BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

gs of Sardanapalus Dis-

rred at Babyion. 16 .- The Society of Gernsts reports that they historical discovery of interest in the Vailey , where for some years een busy exploring the Eabylon.

iscovery, consisting of and a large temple in damaged condition. mit the historian to d locate the principal reign of Sardanapalus. ory only very little has eretofore, and this is ated by any proofs. calaces which has now ed is literally covered ions, describing the of the famous King of is undoubtedly one of ardanapalus had built n the seventh century

ist descendant of Semnteresting finds have nong these a portrait king, cut in solid rock. milar to it representmanasar II., covered of a lion. re works of art, and to the Archaeological city.

ECTS FOR CROPS. the West Has Greatly

acreased. v 16.-The first crop ear, compiled by the fic Rallway, issued story of magnifient 1904's wheat crop. ation in the grainong the main line of gents advise that are showing a main acreage under two exceptions, and eather is "fine and ort is significantly ving the first statectual acreage. Figdistrict along the ranch are Aladdintoon agent reportof 200 per cent. rage for the whole er cent., a 50 per dong other lines is au, Weyburn and the remaining disfrom 10 to 25 per ons on the main and Souris branches. te same as last that the report ion of general conservative estimate d number of the rop in the whole toba and the ter-000. The proper-Manitoba, 2,390,-900,000 acres.

Northern Railway report on the seedk ending May 7. report the seeding ery favorably to きっしくらっ

sment is $48,000,- per has returned to Intion 67,000. . S. infantry was os, and two ofmen were killed. wheat in Great in the newly inof Chalsworth ren of Mr. Thomas orts received fully are lying dead ver district as a nally cold winter. reventive Commitdd medal and £20 eaching the danmatches or fire. f Toronto, was arriage yesterday

no bones were vernment is re-256,000 acres of company for over or at the Serum agen, has discovidote for the bite

n. Sydney Fisher, Agriculture, was ent of the Amer-e Club. in the Review of Winston Churcheader in view of labor claims.

es submitted by reasurer call for 7-8 mills, which rol hopes to reaston, of Sacrad been appointed of St. John's h, has declined the rancher, of Da-

was drowned o cross the Bow is, Man, on Fried the village of N. E. It was for s of the New anada Railway. were burned. New York, has ng from 2 to 1 on premiums of s of other couns

Victoria, B. C., of the Great and William candidate for the tion for the Unitcy, will start a in Victoria at eet the Canadian

She was always just. She had y sought her own destiny; it had not Morrison. been forced upon her. She had that which she had coveted; and she must take the drawbacks with it.

She found that she had acted wisely in taking her mother's advice. One of the first things Sir Owen asked about was the ball. "Shall you go?" she asked her husband. "That I shall," he replied; "and you too. Lady Maude Arlington is going; every one who is any one will be there." It was a favorite festival of his; he enjoyed making himself popular. He never missed the Hunt Ball.

"Violet, mind you have a dress worth looking at. Lady Chevenix of fear nestling in her heart. Gardswood must be second to none on this occasion. If there is anything you want, no matter what it costs, you must have it."

She thanked him; but there was wither gratitude nor pleasure in ter voice. Bitterly enough she said to herself, "What will it matter if I 31r Ower, improved. The doctor had gone. given him a serious fright; he had Felix had been to escort Lady assured him that unless he led a Maude to her carriage-the party nore abstemious life that he must from Bramber retired early-and as soon die. He bore the warning in he was returning he saw Sir Owen nind, and drank less.

He began to interest himself in the called to him. Mall. Lady Chevenix looked forward "Mr. Lonsdale," he said in a thick with her daughter Lavinia (who to it with pleasure; Lady Maude voice, "will you take a message to had married a curate and subsided Stuart, of Thorold, Ont., who is well larly milk and meat. The few fig- that they contain no opiate or harmwould be there,, and she liked Lady Lady Chevenix from me? Tell her Into 'parish work'),, the curate him- known to most of the residents of Maude. Felix would be there too- that she did not choose to come when | self (a mild, inoffensive gentleman | that town, found her health severeshe had heard Sir Owen say so. She I sent for her, and that now she who had perhaps deserved a better ly shattered as the result of an onged to see him again; she felt may get home as she can; she may fate).. the Rev. Mr. Clayburn, Darcy attack of anaemia. As told practhat there would be a sense of rest | walk through the mud if she likes." and Felix Lonsdale, Captain Hill, | theally in her own words, Mrs. and protection in his presence that | "Stop, Sir Owen!" cried Felix. sever came to her with any other. she wondered to herself if he would ocity mingled, Sir Owen shouted, this little party to remove any bad nerve racking headaches, and the ask her to dance. she thought to herself, with a smile of wonder. that was almost pitiful.

She took great interest in her dress and jewels, hoping that he would notice her presence more than he generally did. Very beautiful she looked in her favorite colors, white and plue-white satin and blue velvet. With her exquisitely molded arms and a diamend necklace clasped round her throat, a diamond cross gleaming on one who could sway men's hearts. Sir Owen was proud of her, and said so in his blunt fashion.

"There will not be a woman in the room like you, Violet," he said; and she wondered whether there would be any one with such a load of anxiety on her mind.

The ball was always held at the Assembly Rooms in Lilford. It was very exclusive, very select, and at times very dull. But this year the party from Bamber Towers was a arge one; several officers were visiting there. They at first voted the Hunt Ball a decided "bore"; but when they saw Lady Chevenix they thought differently. She was worth coming many miles to see, they declared; and she was soon surrounded by a crowd of admirers.

not approach her. She observed that she waited eagerly. She kept her would-be partner in sus- | lately ?" said-"How well they look together!, changed. ing it; and a pang of jealous pain she replied.

know what they were saying. She checked herself abruptly. What I do not like to deliver it." if it were so? What did it matter to | Prouder and colder grew the fair her? Felix and herself were more face, yet into it there came, he saw, understood these things I should than strangers. The greatest stran- a shadow of fear. ger in that room thought more of "Gone home," she repeated, "and her and said more to her than Felix; left me here?" did. She was the queen of the night. | "I am sure there has been a mis-Her wonderful beauty, her gorgeous 'take," he said. "Sir Owen wished dress, her costly jewels, made her the me to say that he had sent for you, very centre of observation. She had and-and that as you did not come her triumph. The lover she had for- he had gone home without you." saken treated her with coldness, her But he will send the carriage husband kept her in a state of back for me?" she interrupted. terrible suspense; but the crowd "I am afraid not," he replied. "But admired her. No one present I would rather not repeat his would have believed that the words. I am sure the carriage will weight, as of lead, at her heart. Her spirits rose as the night wore; you," she cried-"by you of on. It was something to see all the men !" men admiring her; to see how they surrounded her; how they strug- liver it, but I had no alternative," gled to be of service to her; how her; smiles and bright words swayed them | Chevenix ?" as the sweet western wind sways the leaves. That was her triumph, and, to one so vain, it was no small one. She saw that Lady Maude, with all her aristocratic influence, was not sought after and admired as hhe

"Beauty rules the world," she thought, and then added, with a smile and a sigh, "Beauty and money combined, I mean." Half the evening had passed, and she had exchanged no word with Felix. Presently chance brought them ! almost side by side in a quadrille. cloak round her, waiting for him. gies about having been annoyed by He bowed and spoke to her. She bowed and speak the feeling of relief venix," he said; "allow me.' He theless, the incident left two disthat came over her. Would he ask opened the door for her, and stood agreeable reminders for him. Darcy ous boys. One day when one of them ber to dance? She gave him the op- waiting until she had taken her seat. Lonsdale told him that same evening had given her a great deal of annoyportunity, but he did not take it. 'It will not be long before you are that the next time he insulted Lady He never even thought of it. He had home-you have a capital horse and Chevenix in his presence he must seek taken his farewell of those false a good driver." bands; he would touch them no more. She looked at him and her eyes better. when she went to partial of the said, "will you ac- you, Sir Owen," he began, when on father about it," promptly responded the 1. Damp season, which makes the When she went to partake of an filled with tears. saw her husband standing by the company me home? I would not ask the point of departure. "You invite lad. buffet. He was holding a tumbler in you but that I am frightened. I am gentlemen to your house," he told face that he had drunk too much. go alone."

'Pray excuse me', she said to Major manner manner

She went up to Sir Owen, and laid | seeing the white frightened face, he her hand upon his arm. "We have had a very pleasant even- her. ing," she said-her poor lips were white with fear. of the brandy on her dress.

every nerve; "and if you will, Sir the pale woman entered he launched ter the discreditable scene in his own ator Edwards, pointed out, liter-Owen, I should like to go home." before anyone noticed his condition. | said quietly : "Go back to your dancing. When I Mr. Lonsdale? You have had a long Owen held out his hand. am ready, I shall send for you."

in covered with diamonds? I shall contempt for her husband and pity was carried off helpless to bed, when have a weight of care on my mind for herself in the eyes of Major Mor- Felix started for Lilford. which all the diamonds on earth rison. He made no allusion to the As he left Garswood, Felix raised ashamed of myself. It shall not hapscene, nor did she; but when the his face to the calm skies. 'ear that my husband will disgrace dance was ended, she asked him to take her back to the same spot. Violet!" But during the next few days When she reached it Sir Owen was assisted into his carriage. Sir Owen jest-no one could treat a young wife especially. wife so barbarously, so cruelly- But circumstances were against portunity of speaking to her.

at the end of it; then she raised was not to be borne. her face to his.

The rooms were beautifully decor- tell her that he would like to be was to complain, to find faultated and filled with a brilliant better friends with her, no other never to praise. If he saw clear soup, Ont. crowd. Lady Chevenix looked for | thought entered her mind. Her lim- he was cross because it was not thick. Felix first; she saw him, but he did | pid eyes were lilled with light as | If it were thick, he wanted it thin.

lington, and then with Lady Maude; agreeable subject," he began. "May cause it was not another. she wondered if he would seek her. I ask if you have seen Sir Owen Ca that particular day he was they were grown-ups, failed to wonder ture in Great Br.ta.n, makes some skill, and it will surprise many to learn the would be partner in such later. I ask if you have seen Sir Owen Ca that particular day he was they were grown-ups, failed to wonder ture in Great Br.ta.n, makes some that its manufacture is really a redispense. But Felix di 2 not come; he He saw the light and the color of his favorite fish was not cooked the programme is carried out. At the of makers and exporters. He says: covered lost art.

could not help hearing what people again; the very tone of her voice nix, seeing a storm brewing, and they were executed twice a day, most successful one; there was a art of wire beating, no evidence has been Can it be possible that there is any "I saw him half an hour since, and amiable and complacent she looked The acts included pretty much every. the steady improvement in the qual- for making rope. thing in it?" She could not help hear- | wanted him to go home with me," | the blacker and angrier he grew, beautiful, radiant woman had a | not return." "And he sent this message by "I am sorry to have had to de-

> "If you please," she replied. "Then I should counsel you to return home at once, and before any one has time to notice Sir Owen's was at once restored. for whom it is intended."

he replied. "May I advise you, Lady cloak-room at once.

What should she do if there was a the head to himself that he must the experiment, Sir Owen. I have Newlywed-Well, it's a case of fork now. Inspectors of your department.

Lady Chevenix; she was simply a ! time.' duty to help her.

"I am afraid," she continued-and he saw that her face was quite white and that her hands trembled. What a mockery her diamonds and her superb dress appeared now! "Sir Owen is very violent when he is not quite himself," she continued. "If he is at home alone, I dare not go." "I will accompany you, Lady Chevenix," he said : "have no fear you may rely upon me." They said but little during the ourney, and Felix was glad when the carriage reached Garswood. "You will come in with me?" said Lady Chevenix; and

He was thankful that he had consented, for Sir Owen had worked must alter, or ever house in the tween 3,000 and 40,000 persons the Department of Agriculture, the "Very," he replied, and in the ef- himself into a state of uncontrollable county would be closed against him. are suffering from it, yet it is un makes of other months have proved fort to look dignified he spilled some | anger. He was in the drawing-room, "I am tired," she said, trembling in on the table by his side, and when drive." She dared not disobey him. She Another volley of oaths followed. day, captain," he said, "and went back to the ballroom, a deadly | Pale, scared and trembling, she fled | from the room and took refuge in Whether he ever did send for her, her own. If she had been alone, he word that you said to me, and now or whether it was but the fancy would have followed her, and then I make you the most ample apology. of an excited brain, Violet never she would have had to save herself as Will you shake hands?" knew. She had not ventured to dis- she best could; but Felix was there, obey him when he said, "Go back to and the very thought of his presence | Captain Hill assented with an illyour dancing;" she did as he had comforted her. He stayed with the directed. She had not dared to dis- furious man, whose violence changed obey, or to plead with him, or to into extreme friendliness, until he urge one entreaty on him. She read had stupefied himself with drink and thing."

"Heaven help her!" he said. "Poor No reference to this little scene passed his lips, but in his mind he felt infinite pity for her. A few days later Sir Owen,, feelinsisted upon having a dinner-party.

Lady Rolfe,, that veteran diner-out, with one or two more were to be Stuart says; "My block was turned But, with great dignity and fer- present. The baroney wished to give Glmost to water ; I suffered from "Home!" and the horses started off impression there might be on the least exertion would cause my heart "I should like to dance with him," rapidly, leaving Felix angry and full minds of the people after the ball, to palpitate so violently as to ren-He also resolved upon being most am- | der me almost breathless. I wasted At first he thought it must be a lable, polite and attentive to his away in flesh and often was so

and he half expected the carriage him. His favorite horse that mornto return; but it did not, and ling had been found lame,, and the there was nothing left for him but groom had the insolence or the cour- pondent, and felt I was becoming to make the best of his message. age to tell him that he had caused a hopeless invalid. At this stage I He went back to the ball-room; it it himself by his reckless riding. He was difficult to believe that the turned to dismiss the man on the Pink Pills and I began taking them, spot, and then sudd nly remembered thinking it would be a miracle if round whom the best men in the that he could not deplace him, for they ever helped me. To my great room had assembled was the wife he was one of the most valuable ser- gratification when I had been using | (churches, schools, theatres, railher white breast, she looked like of the stupid, fierce, drunken baro- vants that he had. He was obliged to the pills less than a month I found bet. He made his way to her, and rein in his temper, which in itself my health improving. I used about well as a filthy habit. waited until he could find an op- was enough to drive him almost mad, a dozen boxen in all and found myso little was he accustomed to self- self enjoying once more the bless-"Lady Chevenix," he said, "I have control. His favorite mastiff, too, ing of good health. I had been resomething I wish to say to you." was ill, and he was annoyed about duked to almost a skeleton in ap- lum, where the patients may enjoy used centuries ago. She turned eagerly to him, and that. The veterinary surgeon said pearance, and while taking the pi's the best of care, without being altothe light that came over her face that the dog had better be shot, gained over twenty pounds in gether removed from the watchfulcaused him keen pain. She rose and Sir Owen swore roundly at him ; weight. I gratefully recommend the ness of their friends and family phyfrom her seat, dismissed her train to which the surgeon answered by pills to other ailing women." of admirers with a queenly smile saying that he would please himself, and bow, and laid her hand upon and that for the future he should greatest block builder and nerve of the gospel of fresh air, hence these his arm. If the touch of the little not attend at Garswood if he were tonic known to medical science, institutions gerve as object lessons hand made him tremble she was sent for. Sir Owen was very angry. Through their use pale cheeks are of the greatest value. It is for this not aware of it. They walked It was incredible that a baronet made rosy, dull eyes made bright, reason mainly that the Nova Scotia therough the crowded ball-room un- worth forty thousand a year could and this wasted figures made plump. Government has just erected a santil they came to a small recess not swear as he liked; such a thing Every dose makes new, rich red atorium at Kentville, with a ca-

So, when the guests sat down to strengthens every organ in the "You wanted to speak to me," she dinner, Sir Owen was not in the said. "I shall be very happy to list best of humors. He was a discontented man by nature. The first postpaid, at 50 cents a box or six She decided that he had come to thing that always occurred to him If one dish were placed before him, he chatted with the Countess of Ar- "I am afraid it is not a very he was quite sure to complain be-

An uncomfortable silence fell over the seemed to rive her heart. Surely that | "Then there has been some mis- guests. Felix did his best; he tried could never be! Felix marry Lady take-just as I imagined. The truth to make conversation, but it was dif-Maude! It was all nonsense-the is Lady Chevenix, Sir Owen has ficult with those muttered growls gossip of foolish people who did not gone home, after entrusting to me a running on like an under-current. At message so brusque and abrupt that last some other dish raised Sir Ow-

> "If I had married some one who have been better off." The guests saw Lady Chevenix's face grow as pale as the pearls she wore. Her silence irritated her husband, for he cried out angrily against her with a word so coarse and insulting that there was not a en's ire,, and he exclaimed:

do not show any of your airs here." brought out and put in place for one ence in the quality of cheese held she mastered herself with an ef- place, and the aerial acts must be such was very noticeable, not only in fort, for which they commended her. as to attract the attention of the audi- quality but in general appearance. She repressed the hysterical cry ence from the preparations which are This improvement is due to cool cur-went back to her chair.

absence-it will save so many un- | They admired her more than they a performance will run. Like a "producpleasant remarks. I will order a could say-it was impossible to help er" of a modern play, so Mr. Bailey's carriage, and no one need know it. Her grace, her beauty, her self- work ends with the rise of the curtain on "Thank you," she said, gently; all struck them. There was no one Mr. Frank Melville, the ring master, "that will be best. I will go to the present who did not think highly of who practicaly stage-manages the show. her for her behavior through so try-She did so, and a few minutes af- | ing a scene. Sir Owen tried to laugh | terward she stood, with her opera- It off. He made some awaward apolo-"The carriage is ready, Lady Che- horses, dogs, and servants; neveranother adviser. Captain Hill did buffet. He was holding a tumbler in you but that I am indeed. I dare not his hand, and she could tell by his frightened. I am indeed. I dare not them by behaving in a most brutal we have been married you don't seem to ing and discharging cargoes, this Now, I'd like—Oh, pshaw! they're call-

not think she was Violet Have or broken bread with you for the last woman in distress, and it was his | And no further word would the

with him.

大学の中心では あいから 100 mm からから 100 mm 10

CHAPTER XXXVI. Sir Owen was alarmed-he found that, although he was a baronet, he could not do as he liked with impunity. Society had certain lawa that must be kept-and one was that must, if he wished to be considered a gentleman, treat his wife with respect. Sir Owen found that he must alter, for the people were begioning to give up his acquaintance; ion are numbered among the of- are in favor of branding cheese indelsome of the best families in the ficers and members of the Canad- ibly with the month in which they county, who had formerly welcomed ian Association for the Prevention | made. Some years ago "September" him with oren arms, now did not even of Consumption and other forms of cheese became the favorites, but owinvite him to their formal parties. Tuberculosis, which held its fourth ing to the improvement in the qualwould have done anything to help He was losing caste as fast as he annual meeting in Ottawa on April ity of cheese made during July and could lose it, and he said to himself 20 and 21. It is calculated that in August, brought about by the systhat something must be done; he Canada at the present moment be- tem of "cool curing" introduced by with a decanter half full of brandy in him-he was not without some one that is curable in its earlier redeeming qualities. On the day af- stages. As the president, Hon. Sena volley of furious oaths at her. She house, he rode over to Captain Hill's ature such as the association dis-Her one wish was to get him away made no reply, but, turning to Felix, and asked to see that gentleman. The tributes should be in every home, captain looked very black when he "I shall not go home yet," he said. "Will you take any refreshment, saw who his visitor was, but Sir the simple means by which the

"I disgraced myrelf yester-I am come to beg your pardon-to grace.

"Yes. I have made it all right with | tion to Human Health." The lecturer her. Upon my word, I am quite vigorously combatted the opinion pen again."

DESPONDENT WOMEN

(To be Continued.)

ing ashamed of his recent escapade, Find New Health in the Use of Dr Williams' Pink Pills.

> A few years ago Mrs. James R weak (that I could not walk about. I was under the care of a good doctor, but as I was not getting better, I grew melancholy and dewas advised to use Dr. Williams' block that drives out disease and pacity for 18 patients. body. You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine, or by mail Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, at Madison Square Garden, certainly if agent of the Department of Agri- modern invention, a product of modern very much annoyed because some at the apparent smoothness with which suggestions that meritable attention danced with Lady Maude. Violet fade, the cold hard look come back as he liked it. In vain Lady Cheve- last circus there were 85 separate acts, "The cheese season of 1902 was a Although the Assyrians practised the tried to avert it; the more without any delay or friction whatever. large increase in the quantity and found to indicate that they used wire thing known to the sawdust ring, in ity was so great that in spite The excavations at Pompeii have, howaddition to a Kiralfy spectacle employ- of very heavy supplies the prices re- ever, brought to light a piece of bronze ing about four hundred men and women. alized on the whole were satisfac- wire rope, nearly fifteen feet long and Of course, the most important part is tory. The mild, sweet, palatable fla- about one inch in circumference. This the original assignment of all these vor, as distinguished from the heat- rope is now in the Museo Borbonico at turns, and the extraordinary part of it all is, that this is not done by general able in former years, has created laid spirally together, each strand berehearsals, but on paper. Six months be- a large consumptive demand, which fore the circus opens, Mr. Bailey makes out a list of the number and the kind of tween Canadian and English chedturns he wants. Then he sends his! agents broadcast over the globe and col-

HOW THE CIRCUS IS MANAGED.

but the greatest ingenuity has to be the sale but hurts the reputation shown in the way they must occur, so of Canadian cheese. The salesman, man present who did not long to that the interest of the audience may as well as the exporter is to blame horsewhip him. She rose with quiet always be kept up. Then many of the for sending these immature cheese, grace and dignity to quit the room; artists appea, in several turns, and time and the patrons of factories should not definitely known, but further excashe felt that she owed it to her own | must be given them to make the proper | insist that their cheese should be | vations may shed some light on the subself-respect not to remain. No changes of costume. The clowns must held in the curing room until it is ject. sooner did he see her do so than he be so placed as to appear at their best, in such a condition as will give satsprung from his seat and cried: | but not so as to interfere with the ring isfaction to the British consumer. "Go back to your seat,, my lady- or trapeze turns. Properties must be Cool Curing of Cheese.-The differ- 1644. The gentlemen rose quickly, but act while the preceding one is taking in the Government cool curing rooms that rose to her blips, smiled, and going on below, and vice versa. This is ing and "waxing" the cheese, which all arranged before the first performance also has the advantage of prevent-"Sir Owen does not always choose and so skilled has Mr. Bailey become of shrinkage. During the season of his jests wisely," she said; and order in arranging these details that he can tell within ten minutes just how long ing a considerable percentage possession, her self-control, her tact, the first performance. Then it is up to

WILLING TO ACCOMMODATE.

Abraham Benedict tells of a school teacher in Rochester who had a great ance she said to him: "I wish I could be your mother for just about one week. high, ranging from 5 to 25 per cent. I would rid you of your naughty dis-"I want to speak a few words to position." "Very well, I will speak to to:

 sturdy sportsman exchange with $ TO STAMP OUT CONSUMPTION

 Department of Agriculture,

Commissioner's Branch, Many of the most thoughtful and public spirited men of the Dominso that the people might be taught scourge may be avoided. While sanatoria were helpful in the case of those who had the disease, he believed that the great means of its prevention was in education.

Infections from animals. A phase of the question in which farmers are more particularly interested ber makes would be debarred from was discussed by Dr. Ravonal, an quoting them by cable or otherwise eminent United States authority, as "September's." who is assistant medical director | Yours very truly, J. A. Clemens, "Have you apologized to your of the Henry Phipps' Institute at Pubication Clerk. wife?" he asked. "That is the chief Philadelphia, in an address on "Animal Tuberculosis in Their Relaof Koch and others that there is an essential difference between hu- ones rosy, hearty and full of life, man and bovine tuberculosis, and give them Baby's Own Tablets the cited a large number of experiments | moment they show signs of being in support of this view that these out of order in any way . This mediwere practically identical. While cine cures all forms of stomach and admitting that the majority of cases | bowel troubles, breaks up colds, preof comsumption were due to infec- vents croup, destroys worms, altion by inhalation, he claimed that lays teething irritation and gives the a considerable percentage could be little ones sound, natural sleep. No definitely traced to infection through | child objects to taking the tablets the digestive tract of food, particu- and the mother has a marantee ures available seemed to indicate ful drug. No other medicine for little that about 25 per cent. of child- ones gives this guarantee, Mrs. Geo. ren's cases were due to the latter | Campbell, Killarney, Man., who has

Fresh Air, Light and Sunshine. - Raby's Own Tablets a fine medi-The keynote of the convention was; | cine for children. They are prompt "Live as much as possible in the in relieving little ills, and gentle in open air." Living in overcrowded, ill- their action." All medicine dealers ventilated, dark, dirty rooms; insuf- | sell these tablets, or you can get ficient or bad food; dissipation, or them by mail at 25 cents a box by anything which enfeebles the consti- writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine tution, and thus impairs its power Co., Brockville, Ont. of resistance, is likely to facilitate the invasion of the system by the germs. These are found in vast numbers in the dust particles of the dried spit of the consumptive, and in the minute droplets sprayed into the atmosphere by the consumptive in coughing, consequently spitting about the streets or in buildings way stations, etc.), is a dangerous as

The ideal place for treaing incipient cases of tubercular disease is in the municipal fresh air sanator- times is found to have been known and sicians. Every patient who is cured Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the in the sanatorium becomes an apostle boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Some Suggestions for Makers and Also for Experters. Department of Agriculture, > Commissioner's Branch, In his report regarding the chiese outside the castle walls was attached. ed and biting character so notice- Naples. It consists of three strands

THE CHEESE TRADE.

The practice of shipping too new or "green" cannot be too emphati-Every act is allowed seven minutes, cally condemned, as it not only s; ols 1902, when "waxed" cheese first appeared on the British market, some of the Grocers' Associations ob jected, and even went so far as to demand an allowance in weights, but it was soon proved that there was less shrinkage, which added to the improved quality and appearance of the cheese, quickly created a brisk demand for cheese coming from the Government curing stations, at an advance in price compared to cheese coming from the ordinary factories. Boxing Cheese .- Rhe percentage of broken boxes was not so high during 1903, although it still runs very

The falling off in breakage is due 2. More care on the part of the But then again I think a cowboy

3. The use of boxes of better qualty. The latter point was very noticeable in cheese coming from the Government curing stations, the boxes being made of heavier material; the percentage of broken boxes did not above two per cent. which proves that it is false economy to buy cheap boxes. Care should be taken not to use green, unseasoned boxes, as the cheese, particularly the top and bottom, may be damaged in quality from this cause alone.

Skin Brand on Cheese - Leading British importers of Canadian cheese Withal there was something good doubtedly a preventable disease, and to be nearly as good in quality as September's. It is claimed that unscrupulous dealers in Canada as well as Great Britain, quote "September's" at such low prices that the supposition is that thery are the make of other, months, and an inferiority in quality is not discovered until after delivery is taken. If the month of make was branded on the cheese they would be sold on their merits, and speculators, who bought cheap lines of July, August, October or Novem-

ROSY, HEARTY CHILDREN

If you want to keep your little had much experience, says: "I find

WIRE ROPE FROM POMPEII

Rope Tramways Were in Use Two Two Hundred and Sixty Years Ago.

It is not an uncommon thing in this age of advancement in industrial and engineering matters for the present day engineer to assume that he knows much more than his ancient brother, and while this is true in many things it frequently happens that an invention or appliance commonly believed to belong to modern Ropes made of various kinds of fibre and leather are of very ancient date. Ropes of palm have been found in Egypt in the tombs of Beni-Hassan (about 3003 B. C.), and on the walls of these tombs is also shown the process of preparing hemp. In a tomb at Thebes of the time of Thothmes III. (about 1600 B. C. is a group representing the process of twisting thongs of leather and the method of cutting leather into thongs. The Bible tells us that Sampson was bound with ropes and that the spies sent by Joshua into Jericho were let down in a basket, presumably by means of a rope.

At Nimrud, Assyria, a carved slab showing the seige of a castle was found, on which a soldier was represented in the act of cutting a rope to which a bucket for drawing water from a well

No one who ever attended the circus trade of 1903, Mr. A. W. Grindley, The wire rope is generally considered a ing made up of fifteen wires twisted towire ropes made to-day. Pompeii was buried A. D. 79, 1,825 years ago, but hew long wire ropes had then been known it is impossible to tell, though, judging by the knowledge shown in the construction it may be safely concluded that they had been known for a considerable time. The uses to which these ropes were put are

As to the use of rope tramways, it is said that they were in use as early as

TOMMY'S SOLILOOUY.

(Philadelphia Record.) I'd like to be a bareback rider, Dashing round the circus ring, With the people all applauding; My, I wouldn't do a thing.

In my shining suit of spangles I'd turn flip-flops in the air, And land on my gallant charger, Oh, but how the kids would stare!

Or else to be a lion tamer, At the snarling beasts I'd shout, How the tolks would stare and shiver When I ordered them about.

If I could only be a fireman, And drive the engine down the street; Going like the wind to fires. All the others I would beat.

I'd dash into burning buildings, Save the inmates from their fate, Carry them fainting down the ladder. Gee! but wouldn't that be great!

It's time for me to go to school.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES

TORONTO