

BRAIN RACKING PROBLEM THIS

(Detroit Times) We are told that a man is as old as he feels, and a woman as old as she looks.

How late may a young woman of 20 sit up with her beau and may a young woman of that age be spanked by her stepmother if she declines to go to bed at the hour set by the household rules?

These are grave questions which the Atlantic County Court will be called on to decide in the case of Miss Lena Werner, who has caused the arrest of her stepmother, Mrs. Frederick Werner, on a charge of assault and battery.

Miss Werner says she has been receiving the attentions of a young man of Nesco. When he called last Saturday night her stepmother informed her that she was to be spanked before 12 o'clock.

There were heavy footfalls on the stairs. Mrs. Werner weighs more than 200 pounds, and in another moment Miss Lena was across the knee of her stepmother, and the sounds of spanking were heard throughout the house.

Miss Werner consulted Justice of the Peace Garton, and he decided to interview Mrs. Werner. He says that while he tried to argue with her she grabbed her stepdaughter and finished the spanking then and there.

I remember an old recitation of my schoolboy days, which was a favorite among those girls who imagined themselves big enough to be permitted to "sit up" evenings with their "beaux."

Each verse ended with, "Quick, kiss me good-night, dear, kiss me good-night, and as there were several verses, each one covering an hour of time, it is evident that Willie, in spite of papa's injunction, did not go to bed."

Down in New Jersey, where I passed my boyhood days, it was—and still is—the custom for one "chap" to try to "out-sit" the other, when two happened to call on the same girl at the same time.

There are, doubtless, many persons who will deny the courage of Lena's "beau," which inspired him to flee, instead of gallantly rescuing her from the tender embrace of her step-mother.

QUEERMORMON RITES DESCRIBED

Unique celebrations were recently held here, when the family of Brigham Young was gathered for the observance of his birthday as well as to hear reports of the work done by an association that has been formed by the descendants of the Mormon prophet and his brothers.

It is estimated that at the party given here on June 1st more than 500 of the descendants of the second Mormon prophet were gathered. His sons and daughters—who numbered 56—have generally reared large families, and many of these were gathered from far and near to meet and take up the work that the family is to do according to the Mormon creed.

The interesting feature of the annual meeting, however, lies in the purpose of the organization, which is to do baptisms work for the ancestors of Brigham Young. It is a cardinal doctrine of the Mormon Church that no person can be baptized in the waters of the Great Salt Lake until he has been baptized by one of the priests of the church.

They have gone to the early part of the eighteenth century already learning that the first ancestor of Brigham Young, who came to America, was a resident of the Province Plantations, being one of the early settlers.

The worker in the final degree ascends into a room representing a "terrestrial" kingdom. This is painted fantastically to represent a condition of disorder in the world, with birds and beasts fighting, storms blowing and disaster on every hand.

The work of the Young family is being duplicated by various other families in Mormondom, and the baptismal rites at the various temples tax their capacity—Salt Lake, Utah, cor. Philadelphia Ledger.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Credited with Another Victory over Lumbago

John Ball, a Quebec Bricklayer, tells how his Troubles Vanished when he Tried the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Quebec, July 13.—(Special)—One more remarkable cure has been marked up to the credit of Dodd's Kidney Pills in this city. John Ball, bricklayer, of 57 Little Champlain street, is the man cured. In reply to the Dodd's Kidney Pills, he said:

"I have been troubled with lumbago for two years and could not do my work. I was also suffering from urinary troubles and had to get up at night so much that my rest was spoiled.

"I bought one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and after I had used them began to feel a change. I have used three boxes and I am now cured."

Similar cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills are reported so frequently that the appearance in our home of the Kidney Pills will cure any form of Kidney Complaint or any disease caused by disordered Kidneys.

A WOMAN'S IDEA ON MANAGING WIVES.

With great interest I read a recent report of the conversation of two women in a safe apartment their flirtations.

The only thing that amazes me is that any woman who knows the world should be surprised at such a conversation. You have only to open your ears and you will hear this sort of talk everywhere.

Long ago I discovered that my sex are as much as men. Their fallings are much the same as are those of the stronger sex. Men get deadly tired of their wives; wives get deadly tired of their husbands.

There are many young husbands who love to see their wives thus complimented to themselves. They enjoy the distinction of being pointed out as the husband of a famous society beauty.

There are many flirtatious women who really and actually enjoy making a man wretched. I love to devil them," she was wont to say, with a positive relish.

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows. PROPHETIC FAILURES. Fantastic Forecasts of the World's Renewal of the Old Pastime.

Mr. Baxter's prophecy that the world is coming to an end in 1924 is a revival of a pastime that was epidemic a few years ago, when a hundred prophets made similar forecasts and went on merrily signing contracts for long periods of years.

These prophecies are always based upon a fantastic and arbitrary interpretation of some portion of the scriptures, usually Daniel or Revelation. This is one which was advertised extensively in 1893:

"Two years and ten months is all the time that remains from last Friday—May 31st, 1893, until March 25th, 1896—when the translation of 114,000 living Christians without dying to Heaven is expected."

Most of these prophecies are strongly against Germany, who is always declared to be outside the confederacies. In 1891 a statement appeared for some days in the Times advertising solemnly to the effect that a Napoleon would be King of Syria in 1894, after first appearing in Daniel's little horn or King of a little Greek State, probably Macedonia, in 1893.

For this man? I asked her. She clenched her hands and stared desperately through the bars of her cell.

"Because," she said, tensely, "I thought he didn't love me. He never gave me a caress or a pet name. This man was so tender and devoted. He always brought me flowers. My husband never gave me a flower in all the time we lived together.

Ways of Eating Lettuce. N. Y. Press. There has been an unwritten law among epicures that lettuce should never be cut with a knife. Indeed, it should not be touched with a knife, they say. Now, the common people have heard this, and it is their habit to roll up a big leaf with a fork, sop it in the dressing and pack it in their mouths as one used to wad a musket-loading gun with a bit of newspaper.
