ISA CAMPBELL, Teacher. VICKERS. Mr R J Mathews is preparing for a cold winter as he has purchased a furnace from Barclay and Bell, and had it set up last week.

A meeting was held in the school house last week to make final arrangements for a beef ring which was organized a few weeks ago. The shares were rapidly taken up and everything settled to go ahead with the butchering.

Mr Wm Leggett has an extensive auction sale of stock and implements last week and with auctioneer Brigham at the hammer everything went well.

TOPICS OF THE WEEK

—A Sad tale of the Sea. The Schooner Emerald, with a crew of 9 or 10, has gone down in Lake Ontario, and all hands drowned.

—Canadian Sheep and lambs took 9 out of 12 first prizes at the Great Pat Stock Show at Chicago. The Directors of the St. Louis Show have acted so churlishly in arrangements for Canadian Stock, that the whole concern may be boycotted by the Canadians.

—Montreal for the first time, has outstripped the Atlantic ports of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and of course all others in the volume of its grain trade.

—A British M. P. scores Hon. Geo. E. Foster heavily for impertinence in daring to urge on England preferential measures and he a Tory protectionist, out of office, twice defeated and representing nobody.

—A rather startling gathering of British war-ships is taking place in the West Indies. Supposed to be a hint to Venezuela to be good.

—The fortification of the islands lately ceded or given to the United States by Judge Alverstone is, it is rumored, to be proceeded with at once. This may help Britain to see things as we see them.
