The concert held in Watson's Hall on Friday last the 10th inst was quite a success. The teacher Mr Eastman deserves much credit for the trouble he took in preparing the program which was of a lengthy nature, consisting of Bagpipe selections by Professor Hector McDonald, violin selections by N Mc-

Miss Violetta Reynolds visited her friends at Zion on Sunday, taking in she is a hustler.

DURHAM REVIEW.

Durham, April 16th, 1903.

BOOTHVILLE.

Seeding is the order of the day along with the building of the new school. The contractor would like to know who is running the business the trustees or one individual.

A Little, from your town, was through here the latter end of last week buying fat cattle. There are some good ones around here, D McCannel and the Wilson's have them.

Noble Wilson's boys ploughed thirty acres this spring on the McKechnie farm.
They started on the 19th of March.

Steve McMurdo is hired with Neil Mc-Queen for spring work. Steve is a good man.

F McCabe, the blacksmith, is busy just now getting their implements in working shape for the farmers.

Mrs Claris and her sister Mrs Boylan, from Minto visited at J McQueen's and his father's the first of the week.

Miss Annie McCannel had a quilting bee last week. They had a good time.
Miss Gordon treated the girls to a feast of music in the evening.

Miss Bertha Wilson is home for her holidays.

Henry Hoffman visited his old friends around Boothville last week.

We are sorry to write this week the death of Hugh McQueen, son of Peter Mc-Queen Sr., who died last week. He was dangerously ill when his mother died three weeks ago, hopes were held out for his recovery, but it was not to be.

The scholars are enjoying their holidays in good style.

John Ferguson has moved onto the farm lately owned by J McQueen. We welcome Mr and Mrs Ferguson to Booth-ville.

A little girl has come to stay at Fred Runciman's. Both are doing well.

It is always a pleasure to drop in to see our old neighbors Mr and Mrs Stephen Boakes and see Mrs Boakes' wealth of flowers. She is in better health than she been for thirty years, thanks to Pink Pills.

MAPLE PARK.

Intended for last week Here we are on the turf again a large as life and twice as natural.

Taffy parties are all the rage now, one is expected in the Park in the near future. Particulars next issue.

Mr Dave McIntyre has purchased the farm adjoining his own from Mr George Haw at a very reasonable price. Dave is looking out for the future. What do you think D.?

Mr Haw had a very successful sale on Monday last, some things selling at a very good figure. Auctioneer McPhail is the boy to get the bids.

Mr Robert Small has moved to the hedges. We welcome Mr Small and family to the Park. James McDougall has rented the Hector Lamont property vacated by Mr Small.

Chas Ferguson and Arch Calder are hired for the summer with Mr Jack Orchard. Jack says that they are the cause of so much cold weather in these parts by piling poles and brush so high that the sun cannot penetrate to the ground.

Mr and Mrs Orchard and daughter are expected up from London about the middle of next week. They are going to live on the farm that they purchased from Mr Elder last fall.

A few of the young people of this part took in the tea-meeting held in Priceville on March the 8th. All report a very enjoyable time.

Misses Lydia and Sadie Ferguson visited at Miss Sarah McIntyre's on the south line one day last week.

Herb Campbell visited at Donald Fer-guson's on Sunday last. He is always a welcome visitor.

What we would like to know:— What sudden freak J took April Fool night?

If D sent in his application for a situation in Hall?

If J O enjoyed the drive he had on Sunday?

The price of matches must have gone up when one of our prominent citizens took the job of making matches at so much expense. He is not selling them by the box remember (Allen).
