

DORNOCH.

"It with pleasure we welcome back to the burg Mr Thos Campbell, who for the past six months, has filled a lucrative position in Minnesota.

The winning personality of Miss Minnie Robertson again enlivens the social circles as she having arrived last week from the Forest City.

Messrs Thos McIntosh and Wesley Folli of the County Town, Sundayed in the burg the guests of Mr Alex McIntosh.

Cameron B McIntosh who spent the summer vacation at his home in the burg, left on Thursday to resume his duties as principal of Athens High School.

Miss Host O'Mara left on Tuesday to attend the Toronto Exhibition. He was accompanied by his nephew, Barnet Vasey a graduate of the Northern Business College who goes to fill a lucrative position in Sudbury.

Mr R B Levingham a student of Knox College, is spending a few holidays with friends in the burg and community.

Labor Day was fittingly observed in the burg. Horse Racing, Golf, Football and Trapze performances were the chief attractions of the day. In the evening local talent held a concert in the Town Hall and rendered several efficient selections including the drama entitled "As you like it."

NORTH EGREMONT.

Mr and Mrs Will Burnett of Engleline, Mich., are paying a few weeks visit to the latter's mother, Mrs Joseph Hooper, S. Glenelg, and are taking in the Toronto Exhibition together with Messrs Henry and Jas. Hooper and sister Sarah.

Miss Jane Reid after a prolonged absence in N. Y. State and elsewhere is just now on a visit to her relatives, Mr and Mrs Peter Reid, and is just as attractive as in the early days of the Dornoch Choir when she was one of its valued members.

Mr and Mrs Wm Tucker and Mrs Robt Baxter and Mrs I Hooper are also expectant visitors to the great National Exposition.

The neighborhood was greatly grieved to learn of the sudden death of Miss Bell Ferguson in her 21st year from cerebral trouble (abscess on the brain.) The deceased young lady was of a most estimable character, beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Though ailing slightly for some time back with what appeared to be an ordinary headache she still attended to her duties, no alarm being felt. She was taken last Sunday to the hospital in Hamilton where the end came as above stated, within 24 hours after her admission. Rev Mr Campbell conducted the funeral service and feelingly referred to the earnest christian character of the deceased. Her brother Jas, and cousin J. C. Adams went to Hamilton where they were met by Miss Rachel F. from Akron, Ohio and who brought the body home encased in a beautiful cream colored figured plush casket, being met at Holstein by undertaker McMillan, Dornoch and many of the friends and neighbors and conveyed to her mother's home, Mrs Thos Ferguson. The funeral took place on the day following Wed. Aug. 31, and notwithstanding the busy time, was a very large one, amply testifying to the respect and esteem held alike for the living and the dead. The pall-bearers were Wm Isaac, Victor Adams, Wm Allan Jr, Frank Adams, John Henry and Jas Brown. The coffin was covered with many beautiful floral tokens of respect including one from the household in Hamilton where she lived. It will be recalled her father died some six years ago from blood poisoning, arising from the vicious attack of a hog. The bereaved have the sympathy of the entire community.

Miss Maggie Baxter after a two week's visit to her mother left on Saturday for Toronto where she will stay for a few days before returning to Buffalo. She was accompanied by her nephew master Arthur Walton.

Mr D Hamilton and Mrs And Picken left last week for the Exhibition.

The men at the Lake Dredge enjoyed a whole day's rest on Sunday last, owing to repairs to Locomotive in the matter of flues.

Miss Kate Dixon is spending a week with her grandmother in Durham.

DORNORE.

The Harvest is progressing slowly owing to the wet weather. A week of fine weather would put quite a number through the crop, which on the whole will not be so large as last year; rust on the early oats has done a good deal of damage in many places. Fall wheat owing to rust is a very poor quality, also a very poor yield.

Well Mr Ed. there is not very much news as everybody is busy this summer. Holiday visitors have all returned to their homes.

Miss Maggie McIntyre who has been visiting with the Luthian family returned to her home in Priceville last week.

Misses Loughton and Spence who have been visiting their uncle and aunt and cousins here, the Leack and Loughton home, left last week for their home in Brantford.

Mr and Mrs J. M. Findlay returned from their driving tour on Saturday after having taken in Owen Sound, Meaford and Thornbury, hence home and report a very pleasant trip.

Mr Robert Taylor had a slight attack of appendicitis last week, but under Dr Swath's care, we are pleased to say is almost himself again.

Miss Jennet Hay and Miss Bella Luthian leave this week to take in the great fair at the city; quite a number more are talking of going.

Mr P Sterne, our faithful mail carrier, while waiting for the mail bag at Teovil met with what might have been a more serious case, an advertising agent came along and tied his horse to the post of Mr Banston's store verandah, the horse began to pull back taking the post with him and down came the verandah and scared Mr Sterne's team causing them to run away; they were caught before going far. Not much damage was done with the exception of the smashing of a crate of eggs belonging to Mr Findlay. This is another of the many warnings which people get, not to tie their horses to verandah posts.

Mr and Mrs Wm Hastie of Egerton were renewing old acquaintances here over Sunday.

ROB ROY

Miss Jennie McFarlane of Boothville accompanied by her aunt Mrs Marshall are visiting the former's parents for a week at present.

Mrs Peters of — is visiting her sister Mrs Alex Firth of the Corners.

Miss Elsie McCoskery formerly of Rob Roy but now of Rochester is the guest of her sister Mrs Allan Campbell of the North Line.

Miss Mary Binnie of Glenelg Centre visited at T McComb's on Monday last.

Miss Annie McArthur who has been sick for some time is improving rapidly and we hope to see her soon in robust health.

Miss Mary Kennedy of Toronto who has spent 3 weeks with her parents returned last Tuesday.

Mr Wm Harvey of the National Portland Cement Co of Durham spent a couple of days in this burg of late and treated some of the inhabitants to some fine selections on his graphophone. Come again "Bill".

Albert McFadden, Alec McComb, Dan McFadden, and Grant McComb spent the holiday round the corners.

Well Mr Editor as news is scarce will wind up for this time. Will try and have more next.

CATTLE STRAYED.

From Lot 1 of 24, Con. 1, Sullivan, two miles North of Dornoch, about August 9th, a pair of year-old steers; one spotted light red and white, other dark red with a few spots of white. Information that will lead to their recovery will suitably be rewarded. 34-3 W.M. DAVEY, Prop.

THE NEW GOVERNOR GENERAL.

As we surmised last week King Edward has given sanction to the appointment of Earl Grey as Governor-General of Canada for the next term. He is 53 yrs. of age, was a member of the House of Commons for years and has diplomatic experience. On the failure of the Jameson raid in S. Africa, Earl Grey succeeded him as Administrator, and filled the important position at a critical time with credit to himself. He is a grandson of the Earl Grey who was premier at the passing of the Reform Bill in 1832, and a brother to Lady Minto, wife of the present Governor-General.

Earl Grey has a fad and a useful one and will find scope here for its use. An extract from the Montreal Witness puts the matter clearly: "Earl Grey's share in the administration of an important portion of the empire does not bulk so largely in the public mind in England as the work he has been doing in connection with public-houses. He has taken up most energetically and enthusiastically and with much organizing ability the scheme of reformed public-houses of which the Bishop of Chester was the pioneer in England. The Public House Trust Association, which he started, considers that public-houses are a public necessity, and in regulating and reforming them it aims at eliminating the element of private profit from the retail trade in intoxicating drink. The association has promoted local companies in England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and there 114 public-houses managed on the principle of deriving no private profit from the sale of intoxicants, managers, however, reserving a commission on the sale of tea, coffee, temperance drinks and food supplied by them. The trust public-houses are in short, houses of refreshment, not drinking bars. In the promotion of the scheme in which he strongly believes Earl Grey has been indefatigable. He has addressed meetings all over the country in its support, and has shown powers of organization which have gone far to secure what success the movement has attained. As a speaker he does not strive after oratorical effect, but his addresses are impressive from the obvious sincerity and conviction with which he speaks."
