Excursion.

The Annual excursion takes place next week, Thursday, 23rd inst to Guelph College, at same fare as last year. Tickets good for two days.

Addresses,
Mr. Kidd, of Simcoe, the official representative, spoke on Horse breeding, in a fluent manner and gave much satisfaction from the lucidity that characterized his presentation. He discussed the various types of horse, the necessity of proper adaptation of mares to horse breeding, the raising of colts and their treatment, with special instructions for foaling time, &c., &c.

He then himself open for questions, and Peter Mutch, Wm. Allan and others plied him with a few to make it interesting.

It was a most profitable address for farmer horsemen. We were kindly supplied with full notes of part of the lecture and may find room for them in a future issue.

After the lecture adjournment was made to the Hahn House yards, where practical examination of horses were made. A valuable exercise indeed and the society should provide a platform another year so that the big crowd could see the points made.

Evening Meeting.
What's the matter? Such small attendance, Saturday night and balmy weather and not sufficient stress on the advertising of it. Certainly the Speakers were not inferior to former ones. Mr. Kidd gave an address and showed that he was at home with a general audience as well as with one of farmers. Misses Gray and Rife, representative speakers at the Women's Institute in the afternoon, were both on the platform and on the program, and the charm of their presence and the culture of their papers were worthy of as large an audience as ever filled the Hall. Miss Gray spoke on "How to make home attractive," and judging by the concluding words of her report heard was an excellent address. Miss Rife on "Hygienic value of laughter and song" touched a topic by no means hackneyed, and many good things were said and advice given which if heeded would lessen doctor's bills and make life more worth living. Mr. Wm. Ramage, as often before assisted in the musical part with some of his popular patriotic songs, and the two ladies, with a delightful blending of the practical and aesthetic, also took part. Miss Rife sang sweetly, Miss Gray accompanying. This is no part of their work but seeing the program lacking something they gave their talent willingly and much to the pleasure of the audience. Come again ladies but not on Saturday.

Mayor A. S. Hunter was in the chair and filled it so well, that there will be a demand for his services in that capacity.

Women's Meeting.
The Women's Institute meeting last Saturday was largely attended, about 70 being present. Mrs. McGirr, Pres. and Miss Kate Dixon, Secy., making very attentive and efficient officers. The two gov't. delegates, Miss Gray, Toronto, and Miss Rife, Hespeler, made very bright and instructive addresses. Miss Rife on "Nursing the sick in the home" and the "MacDonald Institute at Guelph." Miss Gray gave some food demonstrations on cooking in savory meat, tomato sauce, lettuce salad with good hints interspersed. Miss Dixon accompanied them to Elmwood Monday.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The Annual meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Gray, Sr., on Thursday, June 2nd. Despite the very unfavorable weather there was a fair turnout of ladies, some coming a distance of six or seven miles.

Mrs. Thos. McGirr, Pres., gave an opening address which we are sending for publication. [This will appear in due course.—Ed.]

There will be meetings held at the following places:—1st Thursday in July at Mrs. David Hamilton's; 1st Thursday in August at Mrs. Jas. McGillivray's; 1st Thursday in September at Mrs. David McCrie's.

The following is a list of the officers for the ensuing year:—President, Mrs. Thos. McGirr, Durham; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Chas. Gray, Durham; 2nd Vice Pres., Miss Jean Brown, Durham; Secy. Treas., Miss Kate L. Dixon, Dromore.

Hopeville church and has been holding night meetings and services, three times last Sunday. There was a land of five preachers here all the time for over a week preaching and going from house to house trying to get the people out to the meeting. There was a large crowd on Sunday especially at night. The roads were good and the crowd consisted largely of the young men coming in a buggy with his girl. Amongst the preachers was a former Chinese missionary and Mr. Geo. McLeach. They raised by collection $217 on Sunday.

Mr. Joseph McArdle in his loneliness had a welcome visit from his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. D. C. McArdle and wife. It was part of their wedding trip he having been married on the 8th of June in the Anglican Church in West Toronto. The wedding was quiet on account of the death of Mrs. McArdle of this place. We hear that I. W. of Markdale was at it. They will live in Toronto.

The Esplan congregation had services in the church on Saturday, June 11th and Sunday, 12th. The Rev. Mr. Little of Holstein officiating. The church keeps steadily growing, ten new members joining on Saturday.
