "Jimmy Fax of Durham," who sang three songs in excellent style and was as often encored. Miss Maud Irwin of Durham gave three recitations in her usual effective style. She is a favorite reciter.

County Commission D. McLean gave two select recitations and an address containing many pleasant allusions to the Rocky school and those connected therewith. "The upper ten and lower five" was nicely sung and acted by Masters Albert and Alfred McClocklin in costume suitable to the occasion. Then these two clever lads with their equally clever chums, James McClocklin and George Harbottle gave a noon cake-walk in a manner that certainly took the cake.

Several splendid dialogues were given in a manner that reflected much credit upon the performers who are too numerous to mention here. The recitations given by the pupils showed much taste in selection as well as careful preparation on the part of pupils and teacher. Miss McClocklin has done good work in our school during the last two years. It is with regret we have to part with her as she goes to pursue higher studies to equip herself for her life-work. The parents and pupils will always have a good word for Miss McClocklin, with good wishes for her future success.

The presentation of a beautiful brooch and watch chain was made in behalf of the pupils by Madge Morton and Viola McKeele, and the following address read. It speaks for itself.

The meeting was brought to a happy close by the singing of the National Anthem.

To Miss May McClocklin:

Dear Teacher: As you are about to leave us, we desire to express our sorrow at parting with you and to express our regard for the faithful way in which you have always performed your duties. We ask you as a token of our esteem to accept this brooch and chain, and we assure you that it is with the best of feeling that you leave us, and you have our heartiest wishes for your success in the future. Signed in behalf of the pupils Madge Morton, Viola McKeele.

Glascott.

Cold weather and good sleighing, and all are taking the advantage of it. Christmas is past with all its mirth and feasting and some are complaining of sick stomachs so now we wish all Review readers a happy New Year.

Quite a number took in the Christmas tree Dornoch Xmas night, where a large crowd gathered and enjoyed a good night. The children showed good training and were rewarded by many nice presents from the tree. The pastor Rev. W. Graham was a little late as he was attending to important business.

The school concert at Townsend's lake on Monday evening was a grand success. A large crowd gathered to enjoy themselves, and so they did. About 7.30 R. T. Edwards of Zion, who has become very popular as a chairman was called upon, and in his usual manner called the meeting to order and handled the program in an able manner. The children were trained by their teacher Miss Pettis who along with the children deserve much credit, and for the last two years has spared no time in training her school in every branch. The most pleasing sight was the crayon work on the blackboard which was done by the teacher, admired and praised by all. The music given by N. Malone and W. Coffey violinist was good.

After the concert was over Stella Jack read a well worded address in behalf of the pupils to their teacher Miss Pettis and Emma Bradley presented her with a beautiful album, after which Mr. Will Ellison read a very appropriate address and Miss S. F. McArthur presented Miss Pettis with a beautiful glass bouquet vase in behalf of the young people of the town con. Miss Pettis replied in a very feeling manner and said she had spent many a pleasant hour at Townsend's Lake and expressed her sorrow in leaving the children and many friends and expressed her hope that some day she hoped we would all meet in a better land.

In the two years she has been teacher here she has never failed to do her best, and has taken a deep interest in every branch of church work especially in the C. E. Society. She carries with her the best wishes of School Sec. No. 4.
