to Italy's

Ha I.

Responds elcome.

Seorge's Hall. in gailery of ch many forbeen entero-night of a rst elaborate oyal welcom: net and Queen function was iant as any lous hall on There were

Toyal hosts s, prominent Britain and m three contives of the ed at a long mous service isses of flowenue of color legged from or jewels. received in m by King Nanura and and Queen cats entered sdward with KING VE-Mexanura. I the Agin-Commangia VII. AHRISES Duchess of the order cal importdussian Amorl; Prince the French n: Prince g-Hoistein; the Span-Burtholl of Steramaki Aministrmill; Lord rac, Lord Lord Mil-Sie Henry Wm. Yezrster and ne British

Water Blissont

CHIS.

their italnot said: A.exandea to re-EN LIE THIS Trepenta were but EDUST PRICE cam: here mother. Al there mr armios God, we THE OF OUR and to hs of pro-I hnve ed co. dial nontheago Your Mr. copie, and when you s of Lonreception cives and ESSION LO riemiship towards me now er Majesfor stay-Majesties, miry all erified in Your Misert and in since the which led tendered ater and

e of sym-

sow unite people ed to ina tradiliky are m policy. Your Ma-Of peace YOUR MAicom: to s historia enthes of ors and of the oria. I Majosty. amily." banquet IF guesta drawing. orchestra.

Steel Co. cepted. There are nnection w at the kely that to come. among a that the le redueresort. a should aching a is not age with revalling outcome

te whole

tly con-

Blue Ribbon Tea is "hill grown" Ceylon tea.

The best tea because it grows slowly in the cool mountain air and obtains all the fragrance and deliciousness the plant can extract from a soil rich in these properties.

A nerve-nourishing tea-a sense-pleasing tea-invaluable for brain-workers-solacing and comforting.

Blue Ribbon Ceylon Tea.

Black, Mixed Ceylon Green 40c. Should be

Ask for the Red Label

The Rose and Lily Dagger

A TALE OF WOMAN'S LOVE AND WOMAN'S PERFIDY A A A

how proud I am of that particular instead of older as the years roll no color, and my nights were frebit of scenery.

ing up at her pretty, eager face un- seat by the chimney corner," as ne

you, Gerald?" apprehension. "Oh, yes," back to you. I shall not be gone- Fine child? Yes, sir; just what again you may be sure that Dr. Wilwell, ten minutes."

ald's arm. "Oh, Gerald, Gerald!" slope. When he came in sight of the not, sir. His mother would, and the blood, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will seat he saw that some one-a lady signor, if I'd let 'em but I won't. I surely cure you. Be careful to get back it would be forever. He could not. He went slowly forward. Elaine was leaning back, her hands loosely clasped in her lap, her l eyes fixed dreamily on the great

He came near enough to see her face distinctly, and at the sight all his heart went out to her with a great longing. Go back. Give her up without one effort. Ah, it was impossible! She heard his footsteps behind her, turned with some message from and Gerald. It is then that the the "topper" is no longer the one

ing her head. "Has May forgotten tell a story, make a salad, brew a stood before him, her eyes dilating, the hills, still keeps a heart as her tips quivering.

brating with passionate love and en- puts the case very neatly. teraty; and he held out his arms. second, as if she dared not trust "your happiness would be annoying the spur little stomach, promote di- part played in the animal economy laden baskets, chattering, running, her ears and eyes; then with a cry if it were not so exquisitely absurd. gestion and gently relax the bowels. by these substances, one thing is loading and trading. For this is the she was on his breast, and his arms | Here have you been married nearly | Mrs. Fred. McIntosh, Wabigoon, Ont., | clear, that, when they are supplied, | Chinese quarter.

They heard the strains of the glorlous old organ floating up the hill Elaine, pitcously. to them, and, with her hand fast slope and past the quaint burial ground, and into the dim cathedral; and softly he led her to where Gerald and May, with the major and Luigi, pealing out a marriage hymn. He man is quite foolish about you still; a bright, laughing, good-natured "Take six bushels of corncob charturned quickly, his face lighting up he is indeed. I saw him look after baby. I hold the Tablets in the coal,or three bushels of common charwith an unspeakable joy, and as he you when you left the dining-room highest regard, and cheerfully recom- chal; eight pounds of salt; two took her hand he murmured brokenly: last night as if you were sweet - mend them to all mothers. "At last! At last! Nairne, we are hearts." in God's house ; let us thank Him ! Oh. et us thank Him!"

The world forgets as quickly as it Unique-it's worse; as I say, it's abtravels newadays, but the words ut- surd!" tered by Judge Rawlings are still remembered, and her ladyship feels this whenever she finds courage to enter society. She is still beautiful; she is still an earl's daughter; but the terrible censure passed upon her in open court hangs over her head, States who have succeeded to the and, acting like a beacon light that warns the mariner from a office of thief magistrate on the shy distance from her. That the been able to secure a nomination world will forget in time is certain, for the presidency from his party but it will be some years before, for the presidency from his party room without feeling that malicious Tyler, who succeeded Harrison, did chicken fettening stations, sixteen in the chicken fettening stations sixteen in the chicken fettening stations sixteen in the chicken fettening stations.

whom the judge was so severe with. Fillmore, who succeeded Taylor, each of these stations a modern of the animals will be a revelation And her own cousin, too; that sweet had a formidable support in the Whig poltry house is erected, and about to the feeder that has never before Lady Nairne, you know: If I were convention of 1852, but he was de- 125 utility-type Barred Plymouth tried it. Lady Blanche, I should die of shame feated by Scott on the fifty-third Rock pullets are kept. At Holmes- Ground bone, wood ashes, soft coal, ten meet. The marchioness is not in the Republican convention of 1868 of the Plymouth Poeks. The marchioness is not in the Republican convention of 1868. Plymouth Poeks. The marchioness is not in the Republican convention of 1868. Plymouth Poeks. The marchioness is not in the Republican convention of 1868. often seen in London society, not- and on the twenty-first bailot, the withstanding that if the above the perments to test the value of bone the perments to test the value of bone to the permeters the perments to test the permeters the perm leaders. It is at Glengowrie, the In 1881 Arthur, who served out stand the cold; the fowls are kept clusive corn ration. None of the pigs great house in the Highlands, with Garfield's term had a considerable warm at night. The single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with Garfield's term had a considerable warm at night. The single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with Garfield's term had a considerable warm at night. The single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with the single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with the single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with the single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that with the single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry showed an entirely satisfactory pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry pentine is more than three times that we have a single poultry pentine is more than three times that the single poultry pentine is more than three times that the single poultry pentine is more than the single her husband and their dearest friend support from the south which ad- house is erected at Bondville, Que., growth, but the difference in favor of any similar remedy, and was never suthor, are on every article.

"Oh, but you've never seen Pilatus the blind musician, that Lady Nairne in better form than he is to-night," is happiest; and May, who, with she went on eagerly. "You must go Gerald, spends every vacation there, just to please me. You don't know. declares that Elaine grows younger limbs. I had no energy, no appetite, ald will hunt up the organist, won't him look old. The two are insepara- lowed her advice. With the use of the ble, and it is a pleasant sight to first box my health began to im-"Ye-es," assented Gerald, who was see the erect, soldierly old major prove, and five boxes completely returning hot and cold with nervous along with the child by his side, and stored me. I now have a good appeto hear the old man speak of him tite, headaches and pains have disap-"Very well," sand the marquis. "I'll as "My grandson, Lord Glengow- peared, and I never felt better in my just climb up to the seat and come rie, future Marquis of Nairne, sir. life tha I do now. If I am ever sick I was at his age. We're going liams' Pink Pills will be my only "Ten minutes. I'll give him an hour to make a soldier of him, sir. Yes! doctor." -two! gasped May, clinging to Ger- Clever, too! Took up a billiard cue; If you have any disease like anaeyesterday, and made a bridge for it mia, indigestion, heart palpitation, as if-as if he'd been playing for neuralgia, rheumatism, or any of the The marquis went slowly up the years, by gad! Spoil him? Certainly other host of troubles caused by bad -was sitting there, and he stopped don't spoil you, do I Glen? Boy's the genuine, with the full name, and hesitated. Then suddenly his fond of me, sir," the old man will run heart gave a great bound, and the on, gazing fondly down on the golden color entirely deserted his face-for head and upraised face. "Never he had recognized her, For a mo- happy if I'm out of his sight. Good ment or two he stood still, hesitat- boy, too. Like his mother, sir. Best by writing to the Dr. Williams' Mediing, vacillating. Should be go on, daughter a father ever had, God bless fast held in his. Not only my Lord Glen, but every- which so many seemingly fruitless body else is proud of the old major; wars have been waged, is at last to and it is worth travelling through be deposed from its position of proud the snow to see him at Christmas supremacy? The depression in the time, when the big house is filled silk hat industry in London is said with guests-Lady Dorman, the Ban- to be increasing, and of the 8,000 men nisters, the Lulwoods, the Bradleys, engaged only a few years ago more the griffin, in a more wonderful tur- than half are now out of employban each year, and, of course, May ment. The reason assigned is that major "comes out strong," as Ger-"Well?" she said, without turn- ald says; and not one of them can bowl of punch, or play pool one-half Elane!" he said in a low voice. as well as the major, who, though She rose, pale and trembing, and his hair is as white as the snow on your husband!"

in this out-of-the-way place; you Baby's Ogn Tablets, but the poor the hogs can get at it whenever they But I have not brought you here "How to Have a Happy Home," linked in his, they went down the You ought not to shut yourselves up bit. I had not at this time used keep a supply in some place where body will come. owe a duty to society"-"sassiety," little fell w was suffering so much like. The following preparation is she pronounced it. "You ought to go that I sent for a box. He obtained that used by Mr. Theodore Louis, heard them, though the music was met with such a couple. Why, the then he has grown splendidly, and is be an excellent tonic;

"So we are," murmured Elaine.

Vice Presidents. Of the Vice-Presidents of the United dangerous coast, keeps men at a death of the President not one has tongues are whispering some such not receive a vote in the Whig con-"Do you remember the Nairne vention of 1844 He was not even case? That is the Lady Blanche complimented in the resolutions located in Holmesville and Bowman- much of it the hogs will consume;

withstanding that, if she chose, she last before the nomination of Gen. ters are separated from the exer- meal and hard wood ashes, when tubes.

Anne de la Perade, Que., who says:

"Of course I will go," he said, smil- As for the major, for whom "a puts it, has been found, even his Yes. And while you are gone Ger- grandson, aged five, cannot make or go back? He felt that if he went her!" And winking away the tears from his brave old eyes, the major makes his military salute and toddles off with the young Glen's hand

"And he in love with me!" put in old he began to cry, and kept it up better.

"'Pon my word, I believe it ! Sweet- always cure all their minor ailments. take one and a quarter pounds of Lady Blanche is still unmarried. hearts, and seven years married! Sold by medicine dealers or sent by copperas and dissolve in hot water,

The End.

Different Kinds of Stations and

Brockville, Ont.

Their Location in Canada. Department of Agriculture,

POULTRY STATIONS.

culture has in operation in Canada sods or earth rich in humus. It is

But Lady Blanche and Elaine, Johnson, the successor of Lincoln, houses are built. These houses are also among the substances used, and wide. During cold nights the roost- was very marked. The pigs fed ex- unresponsive door. I knew all along If Mr. Roosevelt shall be nomin- ing quarters are closed by a cheap clusively on corn were most plainly that it would not be opened to you. ated by his party for the presidency | burlap-covered frame. The fowls are | dwarfed. When slaughtered the sev- But in a few minutes the gates of next year without opposition it will kept warm at night. On account of eral lots showed no difference in the Chinatown will be opened to us, and be, as has been pertinently said, in the cold winter weather throughout proportion of fat or lean, nor was Chinatown, obsequious and smiling, violation of an unwritten law which Canada a warm roosting pen should there any difference in the size or, will greet us with injured surprise has proved quite as binding as that' be built in every single poultry character of the various internal and lamblike innocence. For the powhich forbids a third consecutive | house.

lolt. when Blaine was nominated.

A WOMAN'S FACE

Plainly Indicates the Condition of Her Health.

How to Obtain Bright Eyes, Rosy

"A woman's face," said a well-known paysician, "is a mirror which can tell what the trouble is. It so there are dull eyes, pale, sallow, or a greenish complexion, and a lan-

guidness of step that bespeaks disease, and perhaps an early death if the right treatment is not resorted to. The whole trouble lies with the blood, and until it is entithed and in-

from suffering and disease. Unques-

Good blood means health, vigor, life

and beauty, and the one sure way to make your blood good is to take

Out of many cases which illustrate the truth of this may be cited that of Miss Amanda Damphousse, Ste.

"For more than six months I suffered greatly from weakness, bordering almost on nervous prostration. I suifered from headaches, palpitation of the heart, and pains in all my quently sleepless. At different times them seemed able to cure me. A friend strongly urged me to take Dr.

Williams' Pink Pills, and I finally fol-

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale

People," printed on the wrapper

cine dealers or sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

Plug Hat Said to be Doomed.

Springfield, Mass., Republican.

WHEN BABY CRIES.

cine Co., Brockville, Ont.

business life.

around the box. Sold by all medi-

I consulted three doctors, but none of

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Perfect Health.

term for a President.

Chronicle.

There are five or six men in the ment of Agriculture to develop the given below shows clearly the more they have been shauowing us on Republican party who can prevent utility-type strain of Barred Ply- economical gains, and the greater either hand. You may not have seen Mr. Roosevelt's nomination, No one | mouth Rocks and to distribute them | strength of bones in the case of the | them, but they have been close enneed be surprised if they shall pre- to the farmers at a nominal price. animals furnished with ashes or ough. And now, watch. They apsently conclude to do it.-Chicago Last year about 8.0 Barred Ply- bone meal. It is quite evident that pear like magic from side streets and mouth Rocks were sold to the farm- corn meal, salt and water do not unsuspected alleys. In ones, in twoes, ers. The demand for Plymouth Rocks supply all the elements essential to in threes. And they are coming tohas greatly increased this year. The poultry breeding stations are bone and muscle equipped with incubators, brooders, ens as 20 sitting hens. The most sat- | sin Station. isfactory method of rearing 200 or more chickens a year is with these movable houses and indoor breeders. The house and brooder are cheap in construction and can be built at home. It is profitable for almost every farmer near a large city to Cheeks and the Elastic Step of raise and fatten from 200 to 500 chickens a year. The chicken rearing stations are operated at Chicoutimi, Que., Andover, N. B. ,and Vernon River Bridge, P. E. I. They carry on the same work reflects untailingly the condition of as the poultry breeding stations, exher health. One can tell at a giance cept that the eggs for hatching are it she is well or not, and usually one bought from farmers who possess good flocks of Barred Plymouth often happens that instead of bright Rocks. There are no specially selecteyes, rosy cheeks and an elastic step, ed Plymouth Rock pullets at these stations. The chicken fattening stations are located at Sandwich, Ont., Stanford, Que., Rogersville, N. B., East Amherst and Northeast Margaree, N.S., Alberton, Glenfinnan, Montague Bridge, Mount Stewart and Eldon, vigorated there will be no release P. E. I. These illustration stations purchase chickens from the farmers tionably the greatest of all blood for fattening. The stations have an renewers is Dr. Williams' link Pills. equipment of fattening crates, shaping boards, etc. The chickens are fatted for 24 days in the crates, and at the completion of that time are starved 36 hours, killed by dislocation of the neck, pressed into a square shape and packed into boxes:

This year it is the intention of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, to sell fatted farmers' chickens on all the principal Canadian markets and to show the consumers the improved quality of crate-fed chickens. Up to the present time no chickens have been exported by the Department of Great Britain. The price received, per pound, is from 10 to 13 cents, plucked weight. course will be pursued so that farmers in any part of Canada fattening their chickens can sell them to dealers who recognize the value of fatted chickens and pay an increased price per pound for them.

ABOUT THE HOG.

Condiments or Correctives-Various Kinds.

Department of Agriculture, Commissioner's Branch,

Hogs that are closely confined and highly fed require a corrective of some kind to maintain the digestive system in a normal condition of health, and the fatter the pig the greater the necessity, says Live Stock Commissioner, F. W. Hodson. clogged with fat their ability to enough. We are out of range of the house. The priest opens the door digest and assimilate is weakened. Can it be that the top hat, against | When a hog is running at large, he does not root up the pasture from known to tear apart brick walls in | water. badge of respectability in London

This is the verdict of all mothers of wood ashes. Break the charcoal who have used the Tablets. They well down, with shovel or other imare good for children of all ages and plement, and thoroughly mix. Then The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., sprinkle over the whole mass and then again mix thoroughly. Put this mixture into the self-feeding boxes, and place where hogs of all ages can eat of their contents at pleasure."

excellent corrective for digestive exposure to a draught. troubles, while the copperas is a the charcoal is at all hard to get, exposure in these ways, but it is possmall quantity be thrown into each | monia, consumption and other forms | treatment. The poultry breeding stations are pen daily, it is astonishing to see how and lung trouble.

hered to him until the fourth bal- and is 100 feet long and 12 feet of those getting bone meal or ashes for the pleasure of knocking at an

Result with pigs living on corn and movable houses. One incubator meal with or without bone meal and will generally hatch as many chck- hardwood ashes in addition. Wiscon-

When When When bone meal ashes neither

Corn meal required to produce 100 lbs. of gain, lbs. 487 Average breaking strength of thigh bones, lbs. 680 581 Average ash in thigh bone, grams 166 150 Yours very truly, W. A. Clemons, Publication Clerk.

Scenes in Johannesburg

Take my arm and come with me. Swiftly through the streets of Johannesburg, past the shops ablaze with light, past the loitering crowd that outlined in light. This yields to a saunters idly, past the thro ged the. | pushi atres where bursts of melody and | We-that is, you, the police, and spasmodic cadences of applause I-do not apologize, even though reach the ear through opening doors, we have obviously broken up what white, steadfast lights that line the ing. The curiously-colored board mile-long streets; let us creep away supported on a trestle table, and into the sideways where are the tum- | the weird, pawn-like pleces scatbledown tin shanty of Ramsammy | tered at our unceremonious intruand the dirt-begrimed windows of sion, are implements employed in Petrifski-Isaac, the son of Joseph- | the game of Fan-tan. It is an int behind which this very man is stitution that Ho Ki, the Chow, threading a needle by the light of a carries away from his fatherland, flickering candle. You will see him it is the outward and visible demstill at work when you return, this onstration of that patriotism. same Petrifski; well into the night John Ho Ki, Wunhi, Ho Ku and he will work, plying his needle and | Cho wKe, in no wise perturbed, sit dreaming alone of-who knows what? around the wall of the dug-out in Then he will draw a filthy blanket which this classical game is playover his greasy form and sleep till ed. There are four vacant places the morning sun awakens him, and at the board, and there is a trapthen again the needle and the day- door near the roof to which a ladlong dream and the candle's succes- | der ascends. The banker has desor. But our business is not with him; parted. Gambling is a crime, even only we must pass the road in which in Johannesburg, and the players he dwells before we get to the east. fall in, outside, from whence they He sits in his filth and his toil, and | will march to the police station the memory of Poland is a boundary | with great docility. post between east and west, between

Orient and Occident. ingly various. Shops, leisurely start- sergeant's shoulder is better than a ed with some dim idea of being beau- skeleton key. Crash! The room is tiful, have finished by becoming bare except for a frame bed and a patchily tin, The builder has never finished. Unsentimental necessity grasped him by the throat, thrusting him aside to make room for a

They did not object to unfinished | pipe, and the sickening stench of hundred aliens. work. The window sashes were never opium fills the room. painted, and some of the panes were never put in, and to-day, behind red- pass, eh?" painted sashes and glassless windows When the digestive organs become the proscribed of Poland live happily low the police captain to the joss white, merciless are light-that dis- of a tin shanty, in no wise differciple of Truth that emphasizes our | ing from the dozen about, except that wrinkles and traces the patches on the interior resembles for all the our threadbare coats. Here the light | world a large-sized tea-chest turnpure love of exercise, nor does he is more mellow, more pleasing. It is ed inside out. Here gold, on black, do it because of innate cussedness. a yellow light and none too bright, certain moral precepts of Confucius He roots to obtain something for and here the houses are tin. They are crawl up the walls like so many which his system craves. It is this bright enough. There is music here, auriferous spiders. On the altar is craving that causes a confined pig Vice, gilded thinly, has its votaries, a small image of a black-bearded to gnaw and tear at the trough and its high priest, and its temples-litsides of the pen; and hogs have been | the tin temples scented with Florida

order to get at the mortar. The The tin town continues beyond cause of this unnatural craving is this, but the lower end is silent. So not well understood. It may be due silent that you might think you had in part to a lack of ash in the food, by accident happened upon a colony for, as has already been stated, a living up to the standard set by the hog may be getting all the grain moral Mr. Franklin. Early to bed he can eat and yet be partially they apparently are. No sound breaks When a baby cries almost continu- starved, because certain requirements | the silence of the quiet night, no ally it is a certain sign that there is of the system are insufficiently sup- light gleams in any window, no "Elaine!" he repeated, his voice viach or nowels, and the mother some to the presence of intestinal yards. Early to rise, you know, they, have a pretty little cemetery of "My dear," said the old worldling should at once give it a dose of worms, and by others to some form are, for daybreak sees this little their own near Braamfontein.—Wd-Still she stood motionless for a on her latest visit to Glengowrie, Eaby's Own Tablets, which sweeten of indigestion. Whatever may be the colory alive, with bamboo rod and gar Wallace, in London Mail.

seven years, and still in love with who has had experience, writes: hogs are healthier, eat better, Knock softly on one of the iron night?" "When my little boy was two months thrive better, and, consequently pay gates. There is no answer. Here is a door, "The Hoki Laundry." Knock before the Advanced Women's Club." almost continually day and night for | Charcoal is probably one of the here, and if anybody comes, inseveral weeks. I gave him medicine, best correctives; and, when it can vent some laundry urgently requir- before midnight, and be careful of "Just so. Well, I say, it is unique. Several weeks. I gave him medicite, best correctives; and, when it can vent some laundry drigently require your conduct, too. What's your lecorgans. The bones, however, were a lice are very close at hand; all the It is the intention of the Depart- most interesting study. The table while we have been walking this way building a normal frame work of wards us. Did I tell you we have one of the chiefs of police with ask There is no noise, no melodramatic whistle. A whispered word of command, and two men have sealed the iron gateway, and have dropped futo darkness on the other side. A second more, and the gate grates open on rusty hinges, and we are inside. It is rather disappointing at first. There is nothing suggestive of the Flowery Land-no pagodas or tea houses or joss houses, only three sides of a garbage-strewn square, ranged around which are the sordid tea shantles of John. But it strikes you immediately that nobody is asleep. In fact, everybody is wide awake. A dozen Chinamen of all sizes > that have no lights have smouldering wicks-which is significant. Somebody flashes an electric torch over the deserted hovel. The hastily-extinguished candle still glows, and its smell fills all space. There is a closed door in one corner of the apartment. The sergeant puts his shoulder to it, and the sergeant being a man of many pounds, it gives. There is a passage, and there are some steps leading down-and ages are sitting around a red-hot brazier, on which some Less

is stewing, and all the little houses

Keep out of the light-the cold, promised to be a successful even-

There is another door leading from the gambling den. It is locked, evi-Beyond, the houses grow bewilder- dently from the other side, but the table. On this is a candle spluttering in its socket. On the bed lies a man who does not move, his eyes are half closed, his hand grasps a

"Wake up, Johnny, where's your Leave them to arouse him, and folgod. Before the altar, joss sticks, wooden swords, spears, and tinselled baubles. Not so very inspiring, and certainly nothing to justify the unpleasant scowl of the priestly cus-

Now back again to the opium room. There is a group of policemen round the bed of the dreamer.

"Can't you rouse him?" I ask. Then I look and see how unneces-

"James, where are you going to-

? "Why, my dear, I am to lecture "Well, you be sure to get home amples; you ought indeed. I never in a few days was quite well. Since met with such a couple. Why, the then he has grown splendidly, and is be an excellent tonic. OF TEMPERATURE

Bring Hosts of Coughs and Colds---Serious Results Are Prevented by the Use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

mineral matter which may have been may be change of weather, passing jority of homes it is kept on hand lacking in the food, and is also an from a warmer to a colder room or for cases of emergency.

ing Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and with a cold that I could not speak The Dominion Department of Agri- its place is taken almost as well by sible to prevent serious results by us-Turpentine.

to take it.

Coughs and colds usually arise from | so large as it is to-day, is sufficient sudden changes of temperature. It proof of its merit. In the great ma-

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port It is not always possible to prevent | Hope, Ont., states; "Being exposed to catch cold. Last winter I was so bad in the chest. At last I feared it

"A friend advised me to try Dr. It is mother's favorite remedy for Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turcroup, bronchitis, whooping cough, pertine and I began to improve beand the coughs and colds to which lore I had taken half a bottle. One children are subject. Being rleasant bottle cured my cold which I believe to the taste, the little ones delight would have proven very serious if L had not used this medicine

It is prized by the old people be- Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and cause of the grompt and thorough re- Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, family