TOWN TOPICS

Still Plenty of Bargains, at Mockler's. Go to Jas. Ireland's for your Easter hat.

Ready Made Skirts and under Skirts, at Grant's.

Lewis of Berlin, the piano tuner, is in town, at the Middaugh House.

A First Class Tailoress wanted, apply to J. A. GLASS, Merchant Tailor.

Moth Camphor, Moth Bags, Paris Green, at MacFarlane's Drug Store.

New Worsteds and Tweeds—swell goods for a swell suit—at Jas. Ireland's.

FOR SALE.—A full line of Window Shades 6 and 7 ft lengths. She well & Lenahan.

Big snaps in Men's Plough Shoes all sizes, below wholesale prices—at H. H. Mockler's.

Pearcey's Prepared Paints are the most reliable—try them—MacFarlane & Co.

CRICKET.—Cricket players and admirers of the game are requested to meet in Telford's Office, Friday evening at 8 p. m.

CURLING ON MARCH 25.—Recent Winnipeg papers have accounts of curling matches on above date in one of which Mr J. A. Hunter figures in what must have been an exciting game, and his side won too on the final.

Men's Rubber Rain Proof Coats—at Grant's.

GHOULS.—Sometime last Saturday night or Sunday morning some one with low ideas of decency, removed the ribbon from the floral offerings at the Arrowsmith grave. This is not the first time that ghouls have lacerated tender feelings by predatory prowling among the tender tokens.

A new bunco game is being worked on unwary merchants throughout the country. A man enters the store, displays a government badge and states that he is on the secret service and on the lookout for counterfeit money. He looks over the cash drawer and invariably finds four or five counterfeit dollars. Those he "confiscates." The whole thing is a fraud.

HOUSE FAMINE.—As was expected the demand for house accommodation, exceeds the supply. Mr. A. Turner has bought the old Eva property next to Clerk Vollett's. Mr. Allan purchased the MacFarlane property, south of his own, it is expected that Mr. A. D. McKenzie will return to occupy his old home this summer, and it would almost seem as if those wanting to live in Durham will have to live in tents till houses go up.

Gentlemen—You'll want a new suit for Spring wear, Jas. Ireland's is where you'll get the best styles and values.

The Chesley Ent. of last week says: "Yesterday Mr. Geddes, a well-to-do young farmer in the north part of Normanby Tp., was married to one of our town girls, Miss Aggie Anderson. We have known both the bride and bridegroom for at least 12 years, and have no hesitation in saying it is a good match on both sides. Mr. Geddes is a brother of the popular manager of the Hepworth Manf. Co." [The Review extends hearty good wishes to Mr. Geddes and his bride.—Ed.]

A TOUCHING GIFT.—Sunday last Rev. Mr. Farquharson announced that Mr. R. MacFarlane, Sr., had made a presentation to the church of a crayon portrait of the late Rev. Wm. Park. This appropriate gift reflects credit on the donor and will gratify the entire membership, especially the lessening number who sat under his ministrations with great delight. The portrait is a very good one and adorns the Session room. Miss Fraser, photographer, also deserves credit for her share of the work.

Get one of our Nice Ready-to-wear Hats, at Grant's.

AN HONORED LIFE CLOSED.—Last week's Barrie Advance contains a lengthy notice of John Laird, one of its earliest settlers, who has just passed away at an advanced age. Deceased was an uncle of Mrs. Wm. Black, of town, and the warmth of the references to him by the editor and by the pastor of the Methodist church where he held office continuously for 52 years show him to have been a man of sterling worth and a light to the community. He saw active service in the rebellion of 1837, came to Barrie in 1839, was a prominent contractor and made the first development of the Sault Water power where the Clergue works now are. His motto was "Peace and Progress." He was "slow to condemn, ever ready to forgive, his life was a benediction, and his noble character leaves its impression on those who mourn his loss." The funeral services, offerings, &c., were very impressive.

Ladies' Rain Coats at Grant's. Read Mockler's Ad for fresh list of Bargains.

We are Headquarters of Window Shades—MacFarlane & Co. 3

You can get Ready Made Wrappers and Shirt Waists—at Grant's. Money to Loan at 4 1/2 per cent. MACKAY & DUNN, Durham

The Cement bagging machinery is now working and shipping is much facilitated.

20 tumblers good Baking Powder—won't last long at this price—Regular 10c—while they last—5c a tumbler, at Jas. Ireland's.

Mrs. Newton "Concert Pianiste" will give a Piano Recital Friday evening April 17th, in the Baptist Church, assisted by Talented Vocalists.

AGENT WANTED.—To take orders for our Custom Made Skirts, Raglans and Raincoats. Liberal commission. Write at once. Canadian Skirt Co., Guelph, Ont.

Occasional correspondents will oblige themselves and us by attaching their name to contributions. Recently a clever article met the usual fate owing to the lack of a voucher. Give name and address—not for publication.

NEW SHOE SHOP.—Mr J. S. McIlraith this week makes his bow to our readers. He has a fine selection of boots & shoes, and is prepared to do all kinds of custom work, repairing, &c. We have no doubt that in this growing town he will get a profitable share of the growing trade.

BAND OF HOPE.—On Friday evening a carefully prepared entertainment will be held in the Presbyterian Church. Music and recitation by the members, a chalk talk by Rev. Mr. Smith and Music by Mrs. Newton and others will make an attractive programme. Opens at 8 p. m. Silver collection at the door.

CRAWFORD.—Messrs Hector McDonald, and J. R. Ledingham, brothers respectively of Mr and Mrs Alex. McDonald here, left Tuesday for the West. Mr. Dan. McKinnon, of the neighborhood, late of the Enterprise staff, left on Monday for Bottineau, N. Dak. Mr. John White, Sr., is so ill, that his recovery is not expected.

The editor cannot call at your home to enquire if there is news. If you know of any hand it in. We want all the news there is, but no one man can get all. Just as anxious to mention your company or visits as to mention those of your neighbors, but probably your neighbor gives us more assistance in securing the facts. Hand in your news items. We want them.

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Samuel Arrowsmith took place last Thursday, many friends and neighbors paying the last tribute of respect and Rev. Mr. Farquharson conducting services at house and grave. The floral offerings were exceedingly beautiful, a large headpiece, 'Gates ajar,' being very striking; besides there were two anchors, a spray, and a sheaf of ripe grain, fastened with purple ribbon, and other offerings all the visible manifestations of the inward love of dear ones. In addition to our notes last week, we add that Mr Arrowsmith was born in Macclesfield, Cheshire, England. Being in delicate health he came out on a visit to a brother in Glenelg and found the change so beneficial that he stayed. He landed in New York in 1800, the same day as the Prince of Wales as it happened, and came direct to the 'bush,' marrying two years after and has been here ever since with the exception of a trip to England in 1879. He is the last of six brothers but three sisters survive him.

Newspaper subscribers often wonder why the publisher keeps on sending the paper when the subscription has expired. An exchange thus explains the matter: When a subscription is paid to a certain time, and the time expires and the paper stops, it looks as if the editor doubted the integrity of a subscriber, and in nine cases out of ten the subscriber will give the editor a calling down for insinuating that his credit was not good. Rather than cast any reflection against a neighbor's honesty to pay a small debt, it has been customary for newspapers to continue sending the paper after the time has expired. The city weeklies and dailies do not generally follow this rule as their subscribers are at a distance, and besides they are not acquainted with them and do not know their financial standing. One should deem it an honor to know that his credit is not doubted when the publishers continue to send the paper. Should the subscriber wish to have the paper discontinued he should inform the publisher and remit to date, if any amount is owing.

A MASS MEETING.

A New Industry Assured.

Judging by the interest taken in answer to the mayor's call for a meeting to consider the proposition of a Cream Separator manufacturing Industry in Durham, there is perfect certainty of it passing the vote of the ratepayers. The lower Town hall, resplendent in new papering and decorations, was filled with ratepayers, the Mayor was elected to the chair and after introducing the subject and telling the preliminary steps that had been taken, called on Mr. Broomall, the expert who is promoting the scheme, to explain matters further.

Very lucidly he laid before the meeting the good points of his machine. It has been in use for 3 years over in the States, it is made in three sizes and sells from $65 to $100. Should he locate in Durham it is the intention to manufacture every part, even to the packing boxes for shipment. Those who have compared this with other machines seem to agree that it has many points of excellence. A large number for some days back and at the meeting have had it explained to them.

He asks a free site, exemption from taxation for 10 years, other than at present, and a loan of $7000, or he or his company to put $15000 into the business, and the town to be secured by first mortgage on the building and machinery when in place. The repayment of the loan in $1000 instalments to begin at the end of 3rd year. He promises to employ a staff of 30 hands to begin with, and every likelihood of increasing. He threw himself open to questions, and did at intervals, answer some satisfactorily.

The mayor called a large number of representative citizens, and there was not a discordant note uttered the whole evening, everyone thinking that with proper guarantees, the proposition was an excellent one. A motion expressing the sense of the meeting that the council should submit a by-law, was passed unanimously, and this will be acted upon as the council at their own meeting with Mr. Broomall, were impressed by his candour as well as by his machine.

There can be no two opinions of the duty of the ratepayers when the by-law is brought before them, in view of the benefit the town has received from the furniture and cement industries. Here is something antagonizing neither, for a very small temporary outlay increasing our population and curbing excessive debt, there is not the least prospect of a burden, but the reverse, and we trust a hearty unanimous vote will result when the time comes.

Votes of thanks to Mr. Broomall and the mayor closed the meeting.

School Reports and other matter held till next week.

The Methodist Concert on Thursday evening last was one of the most successful yet held. The church was full and therefore satisfactory financially, but the character of the programme was also first class. The well-known Joy sisters, Flesherston and Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, the latter also a Joy—are attractive entertainers. Rev. Mr. McIrvine, Grand Valley, is an excellent reader and he was a great strength to a good program.

THE DROWNING ACCIDENT.—Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. N. McCallum over the death of his son Hugh, who, with three others, met death at Bass Lake last Thursday. They were in the employ of the O. S. Basket Factory and the party comprised, Wm. Nichols, Jas. McLellan, Harry Bolton, Hugh McCallum and Wm. Conklin. They were crossing the lake in a gale, and the boat getting into the trough of the sea, was swamped and only Conklin got to shore. On Sunday last the friends of Hugh McCallum placed his body in Latona Cemetery. All the bodies were found.

A BRILLIANT SOCIAL.—Was that of the Presbyterian Guild, Monday evening. The basement was very prettily adorned with pictures, &c., and these furnished a basis for a literary rambling guessing exercise, amusing and profitable. A cleverly rendered literary program followed, and in addition to the delights of an agreeable chairman, witty speeches and excellent vocal and instrumental selections by the members and others, there was some brilliant piano music by Mrs. (Rev.) Newton. Mr. R. Ledingham also gave an interesting address. Following these came a general mix-up for a social hour and substantial repast. 'God Save the King' followed by the benediction closed the meeting, and all went home to look in the almanac for the next month with 5 Mondays. The Baptist young people very kindly closed their meeting to give opportunity to fraternize.
