BROWNSVILLE.

It is some time since our burg has been here from.
Earn Earnest prophesied, last fall, when the red squirrels haunted the barns after the grain being harvested and going away with their pockets full of grain, that we were going to have a long and heavy winter of it. We find that Mr Earnest is in touch with the weather prophet.

Our storekeeper, as luck happened got his supply of goods in before the roads got filled with snow. It was with some difficulty he got the last shipment as he ordered it by Proton Station.

Though the winter is so stormy business always rolls on.
Sam McMurdo has purchased a young team of horses for which he paid a good figure. Sam will farm 150 acres of land next summer.

Geo Witters bought Dan Robertson's fifty acres, and he now has one hundred acres of good land.

George Witters paid a visit to Brussels a short time ago and spent Xmas with his mother-in-law, and had a good trip.

Miss Sarah McEaden, of the city, gave the home a surprise the night before Christmas, as she popped in about twelve o'clock, unexpectedly. She was in company with Sarah A. Clark, who with the rest of her sisters presented their mother with a fur coat as a Xmas gift.

Miss Annie McLean is home and a pleasing event may take place in the near future.

Mr Willie Haw is spending the winter with his brother George.
Mr J. Rawick, daughter and husband, from the Queen city, holidayed here.

Steve McMurdoch went under an operation. He is staying at his brother's so as to be handy for Dr. Sneath.

Misses Flora and Kate Clark intend leaving for Toronto, to-day, Monday.

Edge Hill.

We have snow in abundance round Edge Hill.
Mr Alex Jopp paid a flying visit to Toronto and returned last week.

Mr Chas Goodeye, of Acton, is visiting his cousin, Mrs D Greenwood.
Mr Thos Greenwood had a New Year party, a large number of guests were present and a very pleasant time spent until the wee small hours of the morning.

Mr Chas McFat lost a valuable horse last week from bleeding of the lungs.
Mr Guy Williams paid a visit to his brother, in Buffalo, who had met with a serious railway accident. He returned Saturday evening and reported his brother as doing well.

Mr Thos Moffat, of O. Sound, is visiting his father, Mr Chas Moffat, and other friends of Edge Hill.
The Misses Hooper, of South Line, Genesee, are visiting at Mr Thos Greenwood's.

The executors of the late Mr Robt Jardine held an auction sale of his farm stock and implements last week. The farm was also sold, Mr Geo Blair being the purchaser.

Miss Annie Jardine intends leaving for Toronto shortly to be with her sister.
We are sorry to hear that Mrs John McGillivray is still keeping poorly and we sympathize with them in the loss of their little child.
