HYMENEAL.

On Wednesday. April 15th, the home pleasant to have a foot path in such cold of Mr and Mrs T Wallace. 3rd Con. Normanby, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when about 75 guests were assembled to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter Mary to Mr Edward Smith of Toronto.

Promptly at 5 p. m. the bridal party entered the parlor, the wedding march being played by Miss Thomasena Byers. The bride, led in by her father, took her place under a beautiful floral bell decorated with white, and the groom took his position by her side. Rov. Mr Miller of the Varney circuit performed the ceremony, and the words were pronounced that made the loyers man and wife. Hearty congratulations followed and the company then partook of an elegant wedding repast. Subsequently the evening was spent in music, games, and innocent recreation. The bride looked attractive dressed in fawn ladies' cloth trimmed with cream floss and ribbon. and were a spray of bridal roses and maiden hair fern in her hair, also carried in her hand a bouquet of white carnations, bridal roses and maiden hair fern.
