BLITHES' CORNERS.

The S. S. entertainment which was held in Knox Church, Normanby, on Thursday evening last was a success, financially, socially and otherwise. The night was fine, the roads good and as a result a crowded house. Dr Brown, of Holstein, and Miss Jean Renwick, of Dromore, were the two leading stars in the musical part and held the crowd spellbound by their exceedingly sweet and fashionable warbling tones. Mr Little, of Holstein, was the chief speaker of the evening, his subject being "The Sabbath School, its origin, its teachers and equipments." During the very limited time allotted him, the Rev gentleman delivered a number of very valuable and practical suggestions as to how a Sabbath School should be conducted in order to attain to spiritual success. Rev Mr Campbell was next called on for a speech and expressed himself as being quite satisfied he had contributed no small amount to the success of the entertainment in providing so able a substitute for his speech in the person of Miss Renwick the sweet singer of Egremont, and justly so. Miss Minnie Cornish and also Miss Victoria each gave a recitation in very good taste, while the smaller tots of the S. School classes excelled themselves. Mr David Law of Egremont, filled the position of organist and his playing was brought to a close by singing the national anthem after which Mr Campbell pronounced the benediction.

Mrs Cleaver's auction sale which was held on Tuesday afternoon last gave satisfactory results financially. Mrs Cleaver left on Thursday morning for Southampton where she intends to reside with her daughter.

Mr Archie Thompson is a sorely bereaved man at present and has been for two weeks past, almost the entire family being down with typhoid fever and also his sister-in-law Miss Kane, who had come to assist them in their trouble. We hope to soon hear of their rapid recovery.

Mrs Don McElvride is suffering severely these days from the effects of a felon on the thumb of her right hand.

A number of Knoxites attended the anniversary exercises at the Presbyterian church in Durham on Sunday last and were spiritually uplifted no doubt by the earnest and eloquent address from the Rev Mr Henry.

Mr Alex Dodds has got his milldam repaired again. The neighbors turned out of their own free will and helped to fill the yawning gap which was about 30 ft in length.

Mr Jno Cornish lost a prize winning, grade, yearling heifer, one day last week, cause of death unknown.

The Gibson family, who have occupied Mr Colin Blythe's house on the mill lot for three years past, have moved from there into Mr Vollet's house on the outskirts of Durham.

We hope Mr. Ed. that the day will soon dawn when we will have a free rural mail delivery system adopted. Such a thing would be a boon in any neighborhood, but particularly so to your humble scribe. Tell Sir Wm Muloch our grievance please. R. R.

SWINTON PARK.

Farmers are making use of the fine weather to take up the roots.

Mr Wm Harrison is home from the lumber woods for a holiday which he will spend hunting.

Mrs — of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs T Meagher.

Mrs T Henderson, of Dundalk, spent a day at her father's, Mr D Ferguson, who is Eddie Ferguson, who went west on the Harvesters' Excursion a few months ago returned last week looking hearty.

Which of the girls will sorrow most since Dick left the Park?

Mr Dan Ferguson made a flying visit home. Dan is a mover.

Salem Anniversary Services were conducted on Sunday evening by Rev Mr Wellwood of Dundalk. On Monday evening a hot foot supper was given and an excellent program rendered. Dromore Choir gave of their best and were highly appreciated as usual. Mr Richardson, M P, occupied the chair very acceptably and interlarded the various speeches and music with appropriate remarks. Rev. D. L. Campbell, Dromore, delivered an address on obedience, love and respect in children and a general highfulness on the part of husband and wife towards each other. Rev J S Wilson of Fresherton also spoke at some length. A song by little Miss Richardson, a dialogue "Bridget's Mistake," and a maypole drill were other numbers on the program. Proceeds amounted to over $71, the Church being crowded to the doors. Rev Mr Roach gave a report of the finances of the Church from the time of the building of the new Church down to the present time. An amount of something about $200 yet remains on the Church, which he left in the hands of the Ladies to wipe out.

The entertainment held in the School House here on Friday Oct. 31, passed off very successfully and was of a high order. Every piece on the program being performed without a hitch or mistake. Two songs by the scholars, one of welcome, the other wishing good-night, were appropriately given at the start and close. The dialogues "Boys' Rights," and "Labor" were well done, as was also the one "Reasons why I never married"; the avidity and vim which the quasi old maids finally answered "Yes" to the proposals tendered them was very amusing. Some 8 recitations by Messrs Richardson and Ramage and instrumental music by the Haw orchestra constituted the program. A flag drill by 16 scholars was the best we have seen performed, led as they were by two little tots not yet six years old through intricate movements lasting about 20 minutes, and no two alike was well worthy of applause and the praise which the recited, and reflects credit upon the teacher, Miss E J Wilson for the painstaking efforts which she has made in making the school so excellent as it was. Mr. N. W. Campbell, I P S, occupied the chair, and expressed his satisfaction with the teacher, with the school and with the people in possessing one of the best in the inspectorate, having all the appliances necessary to successful teaching and drew the attention of the audience to its fine appearance inside and which should be the finest in any section where the children spend so much of their early joyous days.

WELBECK.

Dear Editor:—No doubt you think we are all dead or laid up with the measles as our name has disappeared from your valuable columns for some time past but we are all living yet. The truth is however we are busy sorting letters and moving them around so as to keep them sound for the long winter, which is a difficult task.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Thursday night when Messrs H Alexander and Colin Rae were driving from home to Mr Thomas Bell's to purchase a colt. When driving along in front of Mr Turnbull's the seat bars suddenly gave way, letting it fall on the axle of the cart. Both men were alert, each catching hold of a shaft and thus preventing a fall backward, which might have proved fatal. They succeeded in stopping the horse and borrowing another buggy. They continued on their way.

We are pleased to hear that Mr John Pass, Jr, who has been laid up with typhoid fever, is able to be around again.

Mr Thos Potter, who has been laid up for the past week, is on his pins again, and judging from the way he is repairing the flume and dam, he intends to rush things this winter.

Mr Wm Lake has purchased a brood sow from Mr J. M. Guess Bill is going into the hog business. Success, Bill.

Our school teacher, Miss Reynolds, is re-engaged for another year.

DORNOCH.

The ideal weather of the past few weeks was terminated by a slight north-wester on Thursday, in which old mother earth was slightly covered with the beautiful. King winter will soon once more be ruling with an iron hand reminding us—

The more we live, more brief appear Our life's succeeding stages: A day to childhood seems a year, And years like passing ages.

After a pleasant month's visit with her daughter, Mrs Pickard, of Boston, Mrs B M Dargavel returned to the burg last week.

Miss Kate Priel returns this week from Hamilton, after spending a pleasant fortnight with friends in that city.

Mrs J H Klein left last week for the Queen city after an extended visit with her parents in the burg.

Mr and Mrs Bliskey of the County Town are visiting the latter's parents Mr and Mrs Philip McIntosh.

Mr Duncan Hay received an injury in Chatsworth, which laid him off work, and consequently he is spending a few days at his home here.

There was a hot time in Dornoch some time ago. Yeh mein friends 'twas about as warm as possible without a conflagration. My! wasn't that singing simply enchanting? Ah! yes it was so voluptuously fascinating you would think some enchanter had struck all their harps of gold. The voices were somewhat of a conglomerate. And then the accompaniment played on that wheeze old organ reminded you of anything but harmony: If the whole affair was not the fastest ever seen in the town then there "ant no legs to a jumpin' ballfrog."

That crowd on music did doze. But some had a frog in their throat, When they practised a scale 'T'would cause you to quail And fly at the very first note.

NORTH EGREMONT.

An entertainment was held in the Hall here Friday evening last the 6th of Nov. The Dromore choir were present and gave some well rendered selections of anthems. Miss Kate Dixon and Master Glen Moore each gave good recitations. Mr Dixon is reading, Mr Wm Ramage and Miss Jean Renwick each gave a song and encore reply. A gramophone in charge of Mr Joubt Long, rendered a number of varied selections from the 23rd psalm to Talliochorum. Mr Truax, Holstein, gave a description of his trip to the old country, and spoke of the importance of being well dressed and not looking like a hay seed while travelling, especially when seeking permission to enter the mist of England. His description of Edinburgh, of Holyrood palace or castle as he called it, his visit to Queen Mary's bedroom, the blood stains of Rizzio still on the floor at foot of the stairs, the crown jewel of Scotland, Edinburgh Castle, moss mog and the beautiful views from Prince Arthur's seat, and Calton hill of the most beautiful city in the world, were very interesting to all, and especially to those who have been there and seen it. His journey to Loch Lomond and the Trossachs was also touched upon. Rev Mr Roach, pastor of the congregation, acted in the capacity of chairman very happily, though earnestly leads his hearers up to the sticking point of expectation then informs them that he will sell the rest another meeting. Proceeds towards making improvements on the building and its contents.

Mrs W J Stephenson is having an extensive auction sale of farm stock, implements and household furniture on the 17th of Nov.

Mrs W L Dixon is at present attending her mother, Mrs Binnie, who is ill.

Mrs W Hunter and her daughter Agnes, Mrs Wm Brown, Mrs W Ramage and Miss Kate Dixon, Sec., attended the Ladies' Institute Meeting held at Mr T McGirr's and report an excellent time. Next meeting at Mrs Wm Ramage's, the 1st Thursday in Dec. Topic: "Sickness and its attendant nursing in the home."

Mrs David Hamilton, who has been attending her sister in her sickness near Elora, returned on Saturday evening after 4 weeks absence.

Miss Tucker of Toronto is a guest of her uncle's, the Messrs Seely, South Glenelg.

Mrs H Hooper is recovering nicely from the effects of a felon on the hand, Wilson's Saw Mill, near the Lake has changed hands, the new proprietor being Mr

Mr Marshal Johnston of Mount Forest, spent a few days with friends here.

Mr Jno Bailey of Allan Park, has purchased one of Mr Wm Leggett's farms for the sum of $2475, and intends to reside on it in the spring.

Mrs A McMillan, and two daughters, of Teeswater, were visiting at T H Lawrence's last week.

Mrs J R Lequette and daughter returned home to Georgetown a couple of weeks ago, after spending a few weeks with Mr and Mrs Wm Leggett.

Rev J P Bell intends to commence holding revival meetings this week.

Mr Joe Reay of this place, was married in Hanover last week to Miss Ida Brown, only daughter of Wm Brown of Aberdeen. Heartiest congratulations.

The Harvest Home Services on the 1st and 2nd of November were a decided success. Rev Wray E. Smith of Durham, conducted services afternoon and evening. On Monday evening an entertainment was given in the Church, when the local talent were assisted by the Durham Methodist Choir and Mr P Glass, who rendered a number of gramophone selections. Rev. J. P. Bell, the pastor, took the chair. The singing in solo, duet, and chorus was highly appreciated. The weather on both days was at its best and large congregations assembled and liberally responded to the cause of aiding the finances of the Church.

CEYLON.

Intended for last week Willie—Pa if a warship is called "She," why isn't it a woman-of-war?

Father—It's your bedtime, Willie. Mr Fred Ryder of Proton Station was a guest of friends in Ceylon on Sunday.

Borne to Mr and Mrs Andrew Don, a son, Oct. 27th, 1903.

Mr Thos. F. Stevens, Proton Station, was in Ceylon on business on Tuesday morning last.

Mr and Mrs John D. Morgan of Dundalk were in Ceylon on Sunday last.

Rev Father Hauck, of Markdale, is attending revival meetings this week.

It is with feeling of deep regret that we learn of the death of Mrs Archibald Muir, which occurred at her home here at the age of seventy-six years. She had been but her death came quite unexpected at the last. Mrs Muir was one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of this burg and her remains were followed by a large number of friends to Springville side her husband, who predeceased her about thirty-one years. There is left to mourn her loss, two brothers and a sister, also a family of six sons and one daughter, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy, especially to the two sons who arrived at their lonely home only a few hours too late to see even the mortal remains of a dear mother.
