ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On the last day of the school term, Mr John A. Graham received a tribute from long remember. The address below tells Miss L. M. Forfar left Saturday for the story. It was read by Wm Morice. her home in Ellesmere, near Toronto. and the presentation made by Fred

Mountain and Della Vollett:

It was with true feelings of regret and sur-prise that we learned a short time ago of your intention to sever your connection with us at school For the past three years you have ever been kind in looking after our mental requirements. forbearing with us in our weakness, indulgent with us in our waywardness and wrong-doings Your government has been the personification of kindness, and the kindly spirit in which you governed us in the way of right and righteousness have stamped on our young minds an appreciation for the enviable reputation you bear as a teacher and high class disciplinarian. Always strict but never harsh, we respect your manner of government. You tried to be one of us, and one with us and lacking as you do that spirit of dogmatism which so often breeds antipathy, we learned obe-dience from pleasure and duty rather than fear Misses E. R. and E. C. Livingston are and the dread of punishment.

We have not always been what we should have been but any opposition we may have shown to your authority has been tempered with respect and a feeling of esteem. We knew your highest Mrs. Chas, Smith and Miss Jennie Dix- and best interests were for our advancement, and the results of your work are sufficient evidence of

Now that we are about to part, perhaps never again to stand in the relation of teacher and pupils, we beg of you to accept this small token of to remind you of your sojourn here. The watchchain is for yourself and the butter cooler we trust may long be of service to your "better half" at home. Wishing you long life and continued prosperity wherever you may go, we remain, your affectionate pupils.

Signed in behalf of the school, Margaret Petty. Selina R. Hopkins, John Lawrence.

HARDWARE!

We have not had Sports on the 1st of July in Durham for four or five years. At that time we found a "Snake-in-the-Grass" circulating false reports, and working against the welfare of the cause. which disgusted the promotors so much that there was no attempt to get up sports again until this year. We found the same 'Snake" with some assistants, doing their work directly against the interests of W Black, (while he was busily engaged helping to make the 1st of July, 1904 Sports what they proved to be, the best ever held in Durham) but although the jealous, no good for any town, sore heads used their best endeavors to injure, the could not prevent the crowds from thronging to the establishment where customers feel they can get the worth of their money, and everything they require in the Hardware line
