DIED.

CAMPBELL.—On Feb. 17 1903, at St. Michael's Hospital Toronto after a lingering illness borne with Christian resignation, Mary L. Campbell, aged 40 years, eldest daughter of Mr. John Campbell, Swinton Park, Proton.

PRESENTATION TO MR. THOS. KNOX.

A large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. Thos. Knox met at the church at Swinton Park recently to express their regret, at his removal from their neighborhood and to wish him well in his future. Rev. Mr. Matheson was spokesman for the occasion and in complimentary terms referred to the personality and work of Mr. Knox. He had been a faithful S. S. Superintendent here and he was sure in the new and perhaps needier field, he would still find opening for his usefulness. He left behind many warm-hearted friends, who would rejoice to hear of his future success. As a token of respect from many friends, a well-filled purse was handed to him.

Mr. Knox replied, disclaiming any special worthiness on his part but warmly thanking them for the acknowledgment. He urged them to maintain the Sunday School in full vigor, and was sure that worthy successors would be found to take his place.

Mr. John Aldcorn, on behalf of the Managers expressed their regrets at losing such a valued worker in church affairs.

WEDDING BELLS.

The home of Mr and Mrs Jno W Walls, O. S. R., was on Wednesday, Feb. 25th, the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Carson E. Smith, a sturdy young farmer, of the township of Vaughan, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Florence, their second daughter. The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock by Rev. J. Traux, of Holstein, in the presence of about thirty of the bride's more intimate friends. While the wedding march was played by Mrs. McDonald, of Toronto Junction, the bride entered the room leaning on her father's arm and accompanied by her sister Eva, each carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was assisted by Mr. Bert Cousins, of Toronto Junction.

The bride looked charming in a dress of cream p. plinetie trimmed with white silk, ribbon and pearls. The bridesmaid's dress was blue trimmed with white silk.

The ceremony and congratulations over, an excellent dinner was served after which the afternoon was spent in social conversation, music and singing.

The groom's present to the bride was a pearl crescent breast-pin, to the bridesmaid a gold breast-pin and to the younger sister, Vanessa, a silver Fleur-de-lis.

The groom'sman's present to the bride was a parlor rocking chair and to the bridesmaid a silver crescent pin. Following are the other presents: her brothers lamp and workbox; her sisters, set table mats and dresser set; her parents, Bedroom suite; Mrs. McDonald, china bedroom set; Cousins, parlor table; Mr. Wm Crawford, glass lemon set; Messrs and Mrs. Eurig, glass water set; Mr and Misses Dickie, a parlor lamp; Mrs. Lee, pair hand-painted tray cloths and table cloth; Mr Robt. Lee, a silver picnic cruet; Mr and Mrs. Huble, a table cloth; Mrs. Arnott, a hand-worked cushion cover; Mr and Miss Cowan, a table cover; Miss Dawson, a silver rimmed salad bowl; Mr and Mrs. Callie, a china salad set; Mrs. Gardwell, two silver fruit spoons; Mr Henry Rogers, dozen fruit servers; Mr and Miss Nightingale, a four piece gilt glass set.

At 4 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Smith started for their home near Woodbridge. They were accompanied to the station by most of the guests and were given a right hearty send-off on the 4.51 P. M. train amidst showers of rice and good wishes.

HYMENEAL

ROSS—SMITH.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated on Wednesday, March 4th at high noon, River Bank Farm, Dornoch, the residence of the bride's brother, when Elsie Marguerite, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Smith, Dornoch, married to Mr. W. Gordon Ross, of Tilbury East. The service was conducted by Rev. J. F. Smith, M. D. of Bradford, brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. Wm. Graham of Ebsbyrnan Church, Dornoch. The bride's dress was of white linen lawn trimmed with valencien lace and insertion. A small wreath of orange blossoms was worn in her hair while she carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Little, of Holstein, wore white linen lawn with trimmings of valencien lace and insertion and pale blue ribbon. The best man was Mr Chas. Sterling of Tilbury East, cousin of the groom. The guests numbered about twenty consisting almost entirely of the relatives. Those from a distance were: Rev. J. F. Smith, M. D. of Bradford, Mrs. T. C. Smith and daughters, of Chatham, Miss Bell Ross and Messrs Chas. Sterling and Wm. Mill of Tilbury East, Miss Jennie Little, of Holstein, Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott, Chatsworth. The bride received many beautiful presents. The going away dress of the bride was a navy blue cloth with a blouse of pale blue silk. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left in the afternoon for a trip to Owen Sound. They leave for their home in Tilbury East on Wednesday Mar. 11th.

What Others say

of Worthington's Canadian Stock Tonic

James Leask, breeder and feeder of the swagelok fat cattle at Provincial Winter Fair of 1901 and 1902 says: DEAR SIR,— I have fed your Stock Tonic to cattle and like it very much. It makes them thrive well and put on flesh more rapidly. I think it is the best Tonic I have fed to horses. We are also feeding it to our hens this winter and they are laying better than they have done for a long time. It pays to feed it. Yours truly, JAMES LEASK.

Greenbank P. O., Feb. 23, 1903. DEAR SIR,— I had a mare stocked in both legs. Worthington's Stock Food took it down completely and put her in good condition. It has done my cows good. Think it is a good thing and an recommendation. B. CHURCHILL, Dairyman, Clinton, Jan. 17th, 1903.
