OWN TOPICS

The daintiest, lowest priced, ladies' underwear you've seen is at Jas Ireland's.

Buy your Cement at the Big Store. The price must be right as we get all the big contracts.

The Parker Sale of thorough-bred Durhams was well attended, and some good prices were realized under Auctioneer Captain T. E. Robson's hammer.

Dromore and Hopeville merchants are asking their customers the very reasonable request to do their shopping before 7 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Early closing is now the prevailing practice.

THE EXCURSION.—Those who took in this popular event had splendid weather and all the usual courtesies of the authorities at the farm who have abundant practice in receiving large crowds. There was somewhat of a falling off this year in attendance.

Evgenont S. School workers, meet in Convention at Dromore, to-day, Wednesday, and their program, printed in this office, promises a successful convention. Messrs Geo. Lothian and John Sinclair are President and Secy respectively.

MOVING AT THE BUSY CORNER.—This week Messrs J. & J. Hunter are moving into their New Store on the opposite corner. After a few day's adjustment they will be in a position to welcome all old customers and many new ones. Up-to-date goods at fair prices, will still be their motto.

Reserved Seat Tickets are on sale at MacFarlane's for the Great Rink Concert. Only 35c. Those who wish, (and there are many) to avoid the crowd should secure one or more at once. The management, as we said last week, have adopted this plan by request from several quarters.

IMPROVED BASEMENT.—Carpenter Williamson having finished his part of the work in the Pres. Church basement, painting and papering is now in progress. The work is well done and brings the under part into harmony with the beautiful auditorium. Next Tuesday under the combined attraction of Presbytery meeting, Young People's Union and Rev. Mr. Glassford's lecture on the Holy Land, from which he lately returned, there will certainly be a crowd.

HOUSE OF REFUGE.—Markdale last Friday had a gala day over the formal opening of the new County building. Very appropriately the County Council met there, several of our members of Parliament and other public men, and with appropriate speeches and ceremony "opened" the building, whose usefulness none now seems to question. Great regrets were felt at the accident just the day before to Mr. Harness, the president, which prevented him from chairing the visitors. Same day Markdale lacrosse team won glory over Dundalk. Next week we shall have a fuller notice.

Ninety candidates are writing on the popular "Entrance" examination this week. Inspector Campbell is presiding, assisted by Misses Forfar and Meredith. Considerable interest is being taken on who is to be the winner of the Gordon medal, or rather medals, for there is one for each centre. This is we believe the largest number ever writing here at one time. Flesherston and Dundalk have about 40 each, Markdale and Hanover 30, Neustadt about 5. Insp. Campbell informs us 25 more candidates applied for Entrance in S. Grey than ever before. A growing time. Papers we have seen seem fair.

GOOD BYE TO REV. MR. SMITH.—Sunday last the Methodist body here, bade official farewell to their minister, Rev. Wray R. Smith, after a very successful four years' connection as pastor and people. During his term all round progress has been made and he and his worthy partner leave many warm friends behind them. During the four years the membership of the church increased over 70, some important improvements were made on the building, and above all Mr. Smith will be remembered in League circles for his interesting talks and the sympathetic part he took in all their affairs. Very hearty good wishes follow him to Arthur, and by many outside of his own church. While bidding good bye to the old, we heartily welcome the new incumbent, Rev. Mr. Colling, and hope he may be a powerful factor in the community among the forces that make for righteousness.

The members of the I. O. F. to the member of over 60 attended Divine Service in the Methodist Church last Sunday morning and listened to an appropriate sermon by Rev. Wray R. Smith, himself a member of the order. He showed how the principle of brotherhood was as old as the time of Joshua and before it, and commended the fraternal spirit as exemplified in modern organizations. He referred to the splendid financial record of the order before him, pointing out how millions had been spent in the support of widowhood and orphanhood, and still there was room for pride in the millions still in reserve. It is interesting to learn that one early member of Court Durham, Mr. Arch Sinclair, Harriston, having reached the age of 70, received last week from Secy Wm Johnston a check for $100, the first of ten similar annual payments for every $1000 insurance carried. On returning to the Court room, Chief Ganger McClockler introduced the subject of the Foresters' Orphan's Home, a new charity lately founded for the children of Foresters, and a substantial collection was taken up on its behalf.

Hammocks, Croquet and other sporting goods, at MacFarlane's Drug Store.

Hear about those men's shirts, 10 doz. of them, that Jas. Ireland is selling at 60 cts?

REMEMBER—That the Durham Post Office will be open only one hour—from 6 to 7 p. m., Dominion Day.

GARDEN PARTY.—One of the popular Baptist Garden Parties will be held on Mrs. Warner's grounds on Thursday evening, July 7th.

Dr. Burt will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, for consultation in eye, ear, nose and throat, cases on Wednesday, July 6th, hours 10 to 4 p. m. Eyes tested and glasses fitted.

FIRST RINK CONCERT.—JULY 1.—A fine new platform has been placed in the rink, and other features added to adapt it for the High class concert to be held on above date. The floor, nicely covered with sawdust, the committee guarantees won't give way. Admission 25 cts. A few Reserved seats, 35 cts. At MacFarlane's.

Students of the International Correspondence School and their friends who intend visiting the St. Louis Exposition, will please communicate with J. W. McKay, the local representative, Box 441, Harriston, Ont., for certificate entitling them to privileges of the Guild Hall erected on the grounds by the Schools at a cost of $2200 for the accommodation of students and their friends.

A WEARY TRIP.—Capt. Snider and No 4 Co. got home from Niagara Camp about 2:30 last Sunday morning. The delay was occasioned at Niagara where the duties kept them late for the boat, and missing the regular train had to be brought home on a special, which also did some slow freight handling. The boys were tired and wearied and it was a pretty good brand of loyalty that could smile and line up manfully at the untimely hour, with no welcoming reception. They were in general, pleased with their treatment, but complained of a wearisome march of 8 or 9 miles out and return on Friday last, a hot day. An incident, which caused a bitter feeling occurred to a company of their comrades and were in turn making water, thirst when the order to "fall in" was given and not being as promptly obeyed as their commander thought, he was brute enough to kick the pail over. Elsewhere we have some notes reflecting on camp life. The Dundonald incident was an affair of the papers and the politicians and seems not to have affected the masses of the 5000.

With this issue we complete ten years of editorial connection with the REVIEW. During that period we have received from a host of friends many tokens of encouragement for which at this juncture time, we wish heartily to say "Thank You." To our subscribers and advertisers and patrons of all kinds who have enabled us to build up the REVIEW and this printing establishment to a point never before reached in its history in circulation and usefulness, we have to say that it will be our aim in the future as in the past to serve them with all due diligence, placing at their service an increased experience, and an office thoroughly equipped for all kinds of work usually done in a country town.

We step out on the journey of a second ten years with renewed courage and confidence. Not a few of those who started with us ten years ago have paid the debt of nature. To the hundreds who started with us then and to the hundreds who have joined us since and who yet are with us, we welcome your companionship again. We hope for many years to journey together, each proving helpful to the other, and that we may be joined by many others as the years go by.

To our correspondents who have so well reflected the life of their districts, we have special thanks. We hope to have them still with us and long with us and would be glad to welcome a few more from districts at present unrepresented.

Best wishes for prosperity,

MIDNIGHT FIRE.

Middaugh House Stables Burned.

Tuesday morning about 1:30 citizens were roused from their slumbers by the alarm of "fire" given on shrieking whistles and clanging bell. The blaze was located by the illumination and its proximity to the big hotel caused no little anxiety.

The fire started in an old stable of Mr. McIntyre's behind Burnet Bros' Store, it quickly spread to the frame stable of John Nichol which was seen to be doomed, from there it got into the Middaugh House Stables, and finding there lay and combustibles it was soon from end to end a blazing furnace, but not before the horses had been safely removed. Willing hands helped to remove John Livingstone's goods from the McKeechic building,—for to save it seemed to be doubtful,—others on roofs were watching and warding off incipient blazes.

Meanwhile the brigade had arrived and in quick time had the engine placed and throwing water, and it was soon seen that the fire was under control. The efficiency of the brigade was very marked and their work with engine and hose was commendable. What is wanted is an electric alarm system to give instant notice of fires, and thus catch them in an earlier stage.

Fortunately there was little wind and the front walls of the stable proved an excellent preventive. One shudderer to think what might have been had a high wind prevailed. The implement shop was on fire several times, but well directed streams always saved it.

The Cause? Unknown, but supposed to be the work of drunken carousers, careless in the use of matches. Mayor Hunter is taking steps to have an investigation and there seems to be an impression that some stern measures will have to be taken to round up a class of roysterers whose habits are a menace to life and property as well as to society.

STANDARD BANK OF CANADA.

"The 20 Annual meeting of the Standard Bank of Canada held at Toronto on 15th inst., received a Report and Statement to which we invite attention, as published on another page.

The Standard has had a singularly successful career. It has gone on steadily enlarging its business, acquiring more and more of public confidence, until it is in such a position as enabled it to earn profits equal to 18.30 per cent, of the paid-up capital. This goes much above the average earnings of our banks who are quite satisfied if they make 10 or 12 per cent. The bank's capital being $1,000,000, and the current loans and discounts, $10,425,900, it is evident that a moderate profit on this amount of loans yields a very handsome one on the capital. Two per cent on $10,425,900 is $208,518, which is over 20 per cent on $1,000,000, the amount of the Standard's paid up capital. The funds for this large amount of discounts are mainly derived from deposits, which are placed with the Standard so generally because of the trust reposed in the management of Mr. Geo. P. Reid, and the wise oversight exercised by Mr. W. F. Cowan, President, and his co-directors.

The profits, $183,007, were augmented by $14,506, brought forward from last year making a total of $197,513 for distribution as follows: Two half yearly divisions of 5 per cent each, $100,000; transfer to reserve fund, $75,000; leaving $22,513 to be carried forward to next year. The reserve fund is now equal to the capital. The Standard bank occupies a very high position amongst our chartered banks for sagacity in management and steady development in strength.—Canadian Journal of Commerce.
