BLTYHE'S CORNERS.

Arrived too late for last week. The long continued wet weather which we have had for the past three weeks has hindered the farmers in this locality greatly with their work and consequently a large number who had intended putting in mangolds as usual have given up the notion, though greatly regretting to do so.

The crops in this section, particularly on the dry lands are looking immense. Fall wheat is heading out, the spring crop is very promising while the hay on new and second cutting will be very heavy, which all goes to bear out the old saying that "big crops may always be expected after a heavy winter's snow."

Miss Janet Marshall, daughter of Wm Marshall, formerly of Varney, who has been very low with diphtheria for 2 weeks, is, we are glad to report, considered out of danger now under the skillful treatment of Dr Brown, Holstein.

Mr Andrew McIlvride of Langdon, Alberta, is according to a letter received last week, in a very critical condition from the effects of typhoid fever, being 118 days in the hospital in Calgary. We sincerely hope that his life may be prolonged as his removal by death would be a heavy blow to his wife and 6 of a family in a comparatively new country.

Mr And Stewart lost a valuable steer the other day by getting its head caught in the panel of a fence & choking to death. Mr Colin Blythe will be a busy man when the hay season starts as he has about 130 acres of heavy hay to cut and secure.

Mr Jno Marshall Jr, is seriously threatened with appendicitis, according to the opinion of three doctors. Dr Brown is treating him with the hope of removing the trouble without the knife in which we hope he may be successful.

Mr Quintin Pettigrew is growing weaker day by day and the end of his earthly pilgrimage may be expected almost at any time.

Mr Reid and sister of Lucknow, Bruce Co, are visiting their cousin, Mrs James Watson, for a few days at present.

June seems to be a favorite month for marriages and so to be in keeping with others, one of our young bachelors has committed himself so entirely that a fine farm home between Varney and Durham will in all likelihood be the scene of a fashionable wedding on or about June 22nd. A wise step, G.

This Week's Budget.

During the flying thunderstorm on Wednesday last, lightning struck the gable end of Mr Keller's barn, who now owns and occupies the old Marshall homestead, but apart from tipping an axe rafter and knocking off a board there was no further harm done. Mr James Baird's span of horses also had a narrow escape, the lightning tipping up two stakes on the fence just a few feet from where they were standing attached to the plough. The new school house on the 12th Con., Normanby, was struck but no damage of any account was done, the school children who were occupied with their studies at the time were badly frightened.

Mr Keller is making a great improvement on his farm by erecting a fine wire fence on both sides of his lane, which like most German plans, runs past the house to the barn. A very sensible idea.

Mr Jas Peter, Sr., seems to be taking a new lease of life and is able to take a walk every day down their fine lane. We hope the old gentleman may continue to improve in health.

Miss Mary Ellen Hoeflin returned home from Toronto last Saturday to spend the summer months at home. Mary is an industrious, energetic girl, both with her hands and her brains, as in addition to earning her own living she has attended the College three nights in the week the past year with the exception of three months which she lost by sickness last winter. Nevertheless Mary succeeded in dividing honors with the cleverest in the College being 6 marks behind in one study and away ahead in another, and so now Miss Mary is a full fledged stenographer. Congratulations.

In our last week's budget, we hinted at a happy event which we inferred by observation would be likely to transpire on the 22nd, but we were just a week too previous. The invitation cards are out and so there is no conjecture on our part this trip.

IN CAMP AT NIAGARA.

After several delays on the way, at Hamilton and Niagara Falls—where a fine view of the famous gorge and a distant glimpse of the falls was had from the centre of the steel arch bridge—we finally arrived in the grove south of the common at 4.15. The weather here is fine, not much rain having fallen, while up home we had more than was required. Wednesday was hot enough, but not unbearable, to-day, Thursday, fine and cool, with a fine breeze blowing off the lake. The men are all in fine trim, and enjoying the outing so far.

The drill is entirely different this year every movement tending towards despatch and quickness. Instead of a detailed instruction to seize the bayonet in a certain position at the word 1, to draw it out at the word 2, place on rifle and lock at 3 and down with the arm at 4, it is now on the word "fix bayonets," seize it with left hand and place on rifle as smartly as possible. This is one instance of the change. The plan is to make the drill applicable as near as can be to cavalry and infantry alike, that the "Alphabet and the Grammar of the soldiers training shall be the same for him who marches as for him who rides." Drill has been simplified, rifle exercises, skinning, and other important work necessary to enable the soldier to act to the best advantage, is laid down in concise and easily acquired form. It causes some confusion of course to the officers, the mixing of the old with the new.

Menford Co. No 2, is the largest, having 35 men. Mr. Eastman, late principal of Priceville School, is orderly-Sergeant of this Co, and goes into it with his well known ardor and vim. We mutually enjoyed a stroll to Fort Mississauga and the rifle butts adjoining, which have been thoroughly repaired finally finishing up at prayer meeting and choir practice at Presbyterian Church, Fort George, and the historical relics in the Town Hall will be taken in some other evening.

Capt. E. K. Richardson, son of our present M. P. and late Capt of Flesherston Co, has resigned, and is now a Captain in the Field Artillery and likes it much better. The new drill book calls for 6 sergeants and 6 corporals in each Company, a change in this for every body. Companies are divided into sections of eight. No one in our company has yet received any intimation to take Dunderberg's place.

The total strength of the 31st this year is 201 men all told including 16 bandsmen. The rest are taken up by the staff officers and staff non-coms. A large body of cavalry and artillery are here this year numbering 1250 horses. What a magnificent sight such a number of man's noblest friend! and still better the legions of that better animal, man, in all youth, life and vigor, the promise of better pay has materialized, which must bear fruit in years to come, by placing the militia in a better standing, securing and retaining a steadier class of men.

Rev. Dean J. Ardill, chaplain of the Regt, is present in camp and is exercising a salutary influence in all ranks.

The Sergeants' mess is again in operation and a greater success this year than ever, some 34 sergeants, belonging to it.

The shooting at the miniature ranges took place on Thursday, Capt. Snider taking the highest score of the Co, with a total of 35 points from a possible 40. Sgt. Jas. Turner, No. 6 Co, living near Priceville, tops the score for the regiment, with 38 points, and Major Corrie of O Sound, tying with him.

Following is the score of Durham Co, with points in order of merit: Capt. Snider 35, Gordon 31, Saunders 29, McGillivray 28, Moore 24, Pte McComb 24, Willis 19, Reid 19, Turner 19, Burnet 18, Sgt. McDonald 16, McGinley 13, Arnold, Sgt Noble, Sgt. Lawrence, Vollet.

The picnic which was held in Wm Carson's grove on Friday last was a success in every way, the weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd, which was quite large, appeared to enjoy themselves. Mr. Miller (Jr.) was present, picking up peach nuts (votes) but appeared very innocent on the platform, from which he delivered a neat little speech quite in keeping with the occasion and received a hearty hand clap at the close. A foot ball match was played between a picked home team and a team from Ball's Corners, which resulted in a series of one for the visitors. Miss MacCracken, S. S. No 1, is handsome, winsome and is worthy of congratulations on the success of her school picnic.

Messrs Jack Hoeflin and John Douglass have each erected a windmill on their farms which sends the water up the steep hill to their buildings which will prove a great benefit to their stock and otherwise. Mr Wm Pender will follow suit providing their mills give satisfaction (Wm is cautious ye ken.)

Mr Wm Carson goes round these days with an elastic step "cause it is a son."

Mr Thos Gadd lost a valuable brood mare on Friday night last very suddenly. The foal which at a month old will have to be raised on cow's milk. We sympathize deeply with Thos in his loss, for a mare such as his is worth great money nowadays.

HOPEVILLE.

Fine weather here now. Mr. A. H. Burnett received word to go to Cayuga to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law.

Mr. Thos Natress, of Weston, a brother of Mrs J A Scarlett, paid them a visit.

There was almost $150 collected here for the Missions in India at the late meeting in the Hopeville church.

And, Watson has moved into his new house.

Mr W Hall, Jr., has moved into the house at the mill, made vacant by Watson.

BOOTHVILLE

Rev Mr Matheson preached Children's service Sunday afternoon. He took his text from Proverbs 8: 17.

Mrs Robt Knox, we are pleased to hear is improving nicely. Her son Willie is now out of danger from his blood-poisoning accident.

Mr John Campbell, Swinton Park, had the misfortune to have a horse fall dead on his way to Gaelic services in Priceville Sunday.

Mr Chas McQueen lost a valuable cow by lightning last Tuesday.

Miss Kate McConnell is on a visit from Toronto to see her sister, Mrs Ronald McDonald, of Drumore.

Mr Donald McFarlane, accompanied by his daughter Kate, visited Boothville friends last Sunday.

The picnic at Swinton Park last Friday, the 17th inst. was a good success. A football match between Holstein and the home team was won by the latter, who scored the only goal in a hard fought game.

We are pleased to hear of Mr Wm Kingman entering the ranks of the benedicts. Last Wednesday he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Lizzie McDonald, of Balsam Valley. (Balsam Valley scribbles will likely give full particulars. In the meantime we extend congratulations.)

Alex McLean is moving a barn for Jas Renwick, Brownsville.

County Court and General Sessions of the Peace.

N. MCINTYRE v. A. B. McARTHUR

The defendant had sold large quantities of timber to the plaintiff under verbal contracts during the years 1900, 1901 and 1902 and the plaintiff claimed $200 damages. The damage consisted in the timber being defective in quality and manufacture; in the fact that the plaintiff had to pay dead freight on the rejected ends which the defendant failed to have cut off; and in the improper skidding of the timber at the different railway stations.

The defendant on the other hand entered a counter claim for $252.00, alleged to be due him as the price of the said timber and the further sum of $12.00 for driving done for the plaintiff. On the trial, the counter claim was dismissed without costs.

The plaintiff succeeded in obtaining judgement on his claim for $120.00, and costs. A. G. MacKay and W. F. Dunn for plaintiff, J. P. Telford for defendant.

REX v HOY.

A case arising out of the uttering of valueless money. The jury returned a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy. Sentenced 6 mos. in Central Prison, less the time already served. MacKay & Dunn for the prisoner.
