BOY WANTED.—At once, to learn moulding. Apply at the Durham Foundry.

FOR SALE AT A SACRIFICE.—A 100 acre farm in Bentinck. Apply to MACKAY & DUNN.

We offer the REVIEW from now to Jan. 1, 1904 for 25 cts. Friends will oblige by making this introduction price known.

We're foot-fitters. Bring your feet and we'll fit them with either fine or heavy boots. The prices will fit your purse—James Ireland.

NEW BAKER.—Mr. Stinson has bought out Mr. Rowe and will continue in the old stand. The reputation acquired by Mr. Stinson while assistant to Mr. Rowe will stand him in good stead now.

S. G. WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Dixon, Thursday, Sept. 10, at 2 p. m. A good program expected. All ladies cordially invited.
K. DIXON, Secy.

SERIOUS BITE.—Mrs. Hutton, Hutton Hill a few days ago was liberating a little pig which got stuck somewhere, and during the squealing the old sow turned up and bit her severely. The family are anxiously hoping no evil results may follow.

ENJOYING THE WEST.—A letter from Miss A. L. McKenzie, who, with Miss Maggie, is at her uncle's in Wheatland, Wyoming, pictures them enjoying life in a very fertile country, made so by irrigation. Wheatland is a small town, 600 population, made attractive by shady streets.

HAVE YOUR ENVELOPES PRINTED.—The P. O. Department is desirous that all envelopes should have written or printed on them the name and address of the writer, to facilitate returning should it go astray. We can supply you with envelopes, name printed, &c. as cheap as you can buy them. Call and see samples.

MOVING BACK.—The experiment of paying a fee for the use of the library has not resulted in the large increase of membership expected and the Directors are this week moving into their own building next the Presbyterian Church and will in a short time have it refitted comfortably. Readers will bear with the necessary obstruction for a few days.

Y. M. C. A.—A meeting having the formation of a branch of the Y. M. C. A. in view will be held in Calder's Hall, Saturday evening at 7 p. m. There should be dozens of young men in this industrial town standing ready to put a shoulder to the wheel of intellectual improvement and there should be dozens of an older class ready to back them up. Prin. Allan has been nominated chairman.

All the latest in Scribblers, over 2000 to choose from, at Darling's.

A WORTHY CHARITY.—Miss C. McArthur and Miss Stewart, collectors for the Neglected Children's Aid Society, intend starting collecting this week and it is hoped they will meet with liberal responses. Those who heard Rev. Mr. Lediard will feel what a worthy object they are contributing to, and others may rely upon their testimony. Mrs. A. McClocklin and Mrs. C. L. Grant are also collectors.

GETTING TO WORK AGAIN.—By selecting the unimpaired plates of the two generators at the Cement Works, it will be possible to get one put in order to run this week, and citizens generally will be glad to see and hear the great works in motion again. All concerned will hope the old adage is true, that lightning never strikes twice in one place. All expedition is being made in securing the necessary repairs.

There is a store famous for dress goods—that's James Ireland's.

THE NEW BRIDGE.—The retaining timbers of the piers of the Lambton St. bridge are now removed and one can see the strength and fitness of the completed work. We have heard but one opinion of its excellence and we believe Mr. A. Davidson is entitled to great credit for the direction, care and oversight he has given to the structure, sometimes, as at the base, under great difficulties. If the superstructure is as good in its way, the town will have a bridge to be proud of. Pity the iron work could not be completed before Show Days, Sept. 21 and 22, but visitors will have to take to the pontoon bridge, and will be rewarded by seeing Mr. Kelly's fine grounds on the west, though the natural and artificial beauties of the east side are nothing to boast of.

Lacrosse.

Walkerton Again Snowed Under.

The second match for the championship of Districts No. 2 and 3, came off in Walkerton last Friday when for the second time, Durham defeated Walkerton, this time by 6 goals to 1, a very creditable showing in their opponent's town. The teams of District No. 3 will certainly have to improve a great deal next year to have any show for the Junior Championship. The Walkertonians were much disappointed by the result and gave the Durham boys a rather hot send-out of the town. By winning this game, Durham has won the championship of Districts No. 2 and 3, by the record score of 16-1.

Durham Defeats the Wellingtons.

Tuesday in fine weather, the Wellingtons of Owen Sound, victors of District No. 1, came down to measure strength with Durham, victors of Districts No. 2 and 3. Durham returns to Owen Sound on Friday. This first game resulted in a victory for Durham by 6 goals to 4. The match was a very stubborn one, well played on both sides, the visitors proving a more difficult proposition than the previous Owen Sound team.

At the end of the first quarter, Durham seemed to be in for another easy victory, the score being 3 to 0, but the "Iron Dukes" hardened to it and scored 2 goals in the next 20 minutes. Durham got 2 more in the third, the others being made in the fourth quarter, showing that the boys in red had good staying power.

The strenuous game caused a few "di variations," and a few on each side graced the fence. Mr. G. L. Allen, Mt. Forest, was referee, and gave satisfaction.

Now then with a lead of two, let the boys in blue and white, capture No. 1 District on Friday.

On Wednesday, the 29th, the Wellingtons defeated Southampton in a close game at Hanover, thus winning the championship of Dis. No. 1. However, Southampton has protested the game, and further developments are awaited with interest.

After winning in Orangeville from Mt. Forest by 7 goals to 3, the O. Sound boys tied Fergus in the same place on Tuesday; score 3-3. They play off again at Toronto Island next Monday. It is a credit to Fergus, after a couple of losses, to be able to produce a home-brewed team, that can hold down the Owen Sound aggregation.

ROWDYISM IN SPORT.

Returning from Walkerton on Friday last, some one smarting from defeat, was so low as to attempt to rottegg the victorious Durham players. The Secy. of the Walkerton Club sends an apology for this treatment to Mr. Darling, President of the Club here, in which he regrets the occurrence which he blames on "some of the scum of Walkerton" and clears the club of any complicity in the disgraceful affair.

And what do we hear? That an expressed determination has been made that some of the Durham club is to "get it" in Owen Sound, next Friday. Such actions, such language and such intentions is not sport, and no community should allow itself to be disgraced by its rougher element.

Ladies' Suitings, red hot off the loom, at Jas. Ireland's.

Put by something for a rainy day—what better than a raincoat and umbrella—high qualities and low prices go together, at Jas. Ireland's.

A very successful entertainment was held in the Methodist church on Monday night, the evening having proved not suitable for the garden party.

PURSE LOST.—On Tuesday, Sept. 1st, in town, a small red purse, containing a small amount of change and a key. Finder will oblige by leaving at REVIEW Office or at the Post Office.

THE BUSY CORNER.—Mine host Hahn, of the Knapp House, has under way a large extension to his hotel, the masons being now at work. Across the road Mr. A. S. Hunter has begun preparations for a fine block. Mr. Lumin has bought from Mr. H. H. Mockler, the south half of his property and will go into improvements there. Mr. Robt. Burnet is moving a fine new stock into Mr. A. Beggs' store, the public library building, which he will occupy until he gets into his new store across the way in a few months.

TIME FOR THE HOUSE OF REFUGE.—Last week says the O. Sound Times, Samuel Smith an indigent, seventy years of age, died in O. Sound and the consumption, contracted, Dr. Middlebroth thinks, from an inmate who has been ill for two years. A brother from Durham who had not been deceased for 38 yrs., went up and made arrangements for the interment. Such incidents as this justifies the call for the House of Refuge.

SPECIAL SUNDAY EVENING COURSE.—Rev. Mr. Newton will make his Sunday evening discourses during September deal with temporal environments and will no doubt draw suitable lessons from the following topics: Sept. 6: "Labor and the Big Purse: Ate Stripes Justifiable?" Sept. 13: "Profanity and Respectability." Sept. 20: "What must the Young Man be who asks my hand in Marriage?" Sept. 27: "What kind of girl do I want for a wife?"

SIGHT SEEING ON TRAIN AND TRAM.

Mrs. Cameron visits the scenes of her youth.

Dear Mr. Ramage

I trust that by now you have received my second letter which was sent via New York to ensure its reaching you sooner. Since writing you before, you have been fully occupied in sight-seeing, for London is so full of great and wonderful sights, it would require a month and not part of a week. St. Paul's alone, is an education, and it grieved me sore to have to just pass by, all the wonderful statuary with which it abounds.

We were very sorry indeed to learn the sad news in the last REVIEW we have seen, which contained the news of railway accident at Varney, and also news of the death of our old and kind friend Mr. A. C. McKenzie, to whose family and other relatives we extend our sincerest sympathy.

In my last we said "good bye" at Liverpool on Monday morning, July 29th, which I have since learned was election day in Manitoba, and am longing to know the result.

First thing we did on Monday morning was to visit the P. R. office and see about our return passage. Were not able to secure a return in the Lake Champlain, so are booked to sail in the Lake Manitoba on Sept. 22nd. After that we wended our way to the station of Great Central R. R. and at 11.15 a. m. started for Nottingham. I thought of Mr. N. W. Campbell's remarks on hearing the screech of the locomotive; it seemed to me so weak and faint in comparison to ours, also we thought the engines quite a bit smaller than ours and the coaches too. Our train went through without stopping at any station till reaching Sheffield, where we changed.

Passed through fully a dozen tunnels, we were told, was 3 1/2 miles long. Was disappointed in the scenery, but as we neared Nottingham there was very much of an improvement. Have since learned by experience that the Midland passes through a far finer country.

At 2.30 p. m. our train pulled up at the Great Central Station, Nottingham, not having stopped anywhere till then. We soon espied my uncle and you may imagine how glad we were to see each other once more face to face; also my husband as he had visited uncle in Scotland at his summer residence, Mount Pleasant, near Lockerbie, Dumfriesshire, when in the old county eight years ago. We were too late to see the house I left 18 years since as it had been pulled down to make room for a very fine and large new station on the Midland line, but uncle showed us the house and room in which I was born and I also remembered it, a three-storied brick building; but what a change in the street; when I knew it, the houses were nearly all private residences; now the ground flats of every one of them are stores and fine ones. The street is just as it was excepting in this respect, the old Alms houses with the nice grounds around them which take up a good part of the other side of the street are still there. I used to think the old people who occupied the houses were so comfortable and cozy sitting at the doors of the neat houses.

On leaving the station my attention was attracted by a large advertisement of Fred Henry's departmental store, when uncle gave me the sad news of its having been burned just the previous Thursday. Fred Henry was my cousin, his son therefore is the loser.

Nottingham has a fine equipment of electric trams and uncle kept us going morning and afternoon seeing all that we could of the city from the top seats of the trams, which is the best way to view the places, and the evenings we spent taking tea or supper with my numerous relatives and old friends, so you will see how fully the time was occupied. On one evening after tea my cousin, uncle's married daughter, took us to the Arboretum, a most lovely pleasure resort, at the opening of which fifty years ago I was present. It is greatly beautified since then, and Mr. Cameron was delighted to hear the mavis singing in a tree near us. A large aviary contains numerous most beautifully plumaged and curious birds, a large pond has white and black swans on it and the flower plots are most excellently laid out. I like the English taste in flower plots much better than the Canadian. We have too many foliage plants I think, there is more colour and beauty here in the flower beds.

NOW FOR DURHAM'S BIG DAY.

MONDAY and Tuesday
September 21st & 22nd

Everyone will note that the Annual Exhibition of the S. Grey Agricultural Society, comes a day earlier in the week than usual. This was done to allow of the introduction of the new system of expert judging of Live Stock, which this year will be done by experts sent by government. This was done in a few places last year and gave good satisfaction. All local jealousies should be allayed by this means.

Secretary Davidson informs us entries are already being made and the Directors being alive to their duties, there seems every prospect of this year's fair being a record-breaker.
