OWN OPICS

Ginghams, Muslins, Prints, &c.—new and pretty, at Grant's.

Mr. J. A. Darling has a fine Easter window at present.

Ladies Ready-to-wear Hats—at Grant's.

Money to Loan at 4 1/2 per cent. MACKAY & DUNN Durham.

School re-opens Monday and scholars settle down to 2 1/2 months' solid work.

We have a few pieces of those 9c prints left—don't miss them, at Grant's.

Mitchell's Private Bank in Flesherton was robbed of $2,500 last Monday night. No clue has been found of the burglars.

JUST ARRIVED.—At Clark's Implement Warehouse, a carload of Wilkinson Ploughs and Plough Shares. Call and see them at once.

News from the N. P. Cement Co's offices in Toronto show that an unusually brisk demand is to prevail for cement this spring.

Dr. W. M. Brown, Neustadt, will be at the Knapp House, Durham, on Saturday, April 9th, for consultation in Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat cases. Hours, 12 to 5 p. m.

Word received from the editor in Toronto, speaking in warm terms of the interest and importance of the work being done in Toronto at the Library Association and at the O. B. A.

EASTER MUSIC.—The Presbyterian Church Choir, Sunday, marked the occasion by some specially fine Easter anthems, morning and evening. At the morning service, Miss Crawford sang a very pleasing solo.

MORE SIDEWALKS.—A number of the residents on east side of Bruce St. are desirous of having a cement walk on their side this summer on the frontage system. However there is opposition to it and it may not go through.

DYNAMITE.—On Good Friday the ice shove at the dam was just threatening enough to cause anxiety and a few shots of dynamite were used to help it break up. Any more danger is now past and we have neither dam nor bridges to lament.

ICE-POWER.—Fine examples of the denudation and work of ice in muscled were seen last week, when great slabs came down the river with boulders and adhering to them. Just west of the Garraux St. bridge a small cedar tree was surrounded and in the rise of water the ice force brought the tree with it, completely uprooting it.

HONORS TO REV. JAS. FARQUHARSON.—Last week's Presbyterian announces that the above gentleman is to be honored with the degree of D. D. from Manitowish College. In doing this the college honors itself, for Mr. Farquharson has been one of the chief workers of the vest for many years and his praise is in all the churches. His brother-in-law is the conferring is to take place this week.

DURHAM CEMETERY CO.—The Annual Meeting of the Durham Cemetery Co was held Tuesday evening in the Town Hall when the following officers were elected: President—J. H. Brown; Secretary—J. P. Telford; Treasurer—C. L. Grant; Directors—Messrs. Bean, Storey, C. Cochrane, Smith, Hunter. The Treasurer presented a verbal report showing a balance of $925.15. The Secretary was instructed to borrow $50 to pay liabilities and complete works at cemetery. It was also decided to spend an amount not exceeding $10 in purchasing shade trees for the Cemetery.

BOUGHT THE BUSINESS.—We are pleased to congratulate Mr. Roy on the purchase of the Jewelers Store, of town, who after a few months spent in charge of a Jewelry Store, in Weyburn, Assa, bought the business. Concerning Roy's future, we endorse the words of the Weyburn Herald, which are as follows: "J. Cumming has disposed of his Jewelry business to Mr. Gordon, who has been in charge for some months. Mr. Cumming will devote all his time to the Furniture business. We predict for Mr. Gordon a successful business career. He is an excellent workman and will soon win the confidence of the public."

Mens' Caps and Hats, stiff and soft, new Styles, popular prices—at Grant's.

PLANO RECITAL.—The Baptist Church on Friday last was nearly filled with a select audience who have learned to enjoy Mrs. Newton's recitals, and who were drawn thither by the additional attraction of Mrs. N's brother, Mr. P. S. Davidson of Detroit. As would be seen in last week's REVIEW, there was a chaste and varied program, which was rendered in every part with exceptional good taste and skill. Mrs. Newton as usual was brilliant; the number "Past Memories" showed varying moods finely illustrated; the subtle softness of "The Last Hope" was exquisite and of course the variations on "Old Black Joe" was popular as usual. Mr. Davidson has a fire and vigor all his own and his interpretation of "The Village Blacksmith" was heartily endorsed. Perhaps his most popular pieces were "The Border Ballad" and the encore "The Highlandman's Toast" though "Alone in the Desert"—given by request—and "The Deathless Army" were both captivating numbers. Mr. J. S. Drysdale sang twice in company with Mrs. Newton his fine voice appearing to good advantage in "Laird of Watch" but they excelled in the sweetly pathetic piece "God of the Battle," where the heart of the mother yearning for her last boy was not recognized by the glory of victory. Mrs. Newton never left the piano stool for nearly two hours, a feat of wrist endurance which was remarkable.

Go to Grant's for new Stylish Dress Goods.

We are a little late this week with an overflow of new ads, and correspondences

OPEN TO THE LAKE.—The switch-line railway is now open and it will not be long before the lake is in a condition to begin operations, and it can't be too soon to please the management.

WILL PLAY HERE.—Doug, Munro, of Durham, Ont., a promising lacrosse player, has arrived in the city to take position with the Manitoba Clothing Co. He will play lacrosse with the Winnicogs.—Manitoba Free Press.

We notice that Hector McDonald, son of John McDonald, Glenelg, who is attending the Bus, College, Owen Sound was awarded two prizes for best specimen of penmanship and for rapid business writing and a medal for best kept books. Congratulations.

A CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—Mr Herbert Kelsey, who lately bought the photo it to his brother Fred, who has until Mr and Mrs Kelsey intend settling in Port Rowan on Lake Erie, where he will still continue the Photo business. We wish both boys success.

Owing to ill health Mr J. Kress has sold out his furniture business and shop to his brother Ed and intends going to some warmer climate, where we hope he will recruit his health. We are sorry to lose Mr Kress as he is a good enterprising citizen, taking an interest in whatever concerns the welfare of the town.

A great many farmers and others who have had stray animals come on their premises have been under the impression that they can claim costs from the time the said animals came to the premises, whether they advertised them or not. This is wrong. They can claim expenses only from the time they are advertised there, and on claiming damages, was only allowed by law the cost of advertising.

TOWN COUNCIL.—The regular monthly meeting was held Monday evening. Petitions were presented asking for granolithic sidewalks on Linton St north from Garraux St to the eastern limit of Park Lot No 13, and on Albert St west from Mill St to South St. By-issuing of debentures for sidewalks and to empower the Mayor and Treasurer to borrow money for current expenses, respectively. Accounts to the amount of $110 were recommended for payment and passed by Mr Wm. Frazier also addressed the council on railroad matters.

LACROSSE.

On Tuesday evening a large and enthusiastic meeting was held in President of the Durham Lacrosse Club for Toronto. The history of the team of 1903 was reviewed and although somewhat financially crippled the members felt that the condition of the offer was more than counteracted by the good showing made by the team on the field. Having their credit, more than seven district championships, but by a mere technicality, lost the Junior Championship of Canada, which as far as playing quality was concerned was rightfully theirs.

The Club is still going to remain a member of the C. L. A. and delegates were appointed to attend the convention of that body to be held in Toronto on Good Friday. The delegates were instructed to endorse the candidature of C. L. Allen as 2nd Vice-Pres. of the C. L. A. He was elected by 8 majority.

The following officers were appointed: Patronesses—Mrs D. Jackson, Mrs J. Kelly, Mrs Dr. Jamieson, Mrs Farr, Misses M. Munro, E. Mockler, L. Davidson, I. Armstrong, I. Schwencik.

Patrons—Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., Mayor Hunter, Wm. Laidlaw, Jas. Ireland, Alex. Russell.

Honorary President, Wm. Calder. Hon. Vice-Pres., H. H. Farr. President, J. J. Darling. Vice Pres., E. Brownell. 1st Vice-Pres., Robt. McCracken. Secretary, Chas. Layelle. Treasurer, John Rose.

Executive Com., Jos. Burnet, R. Colville, (Dr) E. D. McClellin, F. Lenahan, N. P. McIntyre, H. H. Moxler, C. Stockton.

Manager, Peter Gagnon.

At the Annual Meeting of the C. L. A. on Friday the club applied for reinstatement but the case has been handed over to the new Council for settlement. The decision will be made in a few days.

SHAREHOLDERS MEETING.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Durham Gas and Oil Company will be held in the Town Hall in the Town of Durham, on Friday the 15th day of April at the hour of 8 p. m.

Object of the meeting: To receive the report of Committee appointed to ascertain the probable cost of waterworks, and to consider the advisability of disposing of the property and winding up the affairs of the Company.

JOHN MCKECHNIE, Chairman Board of Directors. Dated the 5th day of April, A. D., 1904.

APPLICATIONS WANTED.

Applications are asked for by the Municipal Council of Egrement for the office of Township Treasurer. Applications received up to May 27th, 1904 mentioning securities, particulars of which will be given by the undersigned, and also names for man and team to operate Grader.

WALTER HASTIE, DAVID ALLAN, Reeve. Clerk. Holstein, April 1st, 1904.

MILLINERY OPENINGS.

Faithful to the Seasons our Milliners never fail in presenting goods that should be seasonable, even though, as to-day, Saturday, snow is blowing, ice on the streets, sleighs are abroad and overcoats are necessary. Easter is to-morrow, and if nature seems to be forgetting herself, the artists in shapes, flowers, ribbon, chiffon, sequins, etc., for feminine headgear are fully up-to-date and present in windows and showrooms, an array of spring-like goods that suggests better weather coming when we shall be revelling in flowery made up by nature's hand and adorning field and forest.

Flowers are more in abundance than ever in this year's hats, and the distinctly new shape prevailing—called the "tricorn"—adapts itself admirably to their display. Some very bright effects success has been achieved in so combining colors and positions that sometimes with only two shades, a very agreeable result is produced.

However, we advise our readers, male and female, to call on any of the proprietors. They will find them affable and obliging and willing to show (and to sell, of course) the many fine things in spring hats they are stocked up with.

Miss Dick.

The Lambton street parlors are now firmly established and few towns of our size have such a well-appointed millinery business. Miss Dick and a large staff of workers (who she says are a bright lot) still more so as the season moderates. Many fine hats are already done but enough is left—and still being added o—to suit all tastes.

There is a touch of gold in nearly all the newest models, one of the hats shown was white and gold head with white tulle and the only trimming was one long white plume; a mode fashioned from it is termed the torpedo turban. The continental shape made in military blue straw trimmed with blue velvet and steel buckles looks very nice.

One pretty ready-to-wear is in champagne colored straw with brown velvet strapping edged with gold braid and buttons.

Another hat was made on the tricorn shape almost entirely composed of blue forget-me-nots, a drapery of lace and gold buckle completed the trimming.

MR. MORLOCK.

An attractive window invites further inspection and entering for further inspection you walk into a fairy-land of flowers, in faces, and fancy work, all presided over by Miss Sweet, whose nimble fingers have made the bulk of the display and directed the adornment of a pile of empty flower boxes shows an extensive trade done and there are many more to begin to.

A lady caller from Stratford gave it as her opinion that nothing finer in Millinery was to be seen in her city, and the proprietor informs us prices are actually below a great attraction to his show room, and if they could talk, could tell a fine story of the many pleased faces that have looked into them while "trying on" one of the numerous pretty hats that represent a cost of nearly $2000. Mr. M's motto is "What is worth doing is worth doing well" and Miss Sweet's of the same kind.

Black and black and white hats, which are always considered very stylish and popular, are shown in large numbers. There is an equal display of light weight straw hats. June roses and poppies are a distinct feature of the trimmings of the flower hat. Beautiful scarfs are also shown, used in hat trimmings, the ends drooping to the waist. Some very special creations in bonnets, in sequin and steel are also exhibited. The turban effect and mushroom and torpedo shapes call for special mention. The large Gainsborough and Napoleon styles are also prominent features of the display. The children are not by any means forgotten. Hats for them are displayed in large numbers. The trimmings chiefly consist of very narrow baby ribbon. The colors are varied.

MR. IRELAND

The man—let us say—the woman on the street is attracted forcibly by the striking cross of flowers in Mr Ireland's window. Adorned in every part it is fittingly suggestive of the Christian attitude at Easter time of viewing the cross as divested of every terror. Some makes an effective setting. But no one on Millinery bent will stay content at the close of Lent with looking at a window, they will go inside where Miss Blewheim, an experienced artiste from Berlin, and an affable and attractive young lady, is surrounding herself with the skillful productions of her hands. It is really surprising what a display is made considering the delay caused by the blockade for stuff ordered 6 weeks ago Mr Ireland re-opens. However it is taking shape fast, for Miss Blewheim assisted by Miss Jean Ireland and some other workers are pushers, and Mr Ireland has supplied them with full stocks of all material.

In shapes the turbans, including the "Torpedo" and "Napoleon" styles are popular, while the large hats consist of the shepherdess and ever popular Gainsborough.

In colors the quiet shades are most popular this season, but there is a considerable variety being worn. Castor brown, green, champagne and gold are all very much used and there is a tendency to give the gold shade which has not been seen for a number of seasons the most prominent use. Blues, mauves and black remain much in demand.

Among the trimmed hats a large white one, is shown in the Gainsborough style made entirely of pleated maline, with a touch of gold, two large black plumes coming from the crown and falling off at right sidetowards the back.

J. BURNETT,

Upper Town.

In the black hats one which was very much admired was a large shepherdess with oblong crown made of folded chiffon with medallions on the rim. A unique feature of this hat was a pair of black wings caught at back with jet ornament.

A young lady's hat of "torpedo" shape in white straw is very handsome, the age forming the upper rim and flowing on the edge with a large soft bow of ribbon at the back give it a very stylish appearance.
