HORSE SHOW.—As will be seen by posters and advertisement the Farmers' Institute Spring Horse Show is to be held on April 26th, in Durham.
BEST PHOTOS.—Having one of the very best photographic galleries in Western Ontario, we are prepared to turn out first class work. F. H. KELSEY.
A young girl, aged 14 daughter of Mr. Morrison, Egremont, died on Monday last from an attack of Scarlet fever. She was buried on Tuesday in Maplewood cemetery.
Mr. H. H. Miller made a splendid address at the Mount Royal Club last Sunday evening taking for his subject "Man." Mr. Miller is always listened to with interest and appreciation. —Hawthorn Post.
POSTPONED.—Pres. Wm. Young of the Farmers' Institute, desires us to announce that the Spring Show of Entire Horses arranged for April 19 has been postponed till Tuesday 26th inst. Just one week later. Note the fact.
See our Ladies' Dongol's Balmoral at $1.50.
NOTICE.—All parties are hereby notified that closets, backyards and surroundings must be cleaned forthwith in accordance with the requirements of the Board of Health. The Inspector is on his rounds and strict attention is required to this notice.
HUGH MCKAY, Health Inspector.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs Jenkins of Manitoba, daughter of Mrs Stonehouse, and sister of Mrs. Jas. Hepburn and Herb Stonehouse here. She died shortly after her mother's arrival, leaving a little child about 3 weeks old. We extend sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.
DIED OF PLEURISY.—Mr. Robt. Young, a young man of 30 or thereabouts, died in Duluth after 5 days' illness with pleurisy. He was a brother of Mrs Gillan Boyd, Glenelg, and his remains are being brought home this week for interment in the family burial plot. We have no details at hand.
STRUCK BY LIGHTING.—On Saturday last the barn of Mr McEwen, near Orchardville, was struck by lightning and destroyed. A number of horses and cattle were burnt, implements and a large quantity of grain. A mare of service lying stunted was thought dead, but later when too late to help was observed with head at a window.
Good bye to the old Drill shed and all the military aspirations, expectations, objections, palpitations, &c., associated with it. The remains of the snow-crushed building falls under Auctioneer Carson's hammer on Friday of this week, and in case of invasion from Walkerton or Wauchope, there's no rallying place for the brave volunteers. What'll we do I dunno?
The best brass pins regular 5c paper, 2 papers for 5 cts. At Grant's.
DIRECTORS MEET.—A committee of the Directors of S. G. Agricultural Society met at the Central Hotel on Tuesday last to discuss the Prize List and other arrangements for this year's fall show. They meet again to-day, Thursday to complete the work, and will arrange to buy the remains of the old Drill Shed the day following, the lumber of which can be utilized for new sheep and pig pens, &c. The Directors are casting about to make 1904 a record year in new features and general excellence.
A SPRING BUILDER.—A distinguished physician, upon being asked what was the spring medicine, replied that it was breathing. People have been exceptionally deprived of air during the past winter, and as the cold air becomes sufficiently tempered not to injure the lungs, those organs should be built up again by daily breathing exercises. Breathing is a sovereign remedy for our national disease of nervous depletion. Correct breathing brings into play all the internal organs, and at the same time develops the heart, liver and kidneys.
You can get a child's Waist in either drab or white for 19 cts. at Grant's.
FLESHERTON BANK ROBBERY.—Since our brief item last week it was learned that two men had been in the business, one, if not both, an expert. They stopped with a farmer near Orangeville, on the instructions of Provincial Detective Greer and descriptions that have been furnished. Detective Blakeley and P. C. Bambridge arrested two strangers on the Central market this morning on the charge of robbing George Mitchell's private bank at Flesherton, Ont., of $2,000. The prisoners gave the names of James Murphy and Andrew Naughton. They are both between 35 and 40 years of age. The local police have had their eyes on the pair for several days. Both are well dressed and they took their arrest very coolly.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Tuesday evening, March 1st, quite a large gathering consisting of the members and adherents of Knox Church Normanby, assembled at the residence of Mr. T. Gadd to spend a social evening. After some time being spent in pleasant conversation the real object became apparent, when a handsome chair was presented to Mr Gadd, and a beautiful silver tea set and biscuit bowl to Miss Gadd. Mr Gadd was duly installed in the chair by Mr R Barber, while Mr Jas Watson on behalf of the managers and congregation expressed the deep sense of appreciation they felt for his services as treasurer for a number of years, the willingness and cheerfulness with which he discharged the duties of the office and hoped he would long be spared to enjoy the chair, that he was in no wise to consider it as a remuneration for his services, but as a small tribute of their esteem. At this point Mr Geo Marshall stepped forward and read the following address to Miss Gadd, who has acted as C. E. S. organizer for a number of years, while Mr A McDonald made the presentation:
Dear Miss Gadd,
It becomes my pleasant task, on behalf of the Friends of Knox Christian Endeavor Society assembled here tonight to remind you, as organizer of our Society for several years past has by no means been void of our appreciation and gratitude. The cheerful discharge of your duty and your faithful and constant attendance at our meetings could not fail to meet with appreciation and we wish you to accept this gift not because of any intrinsic value, but as a token of our esteem.
Signed on behalf of the Society,
Archie McDonald, Miss T. Byers,
George Marshall, Miss G. Wallace,
Miss McCracken, Miss McCracken,
Both Mr and Miss Gadd, although taken completely by surprise, made feeling and appropriate replies. The remainder of the evening after refreshments were partaken of, was spent in a very enjoyable manner by old and young till the small hours when all went home well pleased.

RE TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.

Premier Ross last week gave a written reply to the delegation of clergy and others who waited upon him to ascertain the position or prospects for temperance legislation. His reply has proved a puzzle, for some it has pleased and others it has provoked. Here it follows and our readers may take what they like from it:
"In reply to the deputation which I had the honor of receiving yesterday I desire to express my concurrence on the view presented by the different speakers that nothing short of the prohibition of the sale of liquors in hotels, and the strictest control over sales for purposes generally recognised as proper and legitimate, would fully protect Society from all the evil effects of excess. We drinking so far as legislation can be invoked for that purpose. Your decided preference for such a measure as against amendments to the license laws I understand to mean that you do not favor at present any other form of temperance legislation. If the Government are unable to give to the measure desired this session it will be our duty to consider what means are available for further action.
Yours Truly,
Geo. W. Ross, Holstein, April 1st, 1904.
