E NO. 17 1901.

Lady Can Make Easily

ULAR CORSET FOR 1904

ouble Over a Name. (Topeka Capital.)

tepped up to the window of ce at Stafford and asked for What is the name?" asked the "Louder," replied the man. he name?" then shouted the "Louder," again said the our name?" roared the postil he rattled the windows. H. Louder," meekly replied warmth and Il the year.

the Land

ACIFIC

fornia for the tunity," and ents.

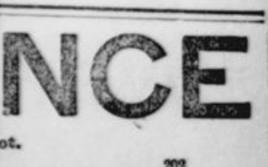

from Chicago

Toronto, Ont.

rting a Girl in Spain.

in Spain is conducted on hat might almost be described The Spanish girl of any atalmost always attended by nan who is known as her who has the privilege of r on her walks, although by anomaly no formal engages. So long as this state of inues the young lady has I and obedient to her galhe may cease his attentions ne and openly transfer his to some other lady. Although ages of such a custom are all of the male, very few Spanrould care to be without a ever fiekle.

DISON'S DIET. A. Edison offers this in exif his ability to do the enorant of work he performs: "I out a pound of food per day. als, but just enough to nourly. My diet consists of meat. eggs or anything else that in small quantities. People ink far too much. Indeed, I nen and women who are food the time. I hardly ever take r recreation, but I live abas my father did before ople would diet themselves rugs many common ailments

real, Winnipeg, St. John

JAPS SANK BATTLESHIP

Great Grief in St. Petersburg ing the river." Over the Disaster.

Daubassof or Rojestvensky May Succeed Admiral Makaroff.

Grand Duke Cyril Suffering from ampo, and that they were all driven back. Burns and His Knee Hurt.

Paris cable: The St . Petersburg Admiral leaves, in addition to a daugh- tempt to bottle up Port Arthur, was correspondent of the Echo de Paris telegraphs the following under yesterday's date: At 3 o'clock to-day the Emperor telegraphed to Viceroy Alexieff, order- was dated April 13, and conveyed his ing him to go to Port Arthur immediately and assume command of the squadron, pending the appointment of mouth of the harbor. Vice-Admiral Makaroff's successor. The viceroy leaves to-night.

Outomsky was in action against eight ropavlovsk striking a mine, which had dead officer, white-robed priests perteen Japanese vessels this afternoon become loosened from its moorings durare still unconfirmed.

suffering from burns on the neck and Japanese torpedoed the Petropavlovsk, contusions on the knees. It is certain that only two minutes sion of the sinking of the battleship. elapsed between the explosion and the sinking of the battleship.

Heard of It at Tokio. timation of the result of Vice-Admiral cessor probably will be Vice-Admiral Togo's seventh attack upon Port Arthur Skrydloff, comander of the Black Sea reached Tokio at 8 a.m. in a telegram | fleet, or Rear-Admiral Rojestvensky, in sent to the Associated Press, which command of the Baltic squadron. The promptly communicated it to official former shared Makaroff's reputation for circles. The news was received with in- energy and fighting ability, and recently tense satisfaction, particularly the re- | visited the Emperor, who hesitated beported destruction of the battleship tween Makaroff and Skrydloff. However, Petropavlovsk. There was a note of re- the Matin's correspondent at St. Petersgret, however, in the comment upon the burg says Admiral Rojestvensky will reported death of Admiral Makaroff, for probably succeed Admiral Makaroff. the Russian admiral commanded the respect of his opponents, and the Japanese admired the manner in which he had rehabilitated the fleet, after the first port from Rear Admiral Uruia, of Wedattack upon Port Arthur, and the splen- nesday's fighting off Port Arthur, was did fight he was making against odds. received by the Navy Department. It The Navy Department expects advices reach telegraphic communication to-heads, but with unshaken hearts, the together with those of Emperor William Russians met the dreadful calamity of and the King of Italy, sent yesterday, yesterday. Sorrow for the loss, but un- is regarded here as significant of the acdiminished confidence in ultimate victory, is the note struck by this morn- that the sinking of the Petropavlovsk ing's papers. An editorial in the Russ was due to an accident, and did not ocmay be taken as voicing the national cur during a battle with the Japanese feeling. "Let us" it reads "remain calm. ships. The officials say condolences over It is a black day but we have been the result of a battle might involve struck by blind fate not by the enemy. questions of neutrality, whereas con-awaiting further details of the catastrophy and the news of Prince Outomsky's battle with the Japanese fleet and this nothing further had come.

ST. PETERSBURG'S SORROW.

ly informed that the despatches given sent out during the night to reconnoiout last night represent all the news re- tre, became separated from the rest of ceived from the far east. The Emperor the fleet, owing to the bad weather pretelegrams is attributed to the confusion the fight. Five men were saved. due to the death of Vice-Admiral Mak-fresh news reached the Winter Palace, This may take a long time, and it is by herself. No one on board of her was Over the Loss of the Battleship and the doubtful whether the contents will be killed or wounded. given out before late in the afternoon. In the opinion of the Emperor's advisers the Petropavlovsk disaster occurred yesterday morning at about 7 o'clock. It is presumed that Vice-Admiral Makaroff had sailed out from Port Arthur on the previous day to locate the enemy, and had been cruising all night when he sighted the enemy, giving pursuit until the Japanese reinforcements appeared and then putting back for the shelter of the guns of Port Arthur. This explains the second sentence in Rear Admiral Grigorovitch's telegram: "Our squadron was under Golden Hill.

From private advices it is learned that Grand Duke Boris was standing on Golden Hill watching his brother's ship when the catastrophe occurred. Not a single paper here has a special telegram from Port Arthur this morn-

Makaroff's Successor. The Associated Press is informed that Chairman Doubassof, of the Technical the first skirmish on the Yalu River, She was on her way to St. Petersburg | the river in a Corean junk, and at 2 to see the Admiral's brother, an officer o'clock Sunday discovered a party of erhof with the message from his may be really be restricted in the date of that disaster has not been personally superintended the work.

The date of that disaster has not been personally superintended the work.

The date of that disaster has not been personally superintended the work. with her. She was so prostrated with left bank of the river joined in the atgrief that she took to her bed. It is re- tack. In the meantime another large time. widow that they found the whole town sians retired and reached the bank. sians retired and reached the bank. their beloved Stephen Osipovich (the patronomic of Makaroff.) The Admiral's fire lasted one hour and twenty minters and darkened, and the patronomic of Makaroff.) The Admiral's patronomic of Makaroff.) ported by those who went to see the Russian junk joined the first one, and their beloved Stephen Usipovan (as a factor that will entail the gravest patronomic of Makaroff.) The Admiral's house was silent and darkened, and the house was silent and darkened, and the eyes of the sailor orderly at the door eyes of the sailor orderly at the door wounded. We had no easualties. Four wounded wounded were red with weeping. The late Vice-were red with weeping. The late Vice-were red with weeping. The late Vice-ter Lillie, who is 18 years of age, and is wrote and telegraphed. His last message known as the belle of Cronstadt, an 11-on board a gunboat stationed at the ing the recent storm. Some special des-Grand Duke Cyril telegraphs he is patches received here assert that the

but the officials accept the Russian ver- fought off Port Arthur appears to have Foreign Minister Delcasse called the Russian Embassy to-day and formally expressed his deep sympathy. Although without specific advices, the offi-A Tikio cable says: The first in- cials say Vive-Admiral Makaroff's suc-

Did the Japs Sink the Petropavlovsk? A Tokoi cable says: A brief resays Vice-Admiral Togo's fleet attacked from Vice-Admiral Togo to-night. It is Port Arthur in the morning and sucknown that he left the vicinity of Port | ceeded in sinking a battleship of the Pet-Arthur yesterday to return to an un- ropavlovsk class, and one torpedo-boat known base. It is expected he will destroyer. The Japanese sustained no detailed report of the engagement is expected hourly.

Italy and France Condole.

A Paris cable says: President Loubet Great Grief Over the Disaster at Port telegraphed to Emperor Nicholas hi profound condolences on the disaster of the Petropavlovsk and the death of St. Petersburg cable: With bowed Vice-Admiral Makaroff. This despatch, ceptance of the European governments The people sat up all night last night dolences over an accident do not involve neutrality.

Outomsky in Command.

Arthur to-day that the Bezstrassn, one The Associated Press is authoritative- of the Russian torpedo-boat destroyers

Admiral Outomsky adds: "I have taken command personally of the fleet Not until 10 o'clock this morning had since the disaster of the Petropavlovsk. "During some manoeuvring of the batand then in the form of a voluminous tleship squadron, the Pobieda struck cipher telegram, which was immediately against a mine amidships on the starsent to the Admiralty to be deciphered. board side. She was able to regain port Struck a Jap Mine.

A Chefoo cable says: It has been learned from Japanese sources that the attack on the Russian Port Arthur fleet of yesterday morning was planned and put into effect in the following manner: At daylight the Japanese torpedo boats the outer entrance to the harbor. They then retired and joined the main squadron. The squadron then advanced and as it drew near the Russian ships were seen coming out. The batleship Petro-

YALU RIVER SKIRMISH.

Japanese Account of the First Clash

With the Enemy. A Tokio cable says: Details of days.

that the Petropavlovsk struck a mine, crew could flood the port compartments | Port Arthur, is able to go to sea with in the Russian junks. We believe the of the vessel in order to keep her on an four batleships, which is not certain he Russians were a cavalry patrol, watch- even keel, she turned turtle and sank in can do, Vice-Admiral Togo could bring a few minutes, carrying down almost against him a greatly superior force. It the entire crew. Captain N. Jakovlaff, is pointed out that all the Japanese adthe Grand Duke Cyril and two other miral need now to do is to be outside Tokio cable: An unofficial telegram from Wiju says that a company of standing on the upper bridge. The with absolute impunity. Russian troops attempted to cross the frightful loss of life among the officers first stream of the Yalu River west of and men was due to the fact that they for of Japanese attacked and drove the Russians back. The bodies of twenty dead A Requiem Mass to be Held.

the harbor to meet the attack. According to the Associated Press informant it was while preparing to draw up

Russians, the telegram adds, were found after the fight. Their uniforms showed that they belonged to the Tenth Regiment of Sharpshooters. Finally, the detraordinary session to pass upon the squadron, is also mentioned for the poofficial despatches, which will probably sition.

Squadron, is also mentioned for the po175 degrees W. 13 cents. spatch says, that small parties of Russians, without uniforms, have attempted to cross the Yalu River at difbe given out soon. A requiem mass for ferent points between Wiju and Yongthe repose of the souls of Admiral Makaroff and the other officers and the crew of the Petroplavlovsk had al- Forty Japanese Vessels Make a Demonready been announced to take place in Only a Part of Him. Tokio cable: A fragment of the the Admiralty Church to-morrow.

Japs Drive Russians Back.

What the Fight Was About.

The Petropavlovsk turned turtle in a body of Commander Hirose, who was Victoria, which was rammed by the and sent by wireless telegraph killed on March 27 in the second atinterred to-day. The remains were borne through the streets on a gun caryear-old son, to whom he frequently riage, with battalions of marines preceding and following the cortege as an hammering desperately on the upturned morning. hull. When the news of Grand Duke In another despatch the correspond- was upset in a ratification meeting of escort from the Navy Club to the Aoadded that he was passing Easter evening of people on board a gurboat stationed at the ered when the little casket passed. The parents here a Te Deum service was held the dim light and amid rain squalls, I The unions rejected the settlement by a medals granted the deceased for valor- at the Vladimir palace. The correspond- saw a squadron of warships in line vote of 595 to 65. ous conduct were carried in the proces- ent of the Associated Press says the ahead steering a course similar to our telegram, the French Embassy at St. sion on silken pillows, and the entire Grand Duke Boris was going to accom-Petersburg received an official assurance navy staff walked behind the casket. pany his brother to Mukden. According to be a Japanese squadron of six bat- Convention to choose delegates to the Rumors that Rear-Admiral Prince that the accident was due to the Petutomsky was in action against eight formed the Shinto burial ceremonial.

PRECEDED BY A FIGHT.

Wei-Hai-Wei cable: The action Japanese Warships Had Cut Off the cruiser Bayan. Wei-Hai-Wei cable: Judging from consisted, according to the reports re-storm to scan the bulletin boards, but miral Prince Outomsky wires from Port ceived here, of an unsuccessful attempt the report of the British gunboat cruiser coming from the east. The Rus- | was sever while it lasted. So far as sian protected cruiser Askold and a bat- can be ascertained, the Russian cruiser tleship of the Pobieda type went to the Bayan was steaming toward Port Arassistance of the Russian cruiser refer- thur from the direction of the Yalu be published. The meagreness of the pedo-boat destroyers and was sunk in red to. The forts at Port Arthur did not River. The Japanese battleship Asahi continuous, but was of short duration. The weather was somewhat hazy, here, was unable, owing to the distance, what happened, but it seemed to ascertain the damage done.

GRAND DUKE CYRIL, Who was Saved from the Petropavlovsk.

ST. PETERSBURG EXCITED

Wounding of Cyril.

by reports spread broadcast in this city the Grand Duke Cyril being reported made a demonstration before the port, killed. But the reports are very con- and were unable to return to Port Arand at the same time laid mines across | flicting as to Makaroff's death and as to thur. It is stated that the Japanese whether the catastrophe was the result subsequently bombarded the fortress. of a fight with the enemy or due to the Petropavlovsk striking a mine in the harbor. Some of the rumors declare that pavlovsk struck one of the mines laid lovsk and others say he was not on by the Japanese torpedo boats and was board. The report that there has been a fight seems to have originated out of the made by four Japanese cruisers and one Espiegle and other reports received battleship to intercept a large Russian here the naval action off Port Arthur Doubt Threwn Upon the Official Ver-The Espiegle, which brought the news which prevented certain knowledge of though the Bayan was successfully evading the Japanese vessels. cruiser Askold, which could be dis tinguished by her five funnels, and a battleship, apparently of the Pobieda type, put out from Port Arthur to help the Bayan. The firing was continous late St. Petersburg cable says: and heavy. The outcome cannot be Intense excitement has been caused here reported reliably, but the Bayan was seen later with a column of steam esregarding the disaster at Port Arthur, caping from her, suggesting that she had been damaged. It is rumored wounded and the battleship Petropav- but without any confirmation, that she lovsk sunk, and Vice-Admiral Makaroff and the two other vessels were cut off

SOUADRON NOW HELPLESS.

A London cable says: In the absupposition that the Petropavlovsk could sence of any Japanese report and in view not have sustained such injuries other- of the fact that the Russian despatches wise. It is also pointed out that it was omit to mention anything about a fight known that the Japanese had been hov- it cannot be determined what the exact ering in the neighborhood for several conditions of the engagements were. The reports from Wei-Hai-Wei, which are the Later, it became known that the first only independent ones, are not precise Chairman Doubassor, of the Technical the mist said and the Tala River, telegram received by Grand Duke Vladenough to afford much more than a basis Board of the Admiralty, is more likely which occurred last Sunday, arrived to-limit said briefly that Grand Duke Cyril for grand Duke C Board of the Admiral Makaroff than day, in the official report of Admiral had been wounded and that the Petroto succeed Vice-Admiral Makaron than the Hosoga. The text of the report follows: had been wounded and that the Petro- is sufficiently evident, however. The Rus-Rear-Admiral Rojestvensky. Doubassof Hosoga. Turk- "In accordance with my instructions the paylovsk had been lost, without men-Rear-Admiral Rojestvensky. Louisia-Turk- "In accordance with my instructions, the pavlovsk had been lost, without mensians were retreating under the shelters is one of the heroes of the Russia-Turk- "In accordance with my instructions, the tioning a fight. The mass of the reports is one of the heroes of the Russia Line Captain of the cruiser Kasaga directed tioning a fight. The mass of the reports of their land forts when the Petropavish war, and with Makaroff helped to captain of the cruiser Kasaga directed agree in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish war, and with Makaroff helped to Lieut Vamaguchi, with five men to agree in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to agree in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements—that Grand land forts when the Petropavish with five men to be agreed in two statements. ish war, and with Makaron helped to the Yamaguchi, with five men, to blow up the Turkish fleet in the Black Lieut. Yamaguchi, with five men, to Duke Cyril, between whom and the all the first person, scout in the north of the Yalu They are blow up the Turkish neet in the black scout in the north of the Yalu. They ac-Sea. It transpires that the first person scout in the north of the Yalu. They ac-throne there is only one single life, was it for morting the complished the work and safely returned throne there is only one single life, was it for morting the complished the work and safely returned throne there is only one single life. Sea. It transpires that the hist person, scott in the work and safely returned throne there is only one single life, was ity for marking the mine, if, indeed, it to hear of Makaroff's death was his wi- complished the work and safely returned wounded, and that the Petrepaylovsk was laid by the Basaga on Monday. They entered wounded, and that the Petrepaylovsk was laid by the Basaga on Monday. to hear of Makaron's death was his we complished the word and safely returned wounded, and that the Petropavlovsk was laid by the Russians. Officials at the dow, who received a private telegram, to the Kasaga on Monday. They entered was lost, and at 2 was lost. to see the Admiral's brother, an onicer of the Guards, when the Emperor's aide Russians leaving the right bank of the Court of the Guards, when the Emperor's aide river near Toag Torvuho in a junk thority to be extremely reserved about the countries of all the mines to of the Guards, when the Emperor's and Rassans rearries to the Guards, when the Emperor's and Petrone are Toag Toryuho in a junk. I thority to be extremely reserved about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed, and with character of the carefully surveyed about be carefully surveyed. announced officially up to the present has been generally accepted that the visional Superintendent at Allan- 138 pounds and is in robust health, known. The Japanese fleet, including lost known to be damaged, namely, the torpedo boats and torpedo-boat destroy-losses in ships thus far are figured here off ordered his whole squadron out of as being: Cruisers Gunboats Torpedo-boat destroyers .. 2

Even if Rear Admiral Prince Ouktom- 31-2 per cent. mmediately began to keel. Before the sky, who is in charge of the fleet at officers were saved because they were Port Arthur, and transports can pass and men was due to the fact that they formerly naval attache of the Russian docked. were all at their stations, ready for Embassy in London. He is known to be an able officer, but it is not expected that he will retain the command. Ad St. Petersburg, April 13, 5.38 p.m.- miral Skrydloff is naturally suggested After the receipt of definite news of Vice-Admiral Makaroff's death, the Makaroff, but Admiral Rozhdestvensky, refined petroleum, Ohio State test quotmilitary censor committee called an ex- who was selected to command the Baltic

A GENERAL ATTACK.

London cable: The Times prints manner similar to the British battleship a despatch, dated "Off Port Arthur," Camperdown in 1893, and to the incident Wei-Hai-Wei, which savs that Japanese in the Chino-Japanese war, when a Chin- torpedo boats attacked Port Arthur cse warship turned turtle, many of the early Wednesday morning. The bomcrew remaining alive for several days. bardment began at 9.45 o'clock in the > line ahead, the third and fourth ves. Vice-President was held to-day. Before sels being the Kasuga and Nisshin, the State body assembled Congressman which were making their first appear- Amos I. Allen of Alfred was renominance in the fleet. The Mitska was ated by Republicans of the first district. leading. They were shaping their course for Port Arthur. Forty miles distant from the port the battleships drew out at full speed, and the Kasuga and Nisshin left the cruisers and joined the battleships, the other cruisers remaining behind. The interval between them was maintained by the destroyer division and a despatch boat. factors in the trade situation in the As we neared Port Arthur we found old country, which, combined, have two first-class and four second-class tended to unsettle the situation there, cruisers already there. This squadron One is temporary merely, the stophad covered the torpedo boat attack, which was made in the small hours of the morning.

fighting flags and steamed in forma- lack of technical skill in manufaction, the Mikasa leading and the new turing and the unhealthy influence ships bringing up the rear to within of trade unions.

south. It was inspiring to see how the powerful squadron of fighting machines manoeuvred. The battleships vessels manoeuvred with them, performing to their evolutions at a safer nearest to us exploded on impact with of. craft, there were forty Japanese ves-

MORNING TORPEDO ATTACK.

London cable: The Times, commenting on the loss of the Petropaylovsk, points out the discrepancies betwen the Russian official messages and cline in Bricish trade due to the those of its correspondent. It says there causes he had mentioned, although was no sally of the Russian fleet, and the Mr. Chamberlain's proposals offered correspondent did not see any Russian to settle the trade question in Great ship. Moreover, he was not aware of the Britain. For himself, Mr. Walker was sinking of the Petropavlovsk. The paper disposed to blame the manufacturdeduces that it must have occurred be- ers in Great Britain in not being upfore 4.30, and says it is possible that mine was a Japanese torpedo. It remarks too prosperous over there, and as that the Russians seem to use mine and a consequence had not kept abreast torpedo as convertible terms. Continu- of the times. Still, however, there ing, the Times says that it looks as if were many Englishmen who favored the Petropavlovsk was caught in the Mr. Chamberlain's proposals. roadstead by the torpedo boats, and as if the other ships, deprived of their admiral, retired into the inner harbor be- Britain would work out in the direcfore the Japanese fleet reached Port Arthur. This view seems to be confirmed The Englishman saw that Mr. Chamby Admiral Gregorovitch's despatch, berladin had got the two things, which says: "The Japanese squadron is approaching." The correspondent saw it approaching, but the torpedo boat at tack occurred hours earlier. Moreover, it is nardly conceivable that a single Consumptive Has Walked 10,000 mine would send a battleship to the bot-Makaroff was on board the Petropav- Its Diminution Will Entail the Gravest tom with such fearful rapidity, though the simultaneous explosion of several torpedoes would be far more destruct-

PRAISE FOR GRAND TRUNK.

Resolution of Collingwood Board

Collingwood, April 18 .- At the re- where, eleven years ago, he found gular meeting of the Board of Trade himself afflicted with consumption. this evening the following resolution | He removed to Salt Lake City and was moved by W. A. Copeland and to Los Angeles in a futile endeaseconded by C. E. Stephens and vor to improve his health. His wife unanimously passed: That this died, and in August, 1901, when he Board of Trade, representing the was told he could not live three bus ness men of Collingwood, desire months, he resolved to start walkto place on record their apprecia- ing and to de on the road in the eftion of the ratisfactory and efficient fort to better himself if necessary. service given by the Grand Trunk He then weighed 98 pounds Railway Company to this town during the severe and stormy weather go only a short distance, but the of the past winter; that a copy of fresh air, for he also slept in the this resolution be sent to the Gen- open when he could, soon gave him eral Manager of the company at new strength, and he has been Montreal and also to Mr. Tiffin, Di- walking ever since. He now weighs Japanese laid mines outside of Port dale, to whose energy and resource- but says he feels the necessity of Arthur early in March, and it may have fulness is due much of the credit keeping in the open and exercising been one of these that caused the des- for the almost unbroken passenger constantly to keep alive. In the cold and freight service we have enjoyed. | weather he goes south, and in the London,-The Bank of England rate of discount has been reduced from 4 to St. Paul, Minn.-No decision in the Harriman Northern Securities case was rendered to-day.

London.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Teaser, which ran ashore during the naval manoeuvres at Portsmouth Rear Admiral Prince Ouktomsky was last night, has been towed off and > Cleveland, O.-The Standard Oil Company to-day anounced another reduction ed, taking effect to-day, at 11 cents. W.

London.-A special despatch from St. Petersburg says the son of General Kazarkoff was killed this morning as the result of a dynamite outrage, in his room at the Hotel du Nord. The police, it is added, discovered documents indicating the author of the outrage.

New York .- A compromise by which the lock-out of all the workers here in the lithographing trade, which was believed to have been settled last week,

BRITAIN'S REAL TROUBLE.

Lack of Technical Skill Affects Business

Toronto, April 18 .- There are two page of the flow of gold from the South African mines; the other is "The battleships now hoisted their of a more permanent nature-the six miles of Port Arthur's frowning These are the opinions of Mr. B. E. Walker, General Manager of the "At 10.20 the shore batteries opened. Canadian Bank of Commerce, who but their fire was only desultory, and has just returned from a visit to it seemed as though Admiral Togo was London, where he has been during making a demonstration rather that a the past three months. Mr. Walker bombardment. Three times his fight- stated that probably what the pooing squadron circled around in front of le of the old country were most inthe enemy's position, drawing a terested in at the present time was desultory fire, and at noon Admiral the new fiscal policy as they called Togo withdrew his battleships to the it in England. He considered that there was a certain amount of misconception in Canada as to how they really did feel in Great Britain, which it would be well to remove. While went boldly in, while the less protected Mr. Chamberlaia had by his great personality developed an interest in a new fiscal policy, the people of distance. Later, although I went closer Great Britain were not thinking to Port Arthur than I had ever been along the same lines as he was. They before, I saw no sign of any Russian were not niways willing to admit the shipping. The shells which fell decline in trade which was talked the water. The Japanese manoeuvr- So far as trade generally in Enging was at eighteen knots an hour. So land was concerned, Mr. Walker refar as I could see they suffered no marke I that the av. r. ge E gil hman damage. The expenditure of ammuni- would admit that in technical skill tion was small. It was a magnificent they had fallen behind in some force, the most powerful individual branches. The trades unions, too, fleet, indeed, which ever sailed the had made it difficult to obtain a lull eastern seas. Including the torpedo day's work out of the British workingman. There was no question about that, and this lack of technical skill and the influence of the unions, Mr. Walker considered a very serious as well as a permanent question that has got to be faced. Regarding what is known as Chamberlainism is the old country, Mr. Walker stated that there was no natural relation between the desire of Mr. Chamberlain to bind the parts of the empire together and the deto-date in trade skill. They had been Personally, Mr. Walker did not feel that the fiscal discussion in Great tion of Mr. Chamberlain's proposalsa s Imperialism and trade, mixed.

TRAMPED TO HEALTH.

Miles and Cured Limsell

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 13-Charles E. Norris, who has walked more than ten thousand miles to cure himself of consumption, believes he has accomplished the cure, but will continue the tramping. He is now passing along the line of the Lehigh Valley Railroad toward New York

Norris comes from San Francisco,

At first he was so weak he could