the EDITOR

Durham, October 20, '03 To Editor Review,-Dear Sir.

With your permission I beg to make a few remarks in reference to the by-law now before the ratepayers for the purpose of buying the flowing well. In the first place if it is the intention of the council or promoters of this scheme to have a general system of waterworks for the whole town, then the whole proposition should have been laid before the electors and the approximate cost furnished, so that the people would have some idea what they were voting for. If the intention is to furnish only those who can be supplied by gravitaso I suppose we will have to assume that the scheme is for a general system

It has been estimated again and again A., Inspector of Pub. Schools, N. Grey. to carry on a larger business. Sorry to for the last twenty years that a general District Master Workman, will visit the lose Mr and Mrs McCabe from our busi-Lodge here an Monday 26th inst. Now, I claim this town is not in a position to undertake any such debt. Take our population, say 1700, this would mean a debt of about $25 per head on every man, woman and child in town. Add blossom plucked in the open air. On to this our present debt which is nearly used by the old established firm. The Sunday we had our first snow and a the same, and we have a burden of $50

What shape would this leave us in for building bridges, (which are costly) new Town Hall, and other public improve-Notice.-All parties having appoint- ments which we must have. Brown. Yes, we have sufficient spring water of the best quality inof Toronto. Why then need we go outside into the Township of Bentinck to secure water at an unreasonable cost when we have unlimited supply close at hand which can be had almost for nothing. Now I would not like to say anything uncharitable to any one but there is no law to keep you from thinking and it does seem to me (as well as to others) that those who are the strongest advocates of this scheme are closely allied to The Natural Gas & Oil Co., who, like gushed forth, and, like Shylock and a
