The technicality in filing the protest in N. Grey has been put aside by the Judges and the Conservatives have still time to and will likely appeal.

FORESTERS AT CHURCH.—Over 70 members of the I. O. F. marched to the Methodist church on Sunday and listened to an able sermon by Rev. Wray R. Smith.

WANTED.—A good trustworthy girl for general house work to go to Rochester N. Y. Fare paid and best of wages. Apply to MRS. CARTER at Mrs. J. W. Scott's, Upper Town.

SEVERELY BURNED.—Mr Norman McIntyre was severely burned by the electrical apparatus at the Cement Works on Monday. Some precaution is needed at the switch board, this being the second accident of the kind.

CARD OF THANKS.—I beg to acknowledge with deep gratitude the action of my fellow employes of the Cement Works in contributing so handsomely to my necessities when disabled. Their kindness will not be forgotten by myself and family.

BAPTIST SOCIAL.—On Tuesday evening, July 7, Mulock Baptists will hold their Annual social on the grounds of Mr. John Forster, near the church at Mulock. Addresses and music and the usual good time. Tea served at 7 p. m. Admission 15 cts. Other refreshments to be had on the grounds.

FISHING TROUBLES.—Monday, before Mayor McIntyre, Hugh Vaughn was fined $1 and costs for assault on Hugh McKay, who it is alleged, had violated the fishery laws by having fish under the legal length. This it appears, is not the first fish trouble of the year, for at the instance of Angus McCormick about a month ago, two Durham residents were each fined $10 for a similar offence.

THE EXCURSION of the S. G. Farmers' Institute last Saturday was amongst the most successful yet held. About 300 got on in Durham, and when both lines met at Palmerston there were fully 1100 pleasure seekers. Superb weather enabled every part of the farm to be "done," and all came home well pleased, and we hope grateful to the pushing officers of the local Society.

GETTING AGGRESSIVE.—The Women's Institute have an important series of meetings on. Beginning at Holstein, Saturday, July 11, they continue at Dromore, Durham, Allan Park and Miss Roddick, Cobourg, and Miss Lizzie Beam, Black Creek, and local speakers and music are to be supplied at the evening meetings. See advertisement in this issue and posters.

GRAND GARDEN PARTY.—The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church intend having a grand garden party on Thursday July 9th, on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. Gun Sr. Plenty of ice-cream, cake, tea and coffee, lemonade, and other refreshments will be provided. The band will be present. A good programme of music, speeches &c. will be given. Admission 10c and 15c.

AT BRANTFORD.—Ye editor spent from Monday to Thursday last week in Brantford, delegate to the Grand Camp of the Sons of Scotland, which ambitious order is now stretching east and west of Ontario and at the same time stretching its Reserve Fund in the right direction. Its reserve, per thousand of insurance, is amongst the highest of all fraternal Societies. Of "Busy Brantford" or "Brantford the Beautiful" as the natives lovingly call it, we could write a column.

SIDE TRACKING ONTARIO.—A pamphlet has reached us (author and imprint omitted) giving an alarming note that unless something is done New Ontario is to become a greater Quebec, and Toronto and old Ontario become side-tracked. This something the pamphlet says is a grant of 7400 acres per mile to the Bruce Mines and Algoma Railway Co. for 100 miles of the 400 necessary to stretch from Bruce Mines to Hudson Bay. The pamphlet shows that Owen Sound, Meaford, Collingwood, Hamilton, Windsor, Berlin, Woodstock, Stratford and London have all endorsed this. This struggle to have north and south railways is tinged with the elements of self-preservation, but as far as through traffic is concerned it is fighting against nature to leave the straight line east to come round by Southern Ontario.

OWNERS' TOPICS

Wednesday of last week, as was intimated in our last, one of Durham's fair maidens, Miss Beatrice N. McIntyre, was united in marriage to Dr Mahan of Cleveland, formerly of Durham. The bride is the only daughter of Mayor and Mrs McIntyre and has won for herself the warmest respect and love of her associates by unfailing kindness of manner and lovable spirit.

The handsome residence of the mayor was brilliantly adorned and just at noon the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father, entered the lovely drawingroom, the wedding march being played by Miss Vollet, and took her stand beside her lover. The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, Rev. Jno Mahan, Mt Brydges, assisted by Rev. Mr Farquharson.

The groom was assisted by Mr Allister McIntyre, brother of the bride, while the groom's cousin, Miss Polley, Petrolina, was maid of honor, Miss Vida McLachlan and Miss Christine Jackson being bridesmaids.

The ceremony and congratulations over, the bride led the way to the breakfast room and herself cut the cake which was a toothsome work of art. This room was a fairland of beauty and the lovely white roses, maiden hair fern and ropes of myrtle, artistically arranged, was as lovely as it was rare.

The description supplied to the Chronicle last week of the dress is as follows: "The bride looked charming in her bridal robes of white silk crepe de chene, over taffeta silk, veil of tulle, looped with lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Polley was a perfect picture in her magnificent attire of cream crepe de chene holding in her hand a bouquet of pink roses. Misses McLachlan and Jackson were charmingly attired in pale blue silk and white silk respectively, the former carrying white, the latter red roses."

The bride's travelling dress was of fancy brown straw hat with lily-of-the-valley trim. The happy couple left by the afternoon train on a honeymoon trip and will return to Durham for a short visit before going to their Cleveland home.

Seldom have we seen a grouping of such beautiful and costly presents, all speaking eloquently of the esteem held for the bride. Rev. Mr. Mahan and Mr. McIntyre contributed at this stage checks for $100 each to the son and daughter linking for life, and some other relatives gave handsomely in the same way.

Dr Mahan was well and favorably known in Durham where he made hosts of friends. These will wish him and his lovely bride a very happy future and the REVIEW extends felicitations.

Present from a distance were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Mahan, Mrs. Polley and daughter, Petrolina; Mr and Mrs. Arch McIntyre, Rapson, Mich., and Miss Alla Patterson, Flint, Mich.

CRICKET.

Love's of this old and manly sport were gratified on Friday last to have with them a team from Warton, who proved to be more than a match for the local team. Two innings each were played. Warton leading off with 78 runs, Durham with 27, and then with 46 and 22 respectively. The home team players were A. W. H. Lauder, D. B. McFarlane, J. Robertson, J. P. Telford, A. McDougall, Burt, W. E. Theobald, J. Cochrane, W. C. Pickering, T. G. Holt, F. Hind. Umpires were old cricket lovers, Thos. Harris and H. W. Meckler. Our boys speak highly of the visitors and are preparing to give them more to do at a future match. We regret our space forbids giving the score in full.

DOMINION DAY.

To-day, Wednesday, the Dominion completes 36 years of existence, and has thus lasted 10 years longer than the Union of Canada East and Canada West which began in 1841. It does one good to contemplate the strides of this young nation. In 1867, all north and west of the Great Lakes was an unknown land, now it is a smiling country, the hope of the Dominion and the home of thousands who look east for their birthplace. A new province is even now seeking admittance to the Federation and more will follow. The welding of this wide country is going surely on, and dreamers of annexation to the lynching land to the south must be getting undeceived. Long live the Dominion under the free folds of the Union Jack.

Guild Annual Convention.

The Presbyterian Guilds of Saugeen Presbytery meet in Holstein on Tuesday next, July 7th,—same day as the Presbytery—and interesting sessions are expected. The first session opens at 2 p. m. and in addition to routine work and suitable music, papers and addresses will be given as follows:

Pender, Palmerston; "The Society's Mission to the Stranger and the Neglected," Mr Geo. Lethian, Dromore; "The Bible and how to Study it," Rev. John Gray Reid.

At the evening session, Rev. Mr. Farquharson, B. A., B. D., Durham, discusses "Should the Young People's Societies of the Presbytery support a Missionary." Rev. Jas. Barber, B. A., Arthurs, "How to enlist the Young People in the Service of the Church." Rev. R. A. Mitchell, Honan, China, an address on Foreign Missions. Rev. W. G. Hanna, B. A., Mt. Forest, "The Relation of the Young People's Society to the Sabbath School." The President is Mr. R. MacFarlane, Jr. Durham.

McKECHNIE-REEKIE, NUPTIALS.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs P B Reekie, on the banks of the Antler creek, at Copley, Manitoba, at three o'clock Wednesday, June 10, when Peter McKechnie, of Etne, Cavalier county, N. Dakota, and Mary A Reekie, eldest daughter of the late Philip B Reekie, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. McKay Omand, of Lyleton, Manitoba.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn where the bridal party presented a pretty picture standing in the shade of the Maples, witnessed by a number of relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride.

The bride received many beautiful and valuable presents, which showed the esteem in which she was held by her many friends.

The bride was attired in a cream colored crepe de chine with white ribbons, and carried a bouquet of lilac blossoms. Miss Isabella Reekie, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr Dunce McLean assisted the groom through the trying ordeal.

The contracting parties both claim County Grey as their birth place. Mr McKechnie coming from Gleneg, township, near Pigeon Lake, and Mrs Reekie, from Collingwood township, being eldest grandchild of the late George Reekie and also of Mr and Mrs Rendall, of Camperdown, Collingwood township.
