GENTLEMEN, ARE YOU BALD?—Investigate and see for yourself the Art Coverings in Wigs and Toupees. Prof. Dorenwend's manufactures are worn on over 55,000 heads by all classes, and in all stations of life. They are the essence of perfection, light in weight, durable and a great benefit to health, and a protection to the head against Cold Draughts, Catarrh, etc. Trying on and demonstrating the completeness of these goods free of charge. He will be at Middaugh House, Durham, Friday, Feb. 6.

Clearing the way for New Goods at Theobald's, therefore snaps in Clothing.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Saturday last while George and Landels Marshall were chopping wood on their farm on 2nd Con. Normanby, the latter nearly lost his life. In some way while freeing a lodged tree, one fell on him and held him fast. George ran to Alex Smith's for help and succeeded in having him taken out and home where medical help was secured. At first a fatal result was feared but later advices say the spine is not injured, and hopes are entertained that the strong young man of nearly 21 may recover.

Ladies and Gentlemen, see Prof. Dorenwend's beautiful Wigs, Toupees, Bangs, Wavy and Plain Fronts, Switches in every length and shade, etc. He will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, on Friday, Feb. 6th. His Hair Goods Styles when properly adjusted protect and ornament the head, soften and beautify the expression of the face and consequently tone up aged appearance. Prof. Dorenwend has for this season many new and pretty designs. He has added a number of New York, London and Paris patterns. Be sure to see them and not forget day and date, Friday Feb. 6th.

Darling's Horse and Cattle Spice, large package is just the thing for winter feeding, only 25 cts.

DEATH OF AN OLD PIONEER.—On Wednesday of last week death removed an old pioneer of this section in the person of Alex. McTavish, who passed away at his home here in his 79th year after being in failing health for some time. Deceased was born in Inverness, Scotland, in 1824, and when he was but a year old his parents sailed for Caracas, South America. Not liking that country they came north the following year, locating first at Guelph, where they resided till the subject of this sketch was 18 years of age, when, in 1842, or over 50 years ago, he moved up into Egremont, being one of the first settlers, about a mile above Orchardville. About ten years afterwards he married a Miss McLellan, who still lives as his widow. In 1870 he moved to the third con. of Normanby, to the locality which was given his name, McTavish's Corners. There he lived until four years ago when he moved to Mt. Forest. He is the last survivor of his family, and besides his widow leaves to honor his memory a family of four sons and four daughters, as follows: John and Alex., of Petoskey, Mich., (the latter being at the funeral) Dan, of Flesherton, and Angus, at home; Mrs. Crofton, of Hamilton; Miss Kate McTavish, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Cadden, of Detroit, and Miss Euphemia McTavish: at home, all the daughters being at the funeral, which took place on Saturday to the Orchardville cemetery and was largely attended considering the bad state of the weather.—Mt. Forest Rep.

50 YEARS.—Next week we shall have an interesting article under this heading from the facile pen of our Priceville correspondent.

WOOD.—We want wood right away and those of our subscribers who have promised us will oblige by bringing it along. 22 inch up to 4 feet. green or dry.

A recent issue of the Temiscaming Gazette, informs us that Mr. Angus McKelvie was elected reeve of his municipality by a vote of 129 to 95. Success Angus.

Dr. Geo. S. Burt will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, for consultation in Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose cases, on Wednesday, Feb. 4, from 12 to 4 p. m. Note change of hour.

Miss Margaret Gunn returned from Toronto last week, and is now prepared to teach the Myer's music method for children. Pupils are prepared for the first examination in the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

THROUGH THE CEMENT WORKS.—An excursion from Toronto and other points is to-day, Thursday, being taken through the Cement works. Local stock holders are also invited freely, and will no doubt take advantage of it.

Use Darling's Condition Powders, for your horses—25 cts.

OLD RECORDS.—Insp. Campbell as a member of a committee to look into the records of the Presbyterian church here, found some interesting memorials of by-gone days. He has kindly furnished us with an article on this, which we hold over till next week.

CONTINUATION SERVICES.—Rev. Dr. Spencer, Brantford, will preach morning and evening in the Baptist Church on Sunday next, Rev. Wray R. Smith in the afternoon. Monday evening a Grand Concert will be given with Mr. Frank S. Davidson, St. Thomas and Dr. Brown, Holstein, as the stars. Admission, 25 cts.

DIED AT 93.—There passed away on Jan 5th last, an old resident of Glenelg, Mrs. Craig, mother of Mr. Geo. Craig, who for many years has been to her a faithful stay and support. She came to Canada 73 years ago from Armagh and has been for 40 years in Glenelg, and died there practically from old age. Rev. Mr. Newton conducted the services and she sleeps in the English church cemetery.

PRICEVILLE SHOW.—The annual meeting of the Artemesia Agricultural Society was held in Priceville, on Wednesday the 13th when the following officers were elected for the present year: President, D. McJannack; 1st Vice-Pres., Mr. J. Nichol; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mr. D. McMillan; Directors, J. Geddes, J. Patton, J. Brodie, W. Meads, J. McLean, A. Muir, D. McLean, D. Harrow and W. Watson; Auditors, J. McArthur and Dr. Dixon; Secy-Treas., J. Brodie. Date of fall exhibition, October 8 and 9.

New flannelets in nice patterns at Grant's.

Y. M. C. A.—A preliminary meeting was held in the Town Hall, Tuesday evening to consider the possibility of forming a "saction" of this body and uniting in some way with the Reading Room of the public Library. Committees were appointed from young men of the Cement works, from the factory and from the town to meet with one from the Library on Friday evening, when further action will be arranged. All should attend the adjourned annual meeting of the Library, Friday, Jan. 30 in Library building.

Black, grey, red and white yarn at Grant's.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Glenelg Agricultural Society was held in the council chamber on Wednesday of last week. The attendance was unusually large and the meeting enthusiastic. Everything was prosperous looking and the meeting augurs well for increased energy and a better exhibition for 1903. The following officers were elected for the current year: President, J. E. Marsh; 1st vice-president, Thos. Mercer; 2nd vice-president, J. I. Graham; Directors, George B. Holmes, Chas. Reed, R. L. Stephen, William Kerney, Rev. P. H. Hauck, James Kelly, Robt. Mercer, Aaron Wyllie, Geo. B. Arrowsmith; Auditors, Jas. S. Rowe, W. L. Young; Treasurer, R. L. Stephen; Secretary, Geo. Noble.—Standard.

REV. ALEX. STEWART, FIRST PASTOR OF DURHAM BAPTIST CHURCH

BAPTIST CHURCH OPENING.

Great and Successful Gatherings.

The opening of the fine new edifice erected by the Baptist congregation of the town on their site opposite Dr. Jamieson's residence took place Sunday as announced. A social tea-meeting followed Monday. Next Sunday and Monday other special services are being held and thus the religious eye of the town has been turned Baptist-wards during the week.

The Methodist Church, Sunday Morning, dropped their service with a neighborly feeling. The Presbyterians, in the same spirit dropped theirs in the evening, although it was their Communion Day, and as a consequence, large numbers availed themselves of the opportunity of mixing with their Baptist brethren and admiring their fine new church.

The Church.

The building itself has a fine appearance, the material being red brick. Handsome Gothic windows filled in with stained glass adorn south and north gables. On the west and forming part of the church is the School room, which can be thrown open to the auditorium inside. Handsome vestibules at the doors, the square tower at one angle and other features make the church, though not the largest in town, one of the prettiest.

Inside, the auditorium, finished in white, with arched roof looks as bright as a new dollar. The seating capacity is about 250 but 300 could be, and more than this on Sunday evening were, crowded into the space. The
