"My Baby's Kiss," rendered with fine pathos, and in excellent taste, was a favorite number, and she appeared to excellent advantage in the duett with Mr Fax, "Master and Pupil."

Mr Fax wears well. He is constantly adding to his repertoire, (and his ward-robe,) but some of his old songs are ever fresh. He is a composer of no mean power also, and his "Hae yin wi me," given as a third encore, is thoroughly in line with the popular cry against treating, which it holds up to ridicule in a most humorous way. The trio,

"Past 12 o'clock," was yery finely rendered, the harmony being first-class.

On Saturday evening the 10th inst., a meeting was held at the residence of Mr. C. C. James to discuss the proposal to establish a Public Library in Price-

There was a goodly number present and the question was discussed in all its bearings, commented upon and de-bated, and finally it was decided to take steps to establish a Public Library, the first step being the signing of a Declaration by each one present.

Mr. Reilly was elected to take the necessary affidavit involved and to file the Declaration with the Registrar. Each person agreed to become a member, and to do his best to secure the requisite number of members. The annual membership fee was placed at CAUTIOUS families. The meeting was enthusiastown for a few days on his way to yisit | tically in favor of the project and high anticipations are entertained as to the value it will be to Priceville and Mrs McRae occupies her home here neighborhood. Over half the number of names has been secured.

Those who wish success to this new movement, should become members at once by leaving their name and small temporarily appointed secretary.
