Good stewards-Wlatever we have is to be "ministered" to others as God may direct. We are his stewards. What we call our own came from God and belongs to God, and we should, as "good stewards," use it to His glory.

PRACTICAL SURVEY. The ministry of suffering occupies a prominent place and performs an essential and necessary part in the work of human redemption and salvation. In carrying forward to a successful completion God's purposes and plans for the redemption of man there was necessarily entailed on the patriarchs and prophets-the types of the Jewish dispensation and on the Son of God-the antitype of the Christian dispensation, an untold amount of suffering. The person who would "cease to do evil" and "learn to do well" must pass through an ordeal of suffering so intense as to be compared in the passion of Jesus Christ, who was preeminently the "man of sorrows" and who "suffered for sins, the fust and who "suffered for sins, the fust for the unjust, that He might bring us to God." The term suffer,

LOVE A MATTER OF BUSINESS

How the Tender Passion is Viewed in Indian Territory.

Perhaps it is the result of environment, perhaps it was only an ine dividual tendency that shocked a grave magistrate in Custer county in the Indian territory recently, but the facts seem to bear out the assertion that love is not as disinterested out there as it is in some other parts of the country. An old lady and her daughter, Mary Ann, called on the judge, seeking advice relative to a breach of promise case in which Mary Ann was plaintiff. The judge, with his suavity, asked: "What
