Ordnation and induction of Rev. Mr. Acheson into Dornoch and Rocky Saugreen takes place at Dornoch, Tuesday next at 2 p. m.

HOT AND COLD.—Last week the thermometer was ranging up in the 80's and 90's; this week is again quite chilly and a coat is comfortable.

Rev. Mr. Matheson this week branching from the physical features of B. C., gives a readable letter on some psychological features he has met with. Socialist readers of the Review may profit by a reading.

FOR 40 CENTS.—The REVIEW will be sent to Jan. 1, 1904, to any address in Canada, United States or Great Britain. Send it to your friend, $1 a year, and cheap clubbing rates with Globe, Mail & Emp. Witness, Mon Star, Tor Star, &c

Owing to the unfavorable weather on Tuesday evening, those who attended the Methodist Garden Party repaired to the basement of the church where a social time was spent and the ice cream, raspberries, etc., disposed of. The substantial sum of $50 was realized.

BURY ON SATURDAY.—The remains of John McArthur, who died in Winnipeg, are expected home on Friday and the funeral will take place Saturday at 2 p. m., from his brother Duncan's, 2nd Con., Bentinck. Two sisters of deceased from Colman, Mich., arrived Wednesday after an absence of 12 years.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Last Monday very sad news came to Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Cameron, that Mr. Parker, of Alvington, husband of their niece, had died suddenly. A week or 10 days ago when Miss Rennie left for here, he was in his usual health, and likely it has been a case of heart failure, as he was subject to attacks of this kind.

This rainy weather—buy one of H. H. Mocker's new Rain coats, selling at 30% below regular price.

2ND LEAGUE MATCH.—Durham plays its second league lacrosse match this season in Owen Sound next Monday, the 20th inst., when they are again up against Owen Sound, this time Owen Sound II. A close and exciting game may be expected as Durham will make a strong attempt to land a 4th straight victory.

HOTEL CHANGE.—Mr Geo. Ryan sold the Central Hotel Property on Saturday to Messrs M. McGrath and M. McAuliffe, who take possession Aug. 1. The price, $5000 was a good one and betokens returning values. The young men have experience in the business and will do well. We hope they will maintain the best traditions of the Central.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—A very interesting meeting in connection with the Women's Institute was held here Tuesday in the Town Hall. Miss Roddick giving some interesting talks and demonstrations on cooking. Miss Bean a pleasant and useful address on cheerfulness in the home. These meetings are doing a good work among the women, and more might avail themselves of the chance to help themselves. Quite a number were present, and some members were added. Mrs. T. McGirr makes a good president. Miss K. Dixon the efficient Secretary gave a nice little address on the benefits to be derived from the meetings.

ANOTHER PIONEER.—Friday last Mrs R. Watson, Sr., passed over to the greater number at the ripe age of 84 years. For several years she has been invalided in mind and body and has been assiduously cared for by her daughter, Mrs Gray and daughter-in-law, Mrs Jas. Watson. She was interred in Maplewood Cemetery at 5 p. m., Saturday, a large concourse, considering the short notice, following her to the grave beside her husband whom she outlived 21 years. She is among the last of the old original pioneers on the line, Mr Wm. Johnston, still in wonderful health, at 84, being the last. Her sons, Robert, John and James are well known. Deceased in her prime was a woman of much force of character, hospitable to a degree, and devoted to the worship of the Presbyterian Church. The memory of her worth will be cherished by her children.

A HIGH RATE.—The neighboring municipality of Mount Forest learns that its council has struck the tax rate for this year at 29 mills. We are feeling comfortable in Durham with a rate of about 20.

SHUT DOWN.—The Furniture Factory shut down for a few days to have an overhauling of some of the buildings, machinery, &c. This is almost the first shut down since starting and a very heavy business has been done this year with the prospect of a busy fall.

Mount Forest papers last week record the death of Milford Amos, aged 16, son of the late Wm. Amos. Not being a good swimmer, the lad rashly tried to follow a comrade but sank in seven feet of water and was drowned. The widowed mother was out of town and has the sympathy of all.

UNION PICNIC.—Friday last in Ritchie's bush, the workers in the Union S. School, Wm. Young, Superintendent, had a pleasant little picnic. This S. S. was organized by Rev Mr Farquharson last spring and is filling a felt want in the district. The usual sports were carried on and addresses given by Rev'd's Newton, Smith and Farquharson to a crowd particularly well behaved, especially the children. Mr. T. McFadden was chairman.

THE ORANGE CELEBRATION.—Quite a large number accompanied three lodges from Durham last Monday to spend the day in Harrison. Splendid weather favored the holiday makers, and Harrison was taken by storm and apparently by surprise, for tales are told of famine for want of something to eat, owing to the crush and crowd. The historic 'walk' was carried out faithfully, and good speaking for those who could hear and all returned at night pleased with the day's outing and honoring its members. A number went to Markdale, where also there was a big gathering.

Big reductions in Muslins, Prints and Gingham—at H. H. Mockler's.

SUCCESSFUL GARDEN PARTY.—Thursday evening last was a delightful evening for outdoor entertainment, hence success was written in large letters on the party held on the fine grounds of Mrs. Gun, Sr. The electricians had strung wires for lights, the band discoursed sweet music, the ice cream was served good and other refreshments were up to the mark, except insofar as to quantity, for the big crowd cleaned up most of the lines. A program of no small merit was rendered on the lawn.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson in the chair, Mr. Drysdale made four excellent contributions, and Mr. Walter Buchanan sang "Man the Life Boat" with much of his old time fervor. Judge Morrison was captured and made a pleasant impromptu speech, pronouncing judgment that Durham was a first class place socially, and that this was one of the best garden parties he had attended. Misses Mary McCreary, Jessie Munro, Maggie Hunter and Ida Wilson, also contributed of their talent, musical and otherwise, and God Save the King was loyally sung. The proceeds amounted to nearly $80.

THE LATE DONALD McARTHUR.

Early this week, another of the oldest pioneers in this locality passed away in the person of Donald McArthur, who has resided about a mile and a half north of town for more than half a century.

The deceased was born in Mull, Argyleshire, Scotland, on May 22nd, 1825. He emigrated with his parents to Canada when only five years of age. They settled in Vaughan Township, York County, near Toronto. When 19 years old, he made a trip on foot through the region where Durham now stands and two years later formed one of the party which surveyed the present Durham County, near Toronto. When 19 years old, he made a trip on foot through the region where Durham now stands and two years later formed one of the party which surveyed the present Durham County, near Toronto.

On May 9th 1898, after a union of 46 years, the wife, Merron, died and the husband, then 73 years of age became somewhat despondent and began to decline. His remarkable vitality sustained him, however, and it was not until Jan. of the present year that he was confined to the house, since then he has gradually weakened until relief came on Monday night last.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church and staunch Reformer in politics. He possessed many of the virtues of the early Scotch pioneers. In addition to the sturdy physical characteristics of that race, he possessed courage, industry, determination and was a man of sterling integrity. His death removes one more link from the chain that binds the past to the present. The funeral took place on Wednesday at the Durham cemetery and was largely attended.

THE ENTRANCE RESULTS.

The Entrance List, so eagerly looked for, appears below, thanks to the promptitude of Insp. Campbell and his conferees, who are about a week earlier than usual. Durham School has a list of 15 to its credit, (the names indented are Durham pupils). Mr. John Graham lands 6 out of 7, Miss E. Wilson, Swinton Park, does better and passes all her 4. Miss Iza Campbell, Mulock, has the same record, 3 writing, all passed. Mr. J. H. Coleridge, Dromore, passed the 2 he had writing, and Hanover, as usual, has a splendid percentage. Congratulations to the winners and to the losers, the motto "try again." 84 wrote at Durham, 61 passed.

S. S. PICNIC.—The Presbyterian Sunday School workers will picnic to Holston on Thursday of next week. They go by 3 p. m. train returning at night. Tickets Adults 40c, children 20c. A general good time is assured.

ROCKY SAUGREEN GARDEN PARTY.—Notwithstanding the cold and threatening rain the garden party at the Rocky, on Tuesday evening, proved an immense success. Gate receipts showed an attendance of between two and three hundred and every one seemed in the happiest mood. Mr. McLellan, the student in charge, occupied the chair, and addresses were given by Rev'd's Newton, Farquharson, Pines and Dr. Smith. Music was supplied by the Durham choir. In addition to anthems and choruses by the whole there were duets by Miss Burnett and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Drysdale and Miss J. Munro, and solos by Misses Wilson, McCreary and Crawford and Mr. Drysdale. All were well received, the clear Scottish tones of Mr. Drysdale calling forth special commendation. Pleasing recitations were rendered by Miss M. Hunter and Mr. McLean and altogether a demonstration was given that neither cold can chill nor wet can drown the genial glow of human kindness when kindred spirits meet.
