After singing the closing hymn by the Drom re choir and pronouncing of the benediction by Rev Finlay Matheson the crowd went home well satisfied for the evening's entertainment.

We wish to remind the readers of the REVIEW of the entertainment in the school here on the evening of loth April.

Miss Susan McKinnon, of Durham. attended the entertainment in the Presbyterian church on Monday the 3oth March.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Mr and Mrs Donald McDougali's, S. Line. Glenelg, baby boy, who died on Thursday morning of last week, April 2nd. After a few days' illness, aged about six months. The funeral was largely attended on Friday. Rev Mr Matheson preached the their sad bereavement.

Rev Mrs Varley took the topic in the Christian Endeavor in the Presbyterian church on Snuday eyening last.

A vote will be taken ou the 1st Sunday of May in the Presbyterian church for to secertain whether all gaelic speaking hearers desires to have gaelic mouthly or semi-monthly during the summer, no one to vote but gaelic speaking members. All anxious to have the good old language supported have the opportunity to speak for themselves, the pastor does not interfere in the matter.

Mrs Jas McDonald, who spent the winter months with her nephew Jim McDonald, returned to her own place on the attendance 39. ALEX. FIRTH, Teacher. South Line, Glenelg, last week.
