INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. X. MARCH 6 1904.

Jesus Calms the Storm.

Commentary.—I. Crossing Galilee, vs. 23. The disciples were weary, and though they had not slept, they were not weary of Jesus.

The country around Capernaum, and in all Galilee, was densely populated and great crowds of people followed Christ wherever He went.

At about midnight the storm broke. The wind was howling, and the waves were breaking over the boat.

The disciples were terrified. They were afraid of the storm, and they were afraid of Jesus.

Jesus arose and rebuked the wind and the waves. The storm ceased, and the sea was calm.

The disciples were amazed. They were wondering how Jesus could do this.

The lesson is a great lesson in faith. It shows us that Jesus is the Son of God, and that He has the power to calm the storm.

Great astonishment.—v. 41. 41. Fearful exceedingly.—v. 41. 41.

He is the God-man who stands equal with God, and equal with man on the low level of humanity.

The One who created wind and sea could control them.

The storm was a test of faith for the disciples. They were to learn that Jesus was in control.
