ROBT. BURNETT.

DORMOCH.

Intended for last week
The world's best men and women too.
Were raised in homes where flowers grew:
Flowers inspire though grand and true,
And noble thoughts will great things do.
Old mother Earth is now being decked in her garb of beauty, the forest glades and meadows are sprinkled with variegated flowers and soon our vision will be gladdened by the appearance of the dear old maple leaf when "all the trees on all the hills open their thousand leaves."
The small boy is in evidence these days on the banks of the stream, where, pole in hand, he sits angling with the patience of honest Isaac Walton.
He is broad in his views, an expert mineralogist, and a cultured conversationalist, is Mr Wm Watt, who returned to the burg last week, after an absence of 5 years in Seattle, Washington.

The ex-alderman of Montreal and owner of the town goat spent a few pleasant days visiting numerous friends and acquaintances in the burg and vicinity.

Mr R M Dargavel's sawmill is in full blast at present. A large gang of men are engaged cutting the extensive stock of logs.

MULL CORNERS.

Mr Hugh McCormick, Pittsburgh, Pa., is visiting parents and friends here for a month or two.
Mr Wm Watt, Seattle, is home on a visit for a couple of months with parents and friends round Dornoch and was calling on Alex McCormick of this neighborhood.

Miss Tena McLean went to Stratford last week to undergo an operation, and at last reports she was doing well. Dr Gun accompanied her.

Miss M Fletcher left for Toronto on Monday morning.
Mrs McQuarrie, Sr. is visiting her daughter, Mrs L McLean, of Tobernory, who, last Saturday presented her husband with a son. Congratulations.

Mr Quinn is busy hauling shingles to Hanover and his enterprise deserves reward.
Miss Quinn visited Holland Centre friends last week.

Miss Ellen Clark visited her brother and family at Aberdeen last Sunday.

Rocky Church was filled to overflowing on Sunday last and all listened to an eloquent and able sermon by pastor Aitchison. The choir too, is winning golden opinions by their tasteful performances.

Remember the lecture this Friday evening by Mr Thompson, Knox College Student.

Pleased to hear that Mrs Arch McLean is rapidly improving in health.
Miss Sarah Caswell left for New York recently.

Edge Hill

The farmers are all busy at their seeding.

Mr Soe Atkinson sold a two-year-old colt to Robt Edge for the handsome sum of $140.

Mr John McCroskey of Stewart Town visited at Mr D McFayden's one day lately.

Miss Lily Jopp was the guest of friends in town for a few days recently.

Mr Dan Fath, of Markdale, spent Sunday at the old homestead.

Mr Fred Staples purchased a new buggy last Saturday from Wm Sharp of your town.

Mr Tom Firth, of Massie, spent a couple of days at the parental home.

Miss Annie Staples had a rag-bee last Wednesday, when a large number of her neighbor girls gathered and spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs Jno Collier went to Hamilton last Monday and got her brother Albert's little infant (whose mother died a couple of weeks ago) and she is going to raise the child, which is quite a charge.

Miss Bessie Atkinson arrived home from Toronto where she spent the winter months.

A number from around here attended the funeral of the late James Whitmore last Friday.

Miss Catherine McDougall, of Durham, visited Miss Vic Aljoe, over Sunday.

The Sunday School of Ritchie's school house opened on Sunday with a good attendance of scholars and teachers with Mr W. J. Young as Superintendent.

Mr and Mrs Chris Sherman visited at Weibcock last Sabbath.

Mr R. W. Aljoe started at carpenter work with Mr B. Sharpe this week.

Miss Bella Weir, of Glenmont, is staying with her grandmother, Mrs John Weir.

NORTH EGREMONT.

This budget should have been in last week, but pressure of spring work has necessarily delayed it.

A Song Service was recently held at the Hall appointment, where the choir rendered very successfully some choice anthems, so arranged as to set forth the progressive steps of a Christian from his first act that of 'seeking,' in their first selection, 'continuing in prayer' and 'admonition' in their 2nd and 3rd pieces, and as the Christian rises in full fruition, so the choir exemplified in their 4th and 5th, in "Let all rejoice and sing, for the Lord is good, and kind are all his ways," and in "Hope thou in God for I shall yet praise Him," finally finishing in a grand triumphal acclamation in their 6th selection, the prevailing theme of which was "The Lord will provide, He will bring you safely home," the last measures of the anthem gliding beautifully into the grand old tune of "Home sweet Home," in good, and kind are all his ways," and in "Hope thou in God for I shall yet praise Him," finally finishing in a grand triumphal acclamation in their 6th selection, the prevailing theme of which was "The Lord will provide, He will bring you safely home," the last measures of the anthem gliding beautifully into the grand old tune of "Home sweet Home,"

The pastor, Rev Mr Roan, made remarks apropos of the occasion between the selections. A large audience turned out, seating room being at a premium.

Miss Minnie Hooper, the efficient organist of Ebenezer Church, has secured a large class of pupils throughout N Egremont, having more than she can rightly attend to, with the time at her disposal.

With her painstaking care and patience—a very necessary quality—together with her winning ways, we have no doubt she will make a successful teacher. A Mrs Haw, of Brownsville, has a class in and around Dromore. She hails from down the country somewhere, and comes well recommended.

The Lothian Bros recently sold a bull which weighed over 2100 lbs, receiving in the vicinity of $86 for it.

J McBeth had the misfortune to get a cow stabbed with a sharp stick in the swamp. The Veterinary was called in who put in some stitches. Latest reports she is doing well.

The Rev Mr Matheson, Priceville, exchanged pulpits at the Ebenezer Church with Rev Mr Roach on Sunday evening last, preaching very acceptably to a large audience.

The Rev Mr Campbell, Dromore, intends, in connection with the C. E., giving a night in the near future on "Bonar's life and writings. The Choir and Congregation will render some of his best hymns as contained in the Hymnal Sacrament will be dispensed in Am's Church on Sunday, May 22nd. Rev Mr Reid, of East Normansby, will assist in the preparator services.
