A report from its correspondent at Tashichao appears in the St. Petersburg Bourse Gazette, recording that the Japanese drove the Russians from Dolin Pass. It is impossible to decide to which pass this refers. The correspondent says that Gen. Kuroki seems to have abandoned his plan of operations. Instead of making a flanking movement he made a direct attack on Dolin Pass on Sunday with 27 battalions. The Russians held their own against 30,000 Japanese. Gen.
