HENRY'S CORNER.

This community heard with great regret of the severe trial Mr. and Mrs. Jonty Long had to endure by the death of their child one year old. It had swallowed some object, not known what, and it was taken to Listowel to be treated with X-rays to ascertain if it could be located. This failed and the child was brought home and died on Thursday last. The funeral took place on Saturday. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

The beef-ring is in full blast and giving satisfaction. R. Benwick last week contributed his best which dressed 630 lbs., the largest ever butcher Thompson cut up.

Jas Boakes has completed the foundation under Reid's barn, which was jacked up this summer.

Ladies' Institute met at David Hamilton's at the lake on Thursday. The largest meeting yet held; 45 ladies and about a dozen men.
