THE FINDING OF THE JUDGES.

Thursday last Chief Justice Falcon-bridge and Sir John Boyd gave their finding in the famous case arising out of Mr Gamey's charges in the Legisla-ture against Hon Mr Stratton for corruption and the whole government for conspiracy.

If it was feared that the finding would be non-committal, a sort of "one-as-bad-as-the other" affair, with slaps and warnings for both, such fear ted and that the charges of corruption | they had ever done before. and conspiracy are "disproved by a

We have space for only a few extracts from the "finding," which is a lengthy, logical and lucid review of the evidence. Readers of the Mail and Empire, News, or World will perhaps teel surprised, and call it "an Astounding Finding," for they were only par tially posted during the trial, the Globe and Telegram being the only two papers that published verbatim reports. Referring to Mr Gamey, the Judges say:

"It is difficult to frame any consistent account of Mr Gamey's career as member, for it was throughout inconsistent, as he played a double part. But this much appears in the evidence. Gamey as member, on the side of any Government in power, to the end that he might serve his constituency, and also secure shares in the various deals charge, we do not ask any one to belous men.
