WEDDING BELLS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Webber, Lower Town, was the scene of a very pleasant event on Wednesday evening, August 17th, when their niece Miss Cassie McGillivray, daughter of Mr. Neil McGillivray, Glenelg, became the bride of Mr. Dan McArthur, of Bunessan, one of Glenelg's most popular and prosperous young men. Shortly after 6 o'clock the wedding march was played by Mrs. Newton and the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Lottie Beaton, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Jno. McArthur.

The bride looked very pretty in a dress of white organdie, with transparent yoke of white lace, white asters being worn in her bodice and hair, while the bridesmaid was charming in a dress of pale blue colienne, with yoke of cream lace.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Newton, after which all sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner. The guests numbered about twenty, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. The evening was spent in social chat and music, everyone enjoying the talented playing of Mrs. Newton, while her sweet Scottish songs were eagerly requested over and over again.

Many costly and useful presents attended to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. McArthur left for a trip to Guelph, London and other points. The bride's travelling dress was a suit of dark brown with cream silk waist and white chiffon hat.

Wednesday, Aug. 17, the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Leeson, "Rose Hill," near Varney, was the scene of a pretty wedding, their only daughter, accomplished youngest daughter, Lillie May, becoming the wife of Mr. Albert McClinton, an industrious young man well-known around here and grandson of the shoemaker McClinton who gave the name to "McClinton's Corners" south of town.

The ceremony took place on the lawn in front of the house, amidst the beautiful floral surroundings, which mark the aesthetic tastes of Mrs. Leeson and her daughters. Sunny skies and ideal bridal weather prevailed all day, and at 4 p. m. Rev. Mr. Masson of the Varney circuit officiating, the bride appeared accompanied by her father and took her place beside her lover, where the vows were taken that made them man and wife.

Hearty congratulations followed from over 100 friends and neighbors, there being present from a distance the three Misses Bourne, Grand Valley, cousins of the bride, Mrs. (Dr.) G. M. Leeson, Wanatah, Indiana, and 3 children, Miss Sullivan, a bright and attractive young lady friend of the family in Indiana and making her first visit to Canada, Dr. Ernest Leeson, Chicago, brother of the bride and his young son, Ernest W.

The bride was prettily attired in a dress of cream glorio silk with a bridal veil, asters in her hair and carried a bouquet of beautiful roses. Her sister Miss Eleanor, acted as bridesmaid and looked attractive in a gown of pink muslin, and carried a bouquet of white phlox. The groom was supported by Mr. Walter McCrie and the party were prettily attended by little Miss Margaret Leeson and her cousin Master Ernest as flower bearers. The bride's going away dress was of red cheviot, with white silk tucked yoke and trimmed with applique.

Ample and toothsome refreshments were served on the lawn and in the storey and a beautifully decorated four-wheeled buggy, the work of the bride, was voted as agreeable to the palate as the ornaments were to the eye.

The house in every nook and corner spoke floral welcome as warmly as the hosts and the company spent a very pleasant evening in music and healthy recreation.

Rice was showered on them and into the buggy as they were leaving home, to accentuate the good wishes of many friends.

The happy couple have since taken up housekeeping in Durham; the Review welcomes them to our citizenship and wishes once more long life and prosperity to Mr. and Mrs. McClinton.

The presents were rarely excellent and useful, quite a number coming from Indiana, and some still stranded in the Custom House. There number is evident by the following list: Oil stove with kettle, lemonade set, tea-pot, two towels and tray cloth to match, five linen table cloths, mantle cloth, fancy china cracker jar, 1/2 doz. bread and butter plates, 2 china fruit dishes with salad dishes, fancy cake plate, china bread tray, 2 glass fruit sets, 1 cheese dish, china cream pitcher, 2 glass water pitchers, 2 china water pitchers, glass tea set, paper rack, large chenille table cover, oil-cloth set, souvenir purse, 2 pair towels, 2 colored table spreads, 1/2 doz. dinner napkins, 1/2 bottle, double rice boiler, preserving kettle and spoon with potato masher, bed spread, cut glass fruit basket, bread board and knife, mirror, centre piece, 3 sets smoothing irons, 2 fancy handkerchiefs, Jardiner with plant in blossom, large rocking chair, and a smaller one, upholstered rocker, bamboo easel, large framed picture, battenburg sofa pillow, silver pickle jar, silver cake basket, doz. tea spoons, 1/2 doz. dessert spoons, 3 table spoons, 1 doz. knives and one of Indiana, butter knife and sugar shell, nut set, 2 butter knives, 2 silver cold meat forks, fancy china tea set, doz. dinner plates.

The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a pair of kid gloves, to the groomsmen a tie and pair of cuff buttons. The bridal roses, imported, were also a present from him.
