PERSONAL MENTION

Miss M. A. McFadden, Buffalo, is visiting at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black are visitors at Toronto this week.

Mrs. Ledingham, Sr., is staying with her daughter, Mrs. John Clark.

Mr. Jas. Milton left for Drumbo Tuesday to attend his sister's funeral.

Mrs. Dass, of Stratford, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Jas. Sutherland.

Mr. McLean, Bentinck, was a guest of the McIntosh family over Sunday.

Mr. Rod. McFarlane, Flint, Michigan, was a guest of his brothers here for a few days this week.

Mr. Carl Newton came out at the head of his class at the Effingham College examination recently.

Mr. Hugh McKinnon, Crawford, left Tuesday morning, for Basswood, Man. This is his fourth summer out West.

Mr. George Hamilton, Galt, cousin of shoemaker McIlwraith, spent a few days with him this week assisting at his opening.

Miss Lydia Arrowsmith arrived at her uncle's on Friday last from Sault Ste Marie and was thus in time to minister for a few days at his bedside.

Rev. A. G. Jansen, who has labored at Sinaluta, Assa, for the past six mos. is under appointment to Greta, Man., in Winnipeg presbytery.—Presbyterian.

Mr. and Mrs. McIlwraith and family, moved to town last Thursday and are domiciled in Mr. Scott's residence. Mr. McIlwraith has opened out his shoe store in the old Haley store.

Mr. Alex. Bell left Saturday last for Toronto to visit his brother Wm. before leaving for the West. To him and all others with the Western idea we wish good luck, but don't forget Ontario.

Mr. George Arrowsmith and sister, Mrs. Pettigrew, Saginaw, Mich., Mrs. Grieve, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. and Mr. Jno. Arrowsmith, Toronto, are all home for the occasion of their father's funeral to-day (Thursday).

Mr. Thos. Dargavel, Wiarton, was in town last week and this, visiting his sister Mrs. J. W. Crawford and having a run among old Durham and Bentinck friends after a number of years' absence. We were pleased to meet with him and to hear of the prosperity of the lakeside town.

Brevity is the soul of wit. 'Tis so in advertising. Study brevity as you would spend money; endeavor to lessen your flow of cash, yet see that the flow of both is sufficient to do execution.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Samuel Arrowsmith.

Monday, at noon, this well-known and respected gentleman passed away in his 70th year. For over 6 mos. he has been a tried sufferer, but a patient one with intense suffering, which caused him to medical times. He rallied to medical times and faithful nursing several times, but the last time he fell from a roof and since that date he has never been quite himself. Mr. Arrowsmith was a well-known skillful gardener and floriculturist, until lately he took a warm interest in municipal affairs and in his time held several municipal positions. He leaves a chief mourner his wife, his daughters, Mrs. Grieve, (Jemima) and Mrs. Pettigrew, and two sons, John, Toronto, and George, Michigan. Also his niece, Miss Lydia Arrowsmith, who came over from England to help nurse him in his illness, and who has shown a praiseworthy devotion.

Mrs. Alex. Smith.

Another of our pioneers and a much respected resident has passed away in the person of Mrs. Alex. Smith, who died from heart failure, March 7th inst. Deceased was among the first settlers of Bentinck, a native of Mull, Argyleshire, and came to this country in 1818 settling in Vaughan for a year and then moving to Bentinck in 1819. Here the remainder of her days was spent. She was married in 1822 and her husband now very frail, and two children survive her. These were all by name. The children are Mrs. Phil. McAllan, who resides at Dornoch, and Hugh of Duluth. Mrs. Smith was a kind self denying mother, a firm believer in the faith, and a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. Her pastor Rev. Graham, preached a very appropriate sermon, the day of the interment. She was laid to rest in Latona cemetery and her age at death was 69 yrs. 6 mos. Three sisters survive her, Mrs. Hector McLean, Mrs. John McPhail, Priceville, and Mrs. Neil McDonald, Walkerton.

[The above notice written before Mr. Smith's death reached us only this week with the following account of the life and death of the widowed husband.—Ed.]

Mr. Alex. G. Smith.

Another of the dwindling number of the pioneers and a highly esteemed resident departed this life on the evening of Friday, March 20, following so soon his life partner to the great beyond. He was born in the parish of Duthel, Invernesshire, Scotland, March 14th, 1820, emigrated to Canada in 1841, and settled in Fraserfield, Guelph Co. In 1843 he moved to Grey Co. and was one of the men who helped to survey the townships of Brant, Bentinck, Sullivan and Elderslie. He afterwards became the first reeve of Bentinck. In 1862 he was married to Christina Black, who predeceased him a fortnight ago, and is survived by two children, Mrs. McAllan, Dornoch, and Hugh, Duluth. Deceased was a kind father, and endured all things with patience. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a teacher for years in the Sabbath School, and was a constant student of the Word of God. At his death, which seemed to be solely from old age—he was 83 years old having long outlived the allotted span. In politics he was a staunch Reformer, and made many warm friends during his long career. One brother and one sister survive him, William, at Dornoch, and Mrs. Alex. Black, Oak River, Manitoba. Rev. Mr. Graham conducted appropriate services at his late residence and at the grave in Latona Cemetery where he now awaits with his wife the resurrection call.

Additional Locals.

Songs in English and Indian, rendered by Madam Alice Waltz, in the production of the Indian picture play of Hiawatha: "My Bark Canoe," "A Song of Absence and of Longing," "The Lake Shien," "Old Shoes," "Parting Song," "Hiawatha's Death Song." Also a number of the most popular English and Scotch songs. See the play and hear the singer on Friday evening next, in the town hall.

DIVISION COURT.—Barrister W. A. Bishop, Owen Sound, held court to-day in Peace of Judge Morrison. There was a very light docket. Talking of Judges, we suppose Judge Morrison will be appointed to the position of Senior Judge, just made vacant by Judge Cressor's death. No man fitter we are sure can be found. His ability, his fairness and the fitness of things call for his promotion from Junior to Senior Judge: in fact the County will be shocked should he not get the position.

Mr. A. Boyd of this place received word on Friday last of the death of his sister, Miss Flora Boyd, at Acheson, Kas. March 7th. Miss Boyd died very suddenly of heart disease at the age of 59 years. She lived with her brother, Hugh Boyd. Although a sufferer with heart trouble, she was in unusually good health when she retired at night. She did not rise at the accustomed hour, and her brother, upon going to her room to call her, found her dead. Her death had evidently been a very peaceful one. Miss Boyd was born in Vaughan, Ont., and went to Acheson in 1883 and was very popular among her neighbors. She lived for some years with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Malloy, Acheson, from whose home the funeral took place.—Flesherton Advance.

Two mischievous girls who are members of a church choir in a country town, figured recently in a laughable incident, says an exchange, which is quite good enough to bear repeating. In some way, known only to themselves, they became possessed of the subject of the minister's Sunday morning sermon and thereupon set about selecting songs in harmony with the theme. On Sunday morning they were on hand bright and early, looking innocent enough to deceive a brace of Pinkerton detectives. One of them seated herself at the organ and played, "Faint, yet Pursuing." Then the minister arose, and consulting the list which had been given him, called out for number 305. The choir sang, "Almost Persuaded." The minister arose and announced the theme, "Courtship and Marriage," read the lesson and called the new song, "Triumph at Last," and the congregation began to look amused. "After praying sing number 201," said the minister, and in his petition asked that the spirit of hearers, be banished. Then the choir sang, "Hasten, Lord, the Glorious Day," and everybody laughed. Even the minister had difficulty in stifling a smile when the choir struck up, "Behold the Bridegroom Cometh," and the congregation became positively hilarious as the organ pealed out the opening notes of "What Shall the Harvest Be?" And throughout, those wicked girls preserved their expression of saintly innocence and afterwards decided it was "the most peculiar and striking coincidence" they ever heard of.—Ex.

What Others say

Worthington's Canadian Stock Tonic
James Leask, breeder and feeder of the sweetest fat cattle at Provincial Winter Fair of 1901 and 1902 says:
"I have fed your Stock Tonic to cattle and like it very much. It makes them thrive well and put on flesh more rapidly. I think it is the best Tonic I have fed to horses. We are also feeding it to our hens this winter and they are laying better than they have done for a long time. It 1903 to feed it."
Yours truly,
JAMES LEASK.
