We beg to acknowledge receipt of a complimentary Press Pass to Stratford Horse Show, to be held Friday and Saturday of this week.

A NEW BELLER.—The Furniture Factory has closed down for a few days to allow of the installation of two new boilers. This is an evidence of growing business.

Don't forget East Grey Show Fair at Esherton next week. Tuesday and Wednesday, 27th and 28th inst. It promises being best fair of the Society, hence everybody should attend.

Thanksgiving Day has been fixed for Thursday, Nov. 17. Too late, but then it is expected the elections will be over by that time, and that will be something to be thankful for.

DO IT NOW.—Not to make "two bites of a sherry," we offer the REVIEW to New Subscribers to Jan. 1, 1905 for 25 cts. Only a quarter, but what a quarter's worth to that friend of yours, either at home or abroad.

A NEW MEMBER.—The last number of "Industrial Canada" published by the Manufacturers' Association, has among its list of new members the name of the "Durham Manufacturing Co., Limited, Cream Separators."

HOUSE TO RENT.—The northern portion of the McKechnie block, Upper Town, (late occupied by Mr. John Ehrhardt), 3 rooms, splendid cellar, furnace, almost new, good well, &c. Apply to the proprietors, N. G. & J. McKECHNIE.

THE SHOW.—Everything promises well for the Show to-day, Wednesday and tomorrow. Entries have come in rapidly and the demand for space in the building exceeds what the Directors can give. The management have been active to have the fair at all points a worthy one, and we hope good weather and good crowds will reward them.

A BUSY PASTOR.—Rev. Mr. Farquharson is attending Presbytery at Harrison, to-day, Tuesday. Afternoon and evening he takes a run to Wroxeter, to attend a Y. People's Presbyterial Convention there, being down for a topic, and expects to get home to-night. Friday he preaches sacramental preparatory sermons at Priceville and Swinton Park.

Egremont Show. "The World's Fair" takes place this year on Thursday, Sept. 27, and it is expected all the successes and perhaps more, of former years is to be repeated. Over 2000 people turn out to this year's officers seem determined to maintain its splendid reputation. Send or call on Secy. Treas. and Com. Holstein for a Prize List. The School Drill competition so successful last year is to be repeated.

GOING BAREHEADED.—Going bareheaded is becoming a fad with women in more places than Brooklyn. Perhaps it is a sign of returning sense, and that they think it better to abandon headgear altogether, so have such an apology for a hat as they have been wearing stuck away above their head like an umbrella. Bareheaded women are now seen not only in the outer residence districts and in the parks, but riding in the street-cars and in the business section of "Fulton" street at night. Whole parties of young women go to Coney Island without hats, and it is getting so common that no one seems to take any particular notice of it.—Ex.

ANOTHER CEMENT INDUSTRY.—Very quietly a start has been made in the making of Cement bricks in town and so satisfactory has been the result that the public will soon hear more of the "National Cement Brick and Block Co." whose initiatory plant and workshop is at present to be found near Mr. John Williams' residence on Elgin St. A chimney has already been built with them most satisfactorily, and it is the intention to go into the business on a large scale. Bricks of excellent quality can be supplied as cheap as the clay material, and moulds are being secured to make window and door sills and many other set pieces where strength and durability are required. Options have already been recured on some sand hills the cement can be obtained close by, water there is a plenty, and the requisite skill in mixing and applying the pressure is all that is needed.

THE CATACOMBS.—Mrs. De Touff Lauder on Monday evening last under the auspices of the Presbyterian Guild gave an excellent lecture on the above subject. She has travelled in the Holy Land and lived a year in Rome and her observant and cultured mind has made her thoroughly conversant with "The Land and the Book." In her English she discussed the times of the Apostles, the trials and troubles of the early Christians, the persecution under the monster Nero, the first of ten Christian persecutions. The great excavations, called catacombs, made for securing the dead bodies of Christian friends were graphically described and a hurried sketch given of the gloomy time till Constantine the first Christian Emperor, an Englishman born, turned the tide. Mrs. Lauder is a decidedly interesting speaker, a scholarly lady, and the Society feels much indebted to her for her efforts. A cordial vote of thanks was given her. Mr. Drysdale the sweet Scottish singer, sang a fine solo.

Fine Weather for the first day of the Fall and lots of entries. Settled like for to-morrow.

Mr. Fred A. Lewis, piano tuner of Berlin expects to be in Durham about the last of October.

THE People's Mills have constantly on hand all kinds of feed, especially No. 1 Mixed Chop at $20 per ton. Also Flour, Rolled Oats, Wheatlets, at right prices.—J. & W. MCGOWAN.

The Rev. H. E. Bray of Hanover will conduct the Harvest Thanksgiving services, and preach special sermons on Sunday next in Trinity Church, Durham, morning and evening, and at Allan's School House in the afternoon.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Thos. Orchard, Holstein, over the loss of his wife who died very suddenly last Friday. The funeral on Sunday to Mt. Forest cemetery was a very large one.

The Famous Canadian Jubilee Singers are coming: Their fame precedes them and the Town Hall should be filled on Monday the 26th inst. They have sung before the Royalties and critical audiences have given them great praise. They come under the auspices of the I. O. F.

A grand concert at night at which appears Fax, Jimmy Gardner, Mrs. Coult's-Bain and Piper P. McArthur. Remember the date.

A RELIC.—We call the following from the Wroxeter Star published by Mr. B. H. Townsend, long proprietor of the Review. His brother, Mr. Joseph Townsend, founded the "Dundalk Guide" back in the 70's, which was afterwards turned into the "Grey Review": "That axe of ours hasn't come home yet. It's hardly worth returning it to its accustomed place round the Star office door, where it was very useful to the neighbors. That old axe came to Proton nearly 30 years ago as a pioneer to cut down the Proton swamps but fate threw it into the hands of the printers, and it has since followed the profession of splitting the hardest knots in the wood pile, and many a hard rock has it met. Although a little dull, by having its youth renewed with new handles occasionally, it was a very useful old keepsake. In fact, after turning the gauntlet of Dundalk, Durham, etc., to go astray in the "virtuous" little town of Wroxeter might break its iron heart."

CEMENT MILL CHANGES.

For months back it has been known in certain quarters that the Directors of the National Portland Cement Co. have had before them proposals for certain improvements to the rotaries, which, without using more coal or labor would increase the output by 25 barrels per rotary per day. These proposals came from an engineer at Ottawa and were supported by a majority of the Board.

To produce this desirable result, a financial consideration of $18000, Director McKechnie informs us, was first asked, but later, the Board accepted an offer of $12000, payable in instalments, safeguarding themselves by a guarantee for its success, amounting to $5000, assumed we understand by Messrs Calder, Durham, Stanhope, Toronto, McWilliam, Owen, Soud. This guarantee was placed in the hands of Banker Scott of Listowel, one of the Board, a proceeding which led Director McKechnie to put in his resignation as Treasurer of the Company.

A day was fixed upon for making a test prior to the initiation of any improvements, the engineer from Ottawa being present. A time limit was set for the completion of the changes on one rotary, at which time a test was again to be taken, and if 25 barrels more of clinkers of equal quality, under equal conditions were produced, the work was to go on at all the rotaries. The time limit ran out before the work was done and the Board granted an extension of 10 days more. The work went on, and on Monday of this week, in the presence of the "parties of both parts," the test took place.

We have refrained hitherto, from saying a word till this was done, but when it is alleged openly that the test failed, we give the facts as we know them. The test it seems failed at three points: actually fewer barrels were turned out, the clinker was of inferior quality, and more coal was consumed. This it would seem is a result, decisive enough, and shareholders are now assured that the mill is once more running along the same lines as before the test, and turning out as much as, or more than the grinders can grind. The expense incurred in the attempted improvements comes, we believe, out of the guarantee fund in the hands of the Directors.

It is satisfactory to know that orders enough are on hand to keep them busy for months; the "National Brand" is winning its way into public esteem and though there is little prospect of dividends this year owing to the initiatory mistakes and misfortunes of 1903, it is satisfactory to be informed that the mill can be run at a profit and has been so run during 1904.

President Cowham and the Directors have upon them a great trust, which we hope to see successfully handled and the faith of the shareholders justified by results.
