BLTYHE'S CORNERS. Intended for last week. Andrew Stewart met with a bad mis-hap one day last week by which he lost one of his best cows, a valuable animal, a second one very seriously ill and two others serious enough. The accident happened through a door being left open leading into his hog pen and into which a lot of manure had been stored. The cows thinking a noble chance was given them helped themselves with the above bad results. Miss McDonald, of Sullivan Township, cousin of Mrs Bob Morice, is visiting the latter for a few days recruiting her health after a severe attack of pneumonia. Jno Cowlish disposed of his herd of beef cattle last week to Cattle King Brown. The price realized was 44¢ down in price as he refused 5¢ per lb for five of them about Christmas. Miss Ann Woolley, who is stopping with Don McIlvride at present is very unwell, paralysis of the limbs and arms. Hope she may recover. Jno Thompson and family have become established in their new quarters and in common keeping of the times with the rest of his new neighbors is getting a Spring bustle on. Welcome John. Fall wheat in this section is looking pretty fair with the exception of places where the ice and snow lay too long under which it is somewhat delicate. Jas Peter has engaged the services of Jas. Gibson for the summer months at $18 per month and John Gibson has engaged himself with Mr. Colin Blyth. Wm Pender, who bought the Caldwell brood farm about a year ago, intends erecting a new frame barn next summer on the same foundation on which once stood the splendid briery bank barn. This will give Orchard the appearance of a new lease of life and those people who may be contemplating on living a retired life would do well to consider the many advantages which that burg offers before locating elsewhere. For further particulars apply to Jno Calvert Sr., Mayor. Jas Wilson, who has lived for a considerable number of years below the corners and who has been a prominent insurance agent of recent years, died very suddenly Sunday morning 5th April about 4 a. m. Deceased had thought he had symptoms of grippe, but did not apprehend anything serious until midnight and in two hours was a corpse. He was and seven of a family, most of them comparatively young. To his bereaved family we extend the sympathy of this neighborhood. Sam McGowan was the recipient Monday, of a distinguished visitor in the person of Jos Caunan. It is quite a long number of years since Jos left this part and has lived ever since on the north shore where he has not only made a good living but has accumulated considerable wealth. The marriage of Miss Mary Bradley, of Orchard, to the man of her choice Mr Quintin Pettigrew Jr., Lunenburg, N W T took place on Wednesday 25th March, at the latter named place. As they are both well and favorably known here we hope they may have a profitable and pleasant sail together through the hot-tomless ocean of matrimony. Mrs McIlvride Sr and Mrs Jas Watson visited at Mr and Mrs Chas Gray's Jr., of Egremont, to-day, Monday. Miss Georgina Halliday left to-day to remain for a month with Mrs Henry of Dromore. We have not heard whether Rev Mr Campbell succeeded in adding any laurels to his title at the recent exam in Toronto. Nevertheless he delivered a very excellent sermon to his hearers on Sunday last, (do it again). At a business meeting of Knox Church C. E. called to elect a president and vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Robt Marshall to Man. Jno Morice, who was unable to attend, D McIlvride was elected president and Miss Byers, vice-president. It's spring Mr Ed and we know it, see the following by Shakespeare: Leaves have their time to fall And so has the greenhorn "bicycle dude" But the managing workman, choreboy, scribe Has a short spare time to report "very good."
