McLean of Bentinck, have been trying to leave for Manitoba for over a week but the elements are against them. Mrs. (Dr.) Jamieson was one of the guests at a dinner given in the speaker's chamber by Mrs. Stratton, in honor of Mrs. Mortimer Clark, wife of the Lieut Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Mrs. R. A. Grant and Mrs. L. Sometville were guests at a reception held in the Parliament buildings by Mrs. Charlton, wife of the Speaker.

Mrs. Calder has been a sufferer for a week or two back with an attack of appendicitis, which happily was checked in time, and we hope she is on the way to recovery.

Principal Allan was forced to lie off a day this week with seyere cold. This is a most unusual occurrerce with him and we hope, ardent worker that he is, that he wont force himself too much before recuperating.

Mrs. Jno. Austin and daughter of North Dakota (we omitted to mention last week) who have been visiting ber parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, left to spend a few weeks with friends in Galt before returning home.

Miss Stewart, having sold the residue of the property. long known as "Stewart's corner" to Mayor Hunter, will we presume, be leaving town soon. Many will regret to lose Miss Stewart's personality from our midst for she has proved herself a faithful friend to every good cause. The best of good wishes will follow her into the future from all who witnessed her devotion to her father, and knew of her own sterling character.

FUNERAL OF REV. ALEX. STEWART.

This took place on Wednesday, Feb. 24 and though on very short notice, a large number turned out to pay the last tribute of respect. Had another day elapsed allowing the news to spread, many more from country points would have attended.

taken to the Baptist Church, where a service was held, Pastor Newton presiding. He spoke very warmly of the strong points in deceased's character, but dwelt especially on how God had honored him with a long lite, a fruitful life, and an appreciated life. Deceased's son Rev. Joseph Stewart. now a Professor in a College at Rochestor, was invited to speak, He did so. and the occasion will long be remembered as touchingly pathetic, the de-voted son speaking in eloquent words of the worth of a loving father who had seen a 'beautiful old age.' To the speaker the occasion was unique and was one that can never be duplicated in his experience. Here, in his old home, where a few rods to the west his father half a century ago, built his fiast log shanty, where a few rods to the east, about the same time, he held summer services in a grove, and where around him a sprinkling of those who remembered the labors of the pioneer pastor, whose portrait embellishes the chief window of the church and whose remains were in his son's presence, here he could speak with a full heart. He outlined in vivid style the courageous tages, how he conducted his work largespread sunshine in the path of many. how his wonderful physical vigour en-abled him to supply, on foot, points, widely separated, and drew many lessons frem the wondeful life. He took occasion to thank warmly Durham friends and neighbors for all acts of kindness and consideration to the de-

Rev. Messrs Smith and Farquharson took part in the services, and the choir. We reproduce an extract from a sketch of his life by his son some years ago "He travelled and labored as a missionary all through Grey and Bruce, through parts of Simcoe, Wellington, Waterloo, Huron, Norfolk, and on the Indian Reservation. He did the pioneer work and organized the churches in Durham, South Arthur, North Durham, South Arthur, North Arthur, Mount Forest, Priceville, Hanover, Greenock, Holland, Sulfivan, Elderslie (now Chesley.) He preached and baptized in Tiverton, and the church there was organized by the Rev. Wm. Fraser. He helped in revival work and in organization of the church amongst the
