excitement or mental ords of Sympathy.

cable: The tragic end ng Mac," who, the son of d cottar, rose from a posdraper's assistant to be ed general in the British caused great surprise and w in London. The nature ences with which he was an not become generally the public, but had been ossip in military circles. igh in the army and Highlander comrades, eshere is keen grief, their that it was "better to han face dishonor." as separated from his years ago, and before he mission. He has not lived nce. He leaves a son, who cated in an English Pub-al announcement made by or of Ceylon in the Legisday that Major-General would be court-martiallicity given to the affair. tly the determining mosuicide. His friends atunfortunate business to health and shattered outcome of two camne Soudan and South of dysentery and a stroke at Paardeberg outh African campaign effects, and a wound n the leg healed badly. hat he often complainthe head, and in Ceyh and the depression he was suffering grew h an extent that there avallding him from the apers here comment lly on the inexpreshis countrymen will best as the man who rom Omdurman King rince of Wales, greet-"In 1875 you were a India, and now you in the British army. I have met you."

fac's War Record. , the son of a pioneer

I in the Gordon Higha commission by Lord

A for gallant conduct. war. Mentioned twice the Boer war of 1881. uba Hill, and mentehes.

le Expedition, 1884-5. aken in 1888, where ed in despatches, and edive's star. In 1889 mentioned for disce, and two years in the capture of mmented the Second e of the Dongota oree, when he way d in despatches. the Egyptian Brimeluding the fightnot, Albara, and Il of which he was despatches, and res of Parliament. D. C. to the late

Highland Brigade, 99-1901, and was ordeberg. he command of the Belgaum District. subsequently aper of the forces in m 1893.

ds That There Suffering.

March 30 .- Dr. a lecturer of the ingfors, who was anish national remake a tour of Finnies that his party eard of any parish ive thousand desgreen grain mixed his had been prearly part of the relief committee its operations to his party visited and found in every of bread and sup-Reuter adds that evould have been ped by American nittee now has Hage and parish, suffering discovtended to. Potascarce, but the sufficient bread, while carefully the people more ordinary years, payment for its ic, so as to avoid pie. As to the com famine, Dr. happenings have

HEALTH. the Lie to Stor es

-The vague sugpool Post tha poor health and sion does not well informed frequently is pparently in exspirits. He left on to visit the Knowsley Park. see the grand e at Liverpoo! esty will start or Lisbon, and to leave the three weeks at urgestion that ill-health.

by a packet of Blue hibbon Ceylon Green which is fast displacing it.

The Rose and Lily Dagger

A TALE OF WOMAN'S LOVE AND WOMAN'S PERFIDY & & &

soul! Love! Keep it for setting handsomest man in gaining a lady's to music, Luigi. There isn't such a favor, and Fanny Inchley might, rething in the outside world. And if versing the sexes, have made the his custom to ride or walk over to there were, it is not for me. There same assertion. goes the second bell. Wait here till I have dressed; I shall not be ten minutes," and he strode off.

CHAPTER V. Miss Fanny Inchley waited until the marquis' tall form had disap- ple and always well dressed; whatpeared round the bend, then she slid ever she wore seemed to harmonout of her hiding place and went ize with or set off the red hair and down to the bridge, crossed it quick- pale, small featured face; and though ly, and then sauntered along the Bridget and others of her sex had river bank toward the town, her declared Miss Inchley's eyes to be sharp eyes keeping a constant green, no one, not even a woman, watch in front and on either side could deny that she had a trick of

It was evident that she was wait- which girls with really good eyes ing for some one; and although he often lacked. She was witty, she was was quite unconscious of it, that some one was-Captain Sherwin. She had only spoken to him once in her life, but on that occasion she had danced with him, and that gingle dance had fired an ambition in the heart of Fanny Inchiev which burned persistently and obstinately. There were two balls held annually at Barefield; one in January and the other in June, and everybody who was anybody, and a great many persons who were nobodies, attended them. Fanny, although she was only the niece of the Castle housekeeper, had gone to the one in January-the last one-and not- quite filling the heart of her aunt withstanding her red hair and eyes with pride. She was so proud of her of uncertain hue, had attracted clever niece, indeed, that, instead of some attention.

Thanks, but I will get you him three-quarters of an hour start, me. Soul mating he would undertake to beat the

> No one could have called her even pretty, but she possessed that nameless something which, call it fascination or the art of prepossessing or what you will, is very effective with men. Her thin figure was supusing them to the best advantage clever, and she was very ambitious.

She was only the housekeeper's niece, but she told herself that she meant to be-whatever she could be. Her father had been a dancing master in London, and at his death Mrs. Inchiey, who had no children of her own, had adopted the little orphan, and had sent her to a good school-for Mrs. Inchley had a remarkably good situation, and had saved money. Fanny had displayed a good deal of intelligence at the boarding school, and had soon outdistanced her fellow pupils, bringing with her to the castle a little pile of prizes in handsome bindings, and sending her out as a governess, or It was John Wilkes, the uglist man apprenticing her to a milliner, she of his time, who declared that, give kept her at home in idleness; and have stood the test of summer sun for 60 years. They stand for economy and duraoility, will not crack, blister or fall away. They preserve your house and keep it beautiful throughout the lifetime of pure paint. Being made right, they are easy to work, last longer, look better and at just the right price. Ask your dealer. Write us for "Booklet B." free, showing how some houses are painted with Ramsay's Paints. Established PAINT A. RAMSAY & SON, 1842 MAKERS

NONE BETTER THAN RENNIE'S-HIGHEST QUALITY.

RENNIE'S PRIZE SWEDE. TANKARD CREAM (SUGAR BEET).

The Very Best Purple Top Swede. sweet and rich. Is one of the hardiest most productive and most nutritious varieties in cultivation. Excellent keeper.

Pounds 80c. Add Se. per pound if Superb Gladiolus, 5 Rare Montoretias. 20 Bulbs for 25c. NEW POTATO - EARLIEST Heads the list in a test of over 38 varieties of toes and yieldearly stages of growth or unripe condition. Cooks dry and mealy. Lb. 30c., 31bs. 75c., BUSHEL $2.00.

10 PACKETS 25c. TAKE YOUR CHOICE. BY MAIL POSTPAID.

VEGETABLES. Beans, Golden Wax. Beet, Edipse, round. Beet, Flat Egyptian. Beet, Long Smooth. Cabbage, Winning-

15. Cuemaber, White | St. Pumpkin, Large Cheese. 22. Peas. First and Rest. 42. Asters. Mixed. 43. Balsam. Mixed. 43. Balsam. Mixed. 44. Carmation. Mixed.

54 Phlox Drummen-55. Sweet Peas, Mixed

SOLD BY LEADING MERCHANTS IN SEALED PACKAGES NEVER IN BULK. FROM WM. RENNIE, Toronto. JARVIS STS.

45. Climbers, Mixed. 46. Everlastings, M'x'd 47. Mignonette, Sweet. 48. Morning Glery.

of very fine cambric, and an ex-

SPRING AILMENTS

herself "quite like a lady," and The Blood Needs Attention at This "ladying" it over the servants, male Season-Purgatives Should be Among those who had been attract-Avoided.

ed to the ball by Miss Fanny's di-Spring is the season when your minutive figure and expressive eyes system needs toning up. In the had been Captain Charles, and he spring you must have new blood, had gone up to her and asked her for just as the trees must have new a dance. Fanny, who had inherited her father's, the dancing master's sprightly, happy and healthy. Many what purports to be the original making it in a moment quite regucaptain told her. He also said varithis is a serious mistake, as the ous other pleasant things after the tendency of all purgatives is to furmanner of the young military man, and had then gone his way and forgotten her. But Fanny had not forgotten him. She treasured the memliams' Pink Pills. They actually ory of that dance, and the pleasant make new, rich red blood-they are commonplaces he had uttered in his soft, low voice, as things precious and ever to be remembered, and at ily banish all spring ailments. Miss | manding, or to both of them." night as she brushed out the light red locks-they were abundant and Belle Cohoon, White Rock Mills, N. S., says: "I have found Dr. Williams' not without a certain kind of beauty -she pondered over all he had said One night she amused herself by scribbling on a sheet of paper his name-"Captain Sherwin"; then she wrote her own under it, and then right down to the end of the page, "Mrs. Charles Sherwin," "Mrs. Sher-

match; but "Mrs. Sherwin" remain-The captain lodged at a farmhouse box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writ- who packed the box. -Owen's Farm it was called-on the other side of the valley, and it was ing direct to the Dr. Williams Medilet any dealer persuade you to take tradition it was placed upon a can-up, for there sat an old man turnthe club every afternoon, and rea substitute. Substitutes never cured | vas background to preserve it. The ing music out of another organ as anyone-the genuine pills have cured date line on the warrant is as fol- dilapidated as the one whose faint He generally came by the river bank, hundreds of thousands in all parts lows: and by a strange coincidence Fanny of the world. that way. Sometimes the captain

Farny gave a little start and look-

you!" he said as a feeler.

drooped again.

ashamed to say -- "

the lids-Fanny had good lashesginning to think that she was rather

"That you have forgotten me. Ah that is only natural. You gave me a dance at the Town Hall last January, Captain Sherwin. It was not and she seemed to check a little sigh

This was delightful to the captain

"You are staying at the Castle?"

Fanny opened her eyes upon him

"You mean as a visitor? On, no!

But-yes, I am in a sense. I am staying with my aunt. She is the

The captain felt rather surprised.

and looked it. This refined, fairy-like creature only the niece of an upper servant! His shifty eyes grew more

"It must be very pleasant there,"

he said, glancing toward the park.

"'Pon my word I envy the stream."

said the captain, with what he considered one of his most killing glances.

"I deserve that you should think

To be Continued.)

Had Lost Track of the Case.

The young woman who, when asked

Some wags from a neighboring

"Well, not so deed as you taink. I

"Well, no," said the postmaster "I didn't know that he was dead, but I

So Sudden!

Princeton Tiger.

heard last week he was pretty low.

when Shakespeare died."

-Youth's Companion.

gaged this evening--

Miss Fanny shot a half-frightened likely that you would remember it, and look down at her flowers.

no notion who she was.

he said, inquiringly.

Fanny sighed.

look at him.

with innocent wonder.

"Oh, yes; I remember you."

ed up at him with a blush that lent her face just the amount of color it

A MOTHER'S RESPONSIBILITY. Every mother is responsible to some extent for the health of her little ones, and the prudent mother will always keep at hand the means for protecting the health of her children. For this purpose there is absolutely no medicine can compare with Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets speedily relieve and promptly cure all stomach and bowel troubles, break up ali colds, check simple fevers, prevent croup, and allay the irritation accompanying, the cutting of teeth. They are good for children of all ages from birth upwards, and are sold under a guarantee to contain no opiate or harmful drug. All mothers who have used Baby's Own Tablets praise them and keep them in the house. Mrs. John Weaver, Blissfield, N. B., says: "I have a family of six children and have used Baby's Own Tablets and pretty than otherwise. "I'm-I'm know that they are the best medicine I have ever used for my little in idleness Fanny wandered about the castle, dressing and carrying and all she had heard of him.

win," "Captain and Mrs. Sherwin."

She tore the paper up very carefully and burned the fragments with a ed dancing before her eyes, and never left her mind from that moment.

turn to dinner about eight o'clock.

very often happened to be walking saw her and glanced at her-he did and female.

You can get Baby's Own Tablets from any druggist or they will be sent by mail post paid at 25 cents a box by writing to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

not remember her; women look so His vanity and self-love had received different in their ordinary everyday a severe wound a few hours ago and clothes from what they do in the this subtle deference and flattery gorgeous, glorious raiment of the fell on his chafed spirit like a healballroom—and if he had remembered ing ointment. her, the captain would not probably have noticed her by any greeting, for at that time he had no lorgotten, Miss-Miss-' thought or care for any other woman than Elaine Delaine.

But Fanny Inchley was not discouraged. If he would not speak to her of his own accord -well, some day she would make him.

This evening she had decided that the time had come when she must make him, and though she sauntered along apparently so innocently aimless and meditative, picking a flower now and then and stopping to watch the trout that jumped and flopped in the stream, her acute housekeeper. brain was busy with schemes and

Presently she heard the soft pad, pad of a horse's hoofs on the turf, and drawing her shawl closer round her head, she stood and watched. The sound came nearer, and very soon the captain appeared. He was riding slowly and sat in the saddle in a brooding, dispirited and altogether limp fashion.

avoiding the club, ridden along the mustn't complain. I have always the arily recorded. lanes, chewing the cud of his dis- clear brooks and the flowers, and comfiture and mortification, and sometimes I come and talk with the generally enjoying a very bad time stream."
of it. Then he had at last bethought "'Pon him the time, and turned on the familiar ride home.

As he neared the bridge the spot reminded him of all he had undergone there a short time ago, and his weak, handsome face reddened, and his lips | me sllly and laugh at me," she said, quivered in the way peculiar to them. | and as she turned her face away from He also swore a little. Your weak- him her sensitive lip quivered. minded man always when he has been vanquished and invariably lays the blame, not on himself, but on other people. He felt intensely wretched and fearfully small. He was aching all if she had read "Romeo and Juliet," over, for the marquis' grip was of replied that she had never read a kind which leaves something to be Juliet, but she thought Romeo was remembered, and altogether he was lovely, was of the same temperament in that plight when a man feels that | as a village postmaster who knew or he has been very badly treated and pretended to know something of all that all the world is against him. | the doings of the world, great and As he passed the bridge he saw a small. slight girlish figure coming slowly toward him. He scarcely noticed her | town who strolled into the postoffice as she came along slowly, her head one day thought they would have bent with sweet maidenly abstrac- some sport with the wise man. tion over some flowers she held in | "I suppose it's pretty dead up her hand; in such abstraction that her, Mr. Pratt," said one. she evidently did not hear the approaching horse, for the captain had guess there ain't much goes on that ing over her, and she gave quite a | happen right here."

start as she shrank with a little cry out of his path. The captain just glanced at her back on the stock exchange phrase. and rode on at the same slow walk. ed back at the girl, who had stopped | chener in the papers," and was kneeling on the bank gathering some more flowers, hesitated, then with an exclamation of impatience, dropped from his horse and picked up the handkerchief.

It was a very delicate little specimen of its tribe, a few inches square, tremely pretty "Fanny" was work-ed in light blue at the corner. The captain held it daintly, and with the bridle of his horse slung ***************** DEATH WARRANT OF CHARLES I.

Howard Rayner, a member of the sap. With new blood you will feel Baltimore har, has in his possession its way through the torn enamel. people take purgatives in spring, but warrant issued for the execution of Charles L. King of England. The ther weaken the system. The one and document came into his possession a syringe. Then he took up in a foronly sure way to get new blood and recently through some legal business; ceps a morsel of dental gold. This new strength is to take Dr. Wil- he was transacting for a client who is a descendant of Col. Lynne. The the greatest spring tonic in the warrant was directed to Col. Lynne, grew, till finally the tooth had reworld. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speed- "or to the Lieutenant-Colonel Com- gained its proper size and shape. It

It was necessary to secure from Pink Pills a splendid spring medi- England some family records, and cine. I was very much run down; among the contents of the box shipthe least exertion exhausted me, and ped to Mr. Rayner's chent was the I had a constant feeling of languor | warrant. The descent of the Balti- city recently were much puzzled by me and my sleep at night was dis- be established, and in his family barrel organ. turbed and restless. After I began there has always been a tradition the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills | that the death warrant was in the there was a speely change for the possession of his relatives. better, and after taking a few boxes The warrant has no bearing on the

I felt stronger than I had done for matter concerning which Mr. Ray- peal: You can get Dr. Williams' Pink presence among the other papers is less children." Pills from any dealer in medicine, or believed to have been the result of The old woman wore a pair of blue

The parenment is hadly worn. Fifty | A few streets farther on the myscine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not years after its issue, according to tery of the inscription was cleared

At the High Court of Justice for up the street. the tryinge and indytinge of Charles | He, too, wore glasses, and his or-Stenart, Kinge of England, Janu- gan bore this legend: ary 24th, Anno Domini, 1648. rant :

needed, and felt in her pocket before Whereas, Charles Steuart, Kinge less children." of England, is and standeth con- A man stepped up to him and said: "Oh, yes! Thank you!" she said, in her clear and by no means unmusical voice, and the expressive eyes went crimes, and sentence was pronounc- right label on your organ. up for a moment to his, then dropped timidly again. "It is my handkerchief. I am sorry you should have had the trouble to get off your horse, and come back with it-Captain Sherwin." He raised his hat, wondering who tion yet remaineth to be done. she was. He looked at her closely. These are therefore to will and read the sign. She was dressed quietly and tasterequire you to see this sentence fully, and had evidently come from the Castle, or she would have worn a hat or bonnet. Could she be a visitor? "I have the honor to be known to off January between the hours of up again,"-Tit-Bits. Tenn in the morninge and five in Up went the eyes again, and then the afternoon of the same day full effect. And for soe doing this shall be your sufficient warrant, "Remember," said the captain, be-

Then follow the names of the members of the House of Commons who signed Charles I's. death warrant. Bradshawe, the president, appears third on the list.

Two warrants were issued for the execution of Charles I. One was given to the headsman and the other to the officer commanding the troops at the Tower. It was the duty of the latter to protect the executioner in carrying out the sentence of the House of Commons, which, in this case, constituted the court.

"Of course I remember." he said "I can't think how I could have On the document some of the words are crossed with lines drawn at right angles to one another. Several signa-"Inchley, Fanny Inchley," she said tures to the document are marked in the same manner. This has been ex-He paused. He had not heard her plained in the following manner: name at the ball, or if he had had caught it only indistinctly, and had

It was feared that an attempt might be made by the King's friends to bribe someone to invalidate the warrant by changing its wording. It would be impossible to erase any word without destroying in part the your books in." checkered lines, and the fraud would | at once be apparent if there was any interference with the continuity of the marks.

Some of the Commoners, too, were not anxious to place their signatures on a warrant for the death of the King of England, Their braver assonames removed from the document. queen of beauty, and by way of com-Hence the marks over the names. "Y-e-s,' she said, hesitatingly.

Horse None the Worse of it.

"A splinter must come off here." he said, and he took up an instrument two feet long, scissors shaped, and with cutting edges that were sawlike. This was a cutter and on being applied to the tooth it snapped off the splinter as though it had been chalk.

Among the silver glitter of the deptal instruments on the table an electric battery buzzed. The surgeon fixed to one of its wires a drill and instantly a burr of steel upon the end of the drill began to revolve with the current's force as fast as a circular saw. He applied the drill to the tooth. With a humming sound it dug lar and smooth.

The dentist cleansed the tooth thoroughly with hot air blown from malleable metal he pounded tight into the cavity and added more and more to it, molding the gold as it was then filed smooth and polished to a certain brilliance and the oper-

Mixed the Instruments.

and sluggishness. My appetite failed morean from Col. Lynne is said to an old woman who was playing a At one end of the instrument she had pasted this notice: "Help the Blind," Beneath this appeared a second ap-ner was seeking information. Its "I am the father of seven motherby mail post paid, at 50 cents a an oversight on the part of those spectacles, behind which her eyes were completely hidden.

strains could almost be heard from

"Help the Blind."

And under it: This is the language of the war- "I am the mother of seven fathervicted, attaynted and condemned "Look here, my friend, next time of high treason and other high you go out you had better get the ed against him by this [a symbol The grinder must have guessed supposed to represent the court what the error was, for, pushing passing sentence] to be put to death | the glasses back from his eyes, he by the severance of his head from peered quickly up and down the his body, of which sentence execu- street as if looking for a policeman. Seeing none, he leaned over and

"That's the old woman all over," executed in the open streets be- he muttered, replacing the glasses fore Whitehall upon the morrowe and turning his instrument to leave. the thirtieth of this instante month | "She's mixed them blooming organs

Not Far Wrong.

The story is told of Eliot's translation into the Indian language of the passages from the Bible, "The mother of Sisera looked out at the window and cried through the lattice." Not knowing the Indian word for "lattice," he tried to get the signed first. Thomas Grey was sec- Indians to help him out, and desond, and the name of O. Cromwell | cribed a wicker framework. The Indians thought they recognized his meaning and gave him the word. Afterward Eliot found that he had made the mother of Sisera cry through the eel-pot, A similar difficulty in coaxing a definition from the untutored was met by a school

She was trying to make the children define the word "bovine." "It applies to an animal," she said, "Can any one tell me what

There was the silence of confessed ignorance. The teacher began to throw out leading hints. "The animal that gives us meat." Still silence.

"And shoes," she added. No light broke on the 20 puzzled "And the straps that you carry

"Oh, I know!" cried a young voice, with explosive eagerness, "Well. James, what animal is it?" "Father !"-Youth's Companion.

Origin of the Military Salute.

Of military salutes, raising the right hand to the head is generally ciates made sure that the weaklings believed to have originated from the or conscientious members, as the days of the tournament, when the case might be, should not have their | knights filed past the throne of the pliment, raised their hands to their On Jan. 30, between 2 and 3 o'clock | brow to imply that their beauty was "It is a very beautiful place, in the afternoon, Charles I. was too dazzling for unshaded eyes to but it is very lonely. There is no one taken to a scaffold covered with gaze on. The officer's salute with He looked—as he was—tired, disap—there," she stopped and sighed again. black, before Whitehall. There he the sword has a double meaning was executed. It will be noticed that climbed the hill after the scene with and of course it seems lonely to me. | there is some discrepancy in the date | posite the lips is a repetition of the Elaine and the marquis, had got his I never see anyone with whom I can of the warrant and the facts con- crusaders action in kissing the cross horse at the cottage, and had then, talk or exchange an idea. But I nected with the execution as ordin- hilt of his sword in token of faith and fealty, while lowering the point afterward implies either submission or friendship, meaning in either case that is is no longer necessary to stand on guard.

How Cruel.

Miss Thin-Don't you think my new dress is just exquisite? They Fannie-Oh, lovely! I think that

The Twinging Pains of Rheumatism

And Sciatica, Distressing Headaches and Dizzy Spells, Made Life Wretched-Doctors and Medicines Availed Nothing, but Cure Came with the use of it.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

to swerve to the right to avoid rid- we don't hear about, even if it don't Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills should health and spirits. "Why, you people don't know the war's over," said another, falling back on the stock exchange thrase This case of Mr. Haine's was unus-"Oh, you can't work that dodge on ually serious because it was of twen- these did me any good." but presently he saw something me," replied the postmaster, looking ty years' standing, and had resistwhite lying on the path. It was a shrewdly over his spectacles, "I guess ed the efforts of two physicians and Chase's Kilney-Liver Pills, thinking handkerchief. He looked at it-look. I follered the negotiations with Kit- all sorts of treatment. It is merce that if I were only benefited it would ly another illustration of how Dr. be a wonder. However, I persisted "But there are some things that Chase's Kilney-Liver Pills reach in using these pills until the time youth. "I don't believe you know other means fail. Thorold Township, near Port Robplicated with rheumatism and sci- opportunity offers. atica, and altogether my life was Dr. Chase's Kilney-Liver Pills

Instead of giving you reasons why duced in flesh, and was wrecked in cure you, we prefer to quote from | "After undergoing treatment by most gave up in despair, as none of "Fortunately I began using Dr.

aren't in the papers,' said another the seat of disease and cure when came when the bad symptoms of nearly twenty years' standing dis-Mr. William Haines, farmer, of appeared. I had gained nicely in flesh, and began once more to eninson, Welland County, Ont., states; loy life. For this great change all "I have been subject to severe and the credit is due to Dr. Chase's Kiddistressing headaches since boyhood, bey-Liver Pills, and I shall never and in later life this became com- cease to remedy them whenever the

Mr. Dumhead-Nelson was coming to made miserable. The headaches have attained their enormous sale over his arm, made his way back to call, but I told him you would be en- | were accompanied with diziness and | because they succeed where others voriting and I was for days and fatt. One pill a dose; 25 cents a "I beg your pardon," he said. "Have Miss Olemade (rapturously)-Oh, often weeks unfit for anything. As box: at all dealers, or Edmanson. the trouble advanced I became re- | Bates & Co., Toronto.

