In the shops, No policeman rode on the cars, which barns, and power houses the union workers laid down their tools and four dissenting votes. The strike quit, deciaring that they will remain idle until the company sents to arbitrate the issue that brought on the controversy.

Notwithstanding statements by officials of the company that attempt would be made to run cars to-day, except for postal service, a this morning early, on various lines. The result was trouble, almost instantly, the first instance reported being the intimidation and flight of a non-union crew on the Cottage Grove Avenue line. Cars were with out passengers. That the disturbances might be expected to-day was indicated by the wide distribution of a proclamation by Mayor Carter H. Harrison warning citizens to keep off the streets along lines of the city railway. With general orders to remain in reserve, details of police were sent to various car barns. The first car started was a mail car It was not harmed during its entire trip. In all two hundred and five policemen were detailed to the different car barns.

Mr. Ames said that Wallace had exceeded his authority as a member of the Ames firm in ordering the clerk to make out a statement purport-ing to show a sale of 1,100 shares of Twin City stock, when in reality there had been no such sale. "Mr. Wallace had as much authority," he added, "to have that statement prepared as a bank manager has to pledge the bank's funds on a horse

Later on in his examination Mr "If Mr. Wallace had taken my advice throughout he would have come out with a profit as the net result."
