suitable person to have the rank of major, and that Mr. Fisher recommended for the place another gentleman, who was also a political opponent, but who was well qualified by military service for a position of command.

"It should be added that at the time of dealing with that partieular case, as set forth by Lord Dundonald, Mr. Fisher was not acting merely as a Minister specially in terested in the Eastern Township affairs, although his position would have given him an undoubted right to advise. He was acting for and with the authority of the Minister of Militia, who was absent from the capital, and therefore his action had all the force and authority of action by the responsible head of the Department of Militia and Defence.

The Proper Course Neglected. "In view of those facts it is difficult to reach any other conclusion than that the action taken by Mr. Fisher was entirely within his right and duty as a Cabinet Minister, and entirely in the interest of a non-partisan militia service. On One of the Victims of the Canada Collision.

Montreal, June 20 .- An inquest was held last might at Sorel on the body of Alfred Thibeault, one of the victims of the Canada-Cape Breton collision. The most important evidence was given by Captain St.Louis Elie Bouille, pilot. The captain declared his conviction that the Cabe Breton was in the wrong, as she had borne down on them. When the other ship came aboard he twice ask. ed the name of the pilot, and at last was told it was Theodule Hamelin, of Deschambault. The pilot did not discuss the matter one way or the other, but seemed very sorry for the accident. The men of the Canada had to drive off some of those who came in the Cape Breton's boats, as they were trying to go through the staterooms and cabin, presumably to
