His daughters Katie and Maggie were called home from Toronto by telegram and came home to find their dear father

This death has cast a terrible gloom over this neighborhood for every one has felt that they have lost a kind and obliging neighbor always willing to help in time of sickness and trouble. We in this neighborhood sympathize with the bereaved family in time of trouble, for the blow has been a hard one and will never be forgotten by the family or by the HISTORIC SLIPPERS

Shoes and slippers have played an important part in history and tradition. An instructive collection of historic foot. gear is shown in The Delineator for October, including dress slippers of Marie Antoinette and many other quaint, curious specimens of bygone centuries. great advance in the quality of comfort, it would seem, but in elaboration and artistic ornamentation they must yield to the footwear of earlier times. Note by Editor .- Our regular correspondent sends us a very sympathetic account of the death of Jas McDonald. A thrill of pleasure is aroused before This in its general lines is so similar to the Balsam Valley notice that it is unnecessary to publish both We give however one quotation: "In religion be was a Presbyterian and attended the services in God's House quite frequently and gave liberally to the various schemes of the church. In politics be Markdale band were generous with was a liberal. He was a good hearted. honest, soher. hardworking man, loved and respected by his neighbors and all who knew him. Of a very cheery disposition and of high moral character. association with him was a pleasure. On his aged father and mother the How has tallen very beavily. To his loving wife and family the sudden death of their dies' Work ; H Brigham, sheep, cattle loved one was hard to realize in its tall unth and sorrow. On the beautiful casket containing all that was mortal of their loved ore were many beantiful flowers showing the love and esteem and sorrow that could not otherwise be expressed."
