Only When it Kains. Senator George C. Perkins, of Calfornia, returned recently from a three months' tour of Europe. The unprecedented rainfall over there interfered considerably with Mr. Perkins' pleasure, but it gave him an opportunity to sample the humor of the London 'bus conductors. One rainy day Mr. Perkins boarded a 'bus and took a seat inside. He began, soon, to feel the regular pattering of water drops upon his head. The roof of the 'bus leaked, and the American was suffering from this fact.

The conductor just then came in to collect the fares, and Mr. Perkins said to him: "What's the matter with this roof? Does it do this always?"

"No, sir, only when it rains," the conductor answered, smiling.
