PRICEVILLE.

We ask to be excused for not contributing to the Review for the last few weeks as circumstances prevented us from attending to the matter as we ought to, however we will endeavor to make up for lack of duty in the past in future.

Well Mr Editor, Priceville is here yet although we regret to say a part of it was swept down the saugeen river during the last week. We refer to the mill dam which was completely swept away last week causing hundreds of dollars loss to the Proprietor Mr McLeod, as besides the expense of building a new dam he loses the whole summer's work. There is a large quantity of custom logs at the mill which will not be cut this summer. Mr McLeod was after placing in a new first-class chopper, which was just ready for work when the calamity happened.

The many friends of Mr and Mrs Alex Smith, of Dornoch, will regret to hear of the deaths of both, Mrs Smith only a couple of weeks ago and Mr Smith died on Saturday the 21st inst. A few of the friends from here attended the funeral.

Mr Hugh McKinnon has purchased a new organ which will add greatly to the satisfaction of the youngsters.

Mr Angus McQuarrie, of Dakota, is spending a few weeks with his uncle Mr John McQuarrie and other friends in this part lately.

John McDonald, delegate to the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. Convention, Toronto, week. Messrs Reilly and C O James were also there and took the privilege of attending the Grand Lodge meeting.

Miss Christina McDonald, who spent the last eight months in Toronto is spending a while at home now on the South Line, Glenelg.

Mrs Hugh McLean, who spent the last few weeks with her sister at Maple Grove is at present at Mr McLean's old home South Glenelg where they both will spend a few weeks yet before returning to Montana.

Married, by the Rev Mr Matheson, at the manse, Priceville, on Wednesday, the 17th March, Mr Alex Marchison, of Bachelor's Corners, Glenelg, to Mary Stewart, of Proton, daughter of the late Robert Stewart of that place. The young couple are now happily domiciled at their home on the North Line with the best wishes of their many friends for future prosperity.

Miss Maggie McCannell visited the old home Top Cliff on Saturday last and attended church on Sunday.

We are sorry to be losing one of our neighbors in the person of Mr Thomson, of the South Line as he is again returning to his old occupation that of cheesemaker. Mr Donald McDougall has rented Mr Thomson's farm for one year.

Colin McLean, D. Road, Glenelg, who has been laid up for the last few weeks with pneumonia is improving, but will take a long time before he is able to attend to his duties which at this season of the year demands attention on the farm. There are numerous cases of sickness from the effects of gripe in the locality, more especially through the township of Glenelg, whole families in some instances are more or less effected with the epidemic.

The small pox which is reported to be in Markdale and vicinity creates some excitement and it is to be hoped those having that sickness and most dangerous disease will not mingle with the public until the disease is thoroughly wiped out of their system. No doubt our health officials will see that the matter is properly attended to and not allow the spread of the epidemic throughout the country. The Glenelg Assessor was obliged to defer his duties in the north part of the township until such times as the disease is thoroughly wiped out of existence.

Rev Mr Little, of Holstein, preached anniversary sermons in the Presbyterian church in this place on Sunday last to a large crowd. Mr Little is a good speaker. The choir under the leadership of Miss Geilley sang St Georges Edinburgh to the 24th Psalm at 7th verse, "Ye gates, &c."

John McDonald (Hugh's) South Line, arrived on a day or two ago looking hale and hearty.

We are authorized by Mr Eastman to send the following to appear among our items in this week's paper. Mr Eastman, is a young man who takes great interest in promoting all good causes and making everything a success. The Priceville Public School is making great preparations for a concert to be held on April 10. Some of the leading features will be a Maypole drill, fancy sword Exercise and March, a Wives Parade, Fancy Military Drill, Highland dances to bag-pipe accompaniment, pantomimes and tableaux. Several dialogues, full of life and action and ludicrous situations are also prepared. In addition a few good recitations and music both vocal and instrumental will contribute to the evening's entertainment. As very heavy expenses have been incurred it is hoped that a large number will take advantage of this opportunity of showing their interest in school affairs.

BOOTHVILLE.

We are sorry to write this week the death of Mrs Peter McQueen Sr., 10th con., Egrement, who died on the 19th. She was a sister of Neil Cameron of this place. She was sick for a week with inflammation of the lungs and all that medical skill and good nursing could do was done but death claimed his victim. She leaves an invalid husband, three sons and one daughter to mourn her loss. She was of a quiet nature and a good neighbor, beloved by all who knew her. Her sister Mrs Galvin, Hamilton, was making all haste to her dying sister and was so unfortunate as to be in the Railway accident at Ferguson on the 18th inst, but was not seriously injured. She was able to return to Hamilton that night in dripping garments. The last reports received by her brother Neil was that she was doing well.

Hugh McLean, of Montana, called on his cousin Neil Cameron last Tuesday.

Mrs D Enciman's brother was visiting her last week.

Fred Runciman has begun work at the school house and has laid the tile in good shape.

James R Wilson left home on Monday for British Columbia. His sister Alice accompanied him as far as Toronto.

James Eccles and family have moved to Dromore. He bought Mr Leslie's farm last fall.

Miss Martha Wilson called on her old friends Mr and Mrs J McQueen the first of the week. Martha's smiling face is welcome wherever she goes.

What makes Dougald so happy these times?

Oh set the bells a-ringing
And fire off your guns
Blow your trumpets inside out,
If anyone should ask you
The cause of all this joy,
You can tell them I'm the father
Of a bouncing baby boy.

A large number of the friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Donald McFarlane on Wednesday evening on the eve of their moving to their new home near Rob Roy. Angus McDougald was called to the chair and made a very suitable speech for the occasion expressing regret at losing old and valued neighbors. He then called on Geo Haw who read the following address:

To Mr and Mrs McFarlane,
Dear Friends:

As neighbors and well wishers we have come here this evening for the purpose of expressing our exceeding regret at your removal from our midst and also to make mention of our desire for your future success. We wish very much you were going to remain with us. So far as our side of the case is concerned, separation is very unpleasant, however we trust that your loss may be a gain to those whom you are going to live among. You made a very good and kind neighbor, always ready and willing to help in every time of need.

And now as an evidence of the kindly feelings we best towards you, we ask you to accept these mementoes and hope that in your new home these slight tokens may often remind you of the friendships we all meet in our Father's House to enjoy each other's company for ever and ever.

Signed in behalf of your friends,
Samuel Kinnell, Neil McFadden, Jr.

The presentation being made by Sam Kinnell and Mrs Angus McDougall, Mr McFarlane being taken entirely by surprise found words to thank his friends for the honor they had conferred on Mr McFarlane and himself. Speeches were made by Neil McFadden Sr., Samuel Kinnell and Geo Lane suitable to the occasion.

The good people of Brownsville line never do things by halves and it was very evident by the well filled baskets they carried that the inner man was not going to be neglected. After an excellent tea was partaken of the usual rite of having games and amusements was departed from and a splendid programme was got up and the writer must say that he has seldom listened to a better rendered programme. Among those who contributed to the evening's entertainment were—Song by Lily Sackett; recitations by Maggie McDougall, and Archie Clark. Songs by John McMillan, Dugald McCannell, Mary and Jennie McFarlane Findlay Clark, Geo Sackett and others. Readings and duets by Misses Gordon and Beta Kinnell, singing by Mrs S Kinnell, playing and singing by Miss Kinnell and Mrs Willie Sackett, and organ and violin playing by Mr and Mrs W Sackett. We know we will be pardoned if we make special mention of one who was chief spokesman of the evening and that was Neil McFadden Sr., who made a most excellent speech, giving dates, &c. Mr McFadden certainly made the mistake of his life when he took up farming, he should be speaker of the House of Parliament for he is certainly a born orator. After singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King with good wishes and kind good-byes to Mr and Mrs McFarlane, the company dispersed to their various homes.

YEOVIL.

On the morning of the 25th of March one of the oldest settlers of this neighborhood, Mr Robt Sim, passed away at the ripe age of 77 years. Deceased was widely known and much respected. Besides his widow, three sons and two daughters mourn the loss of a very affectionate and kind husband and father. His children are Mrs David Baye, Carman, Man., Mrs Alfred Haas, 18th con., Egrement, Robert and David near Morris, Man., and William H. on the homestead. Mrs Bye arrived home the day of the funeral. To his brothers and sisters the blow has been a heavy one and the place he held in their hearts and in those of his family will never be filled till in the Sweet Bye and Bye they meet to part no more. He was born in Forfarshire, Scotland, in 1826 and came to this country in 1855. The family and friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

North Egrement.

The two most interesting public events to record this week are the auction sales of Messrs D McKinnon and Thos Bothwell, which took place respectively on Tuesday and Thursday of last week. As is usual on such occasions the implements went very cheaply, a result arising from the fact that most of the farmers around are pretty well supplied with such. In the smaller truck a "prize" is to be found in every package, which under the voluble and witty tongue of auctioneer McPhail is soon disposed of, but it is in the live stock where the high prices are realized, good horses selling from $100 to $125 each and cows up to and over $40. The gentleman who had the sale, contemplate going out to Edmonton district some time in May. Mrs S Bothwell purposes going to Brockville to spend some time with relatives and friends. Before going some of the neighbors purpose gathering at her house on Tuesday evening to present her with an address and gold watch in recognition of her many excellent qualities as a neighbor and friend. The address will probably appear in next issue.

We hear Mr H McKinnon has purchased a Bell organ from Mr Chas McKinnon, Durham. Miss E Hargrave has also purchased one quite recently.

Mr Wm H Hargrave is moving this week out to a farm which he has rented in Bentinck. We are sorry to lose him from our midst, while we wish him every success in his new venture, we feel assured that with his genial and social qualities, he will make friends wherever he goes.

Miss M A McKinney, from Toronto, is visiting at her sister's Mrs Robt Baxter's.

A wood bee at Mr Matthew Hooper's on Friday last was furnished with a pleasurable party in the evening. Mr H. has rented the Bothwell homestead for a term of years, while the farm on the Glenelg side known as the Wilson farm has been sold to Mr Abram Hooper by the owner Mr Thos Bothwell.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs A Henry is recovering nicely from her recent illness.
