Farquharson and Smith of local bodies presented their congratulations and besides these, Rev Mr Emerson, Mt Forest, lent his aid, and spoke of the value of a pure gospel and the value of being surrounded with pleasant influences. Rev Mr Welch, married to a grand-daughter of Rev Mr Stewart, gave one of the best speeches of the evening. He reminded them that the building was not so important as the worshippers, and quoted Paul to the Corinthians " Be ye also enlarged," and the injunction Our Courses in both BUSINESS should apply to hearts as well as minds. The world was hungering for kind words from Christian people, so we should enlarge our sphere of service as well. Mr Graftv, Montreal, a son-in-law of Rev Mr Stewart, brought a welcome.
