

"CANADA."
By James Watson, Varney.

There's a land that bears a world renown
And Canada's the spot,
Whose glory fadeth not,
And Canada the fairest name,
The home of Britons free,
The land that ever will maintain,
The cause of liberty.

(OVER.)

Let us Have a Talk :

DEAR FRIEND:

About this time most of us are considering reading matter for another year and with a view to assist you, we enclose a list of other papers which may be secured cheaply with the Durham Review.

The Review has a firmly established reputation in South Grey as a live local paper, having locality correspondents in about 20 districts who note the current happenings, improvements, &c., of their respective localities. Local Market Reports and Toronto Live Stock Markets are features of benefit to farmers and stock-raisers. Current political events are recorded in brief style for busy readers and a large amount of General Reading, Continued Story, Miscellany, Sunday School Lesson, &c., makes it adapted to every home.

We are sure you would like it and respectfully ask you to read enclosed circular and decide to come with us for 1904.

Yours Very Truly,
C. RAMAGE, Pub. & Prop.
