

Ayer's
 Impure blood always shows somewhere. If the skin, then boils, pimples, rashes. If the nerves, then neuralgia, nervousness, depression. If the Sarsaparilla
 stomach, then dyspepsia, biliousness, loss of appetite.
 Your doctor knows the remedy, used for 60 years.

Returning from the Cuban war, I was a perfect wreck. My blood was bad, and my health was gone. But a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla completely cured me.

SCOTCH TOWN

After an absence of 8 years from our burg Mr Mal Black is home on a short vacation. Mr Black is head cook for a large railroad contractor and has spent the past few years in Winnipeg and elsewhere in Manitoba and is going back this week to continue their great work on the new branch of railway which is in operation near Toronto.

Mrs John A McMillan has returned from Woodstock after a few weeks visit with friends and while there she attended the funeral of her nephew, Dan McDonald aged about 20 years.
 The McDonald family were formerly residents of the 10th con. Glenelg. We extend our sympathy to their many friends and family in their sore affliction.

Warden Murchison and Dan Mc-Millan both had pea pulling bees on Saturday.

Mr and Mrs John J Black gave a large party on Friday evening in honor of their brother Mack. There were about 60 guests present and all enjoyed themselves to hearts content.
 The Black Bros, Poma, John Meagher and Thos McKeown furnished good music. There were many Gaelic songs, Scotch reel step dancing, etc.

Weddings galore. We learn that Miss Jessie A McGinnis and Mr Listowel are to be united this week, also Miss Effie McDonald and Mr John McGrath all of Poma and last but not least Archie Beaton and Miss Lizzie Boak of King Township. We join in congratulations and would like to see particulars from other quarters.

Mrs Robt McGowan who has spent the past fortnight with her sister Mrs Hugh McLellan leaves this week for her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs G K Heartwell returned on Saturday after a few weeks visit with friends in Hamilton and at Toronto Exhibition and reports a very enjoyable time.

Messrs Dan and Hughie McGinnis attended the London Fair last week.

The McArthur bros of the 4th with their attraction thrashing outfit are hustling things in our burg at present.

Mrs John McPherson is on the sick list at present.

Edge Hill

Miss Wametta Stover of Buffalo, spent the latter part of last week visiting friends in this part.

Miss Maggie Ector attended the Exhibition in Toronto last week.

Mr and Mrs J H McFayden visited friends above Glenroaden one day lately.

Miss Annie Staples visited friends in Durham for a few days last week.

The Prayer Meeting held in the Grange Hall last Tuesday night by the Rev Mr Farquharson was very well attended.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Hebert Banks nephew of Mr Rich Banks of Missouri. He was 23 years of age and his remains were taken to Missouri for interment.

Mrs George Aljoe and son Alex are at present visiting friends in Owen Sound.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Firth and niece Miss May Spittle visited friends in London and took in the Exhibition while there.

Mr and Mrs Wm Ritchie visited friends in Greenock for a few days last week.

Mr Wm Weir had a successful paring-bee one night last week.

HOPEVILLE.

J. McArdle was at Markdale last week.

Quite a number from here attended the great Toronto Fair and tell wonderful tales about the sights they saw in the City.

The Independent Telephone line from Holstein by Yeovil, Dromore, Swinton Park, Hopeville and Cedarville, appears to be dead or at least we do not hear of much doing. There was only a few shares subscribed for.
 Some were suspicious.

Mr Lee, the Presbyterian Student here, and Mrs Lee had a pleasant trip and two weeks stay in New York.
 Mr Lee goes this week to the Presbyterian Presbytery at Harrison.

The harvest is done here and the thrashing machine is busy.

PRICEVILLE.

This week we find it again our duty to give a short sketch of the lives of two of the veterans of Glenelg, who have passed away inside of one week. In giving a backward look at those familiar old faces, who cheered the homes of many a few years ago, we find to-day that very few there are left to greet us now when we visit those homes that are bereft of the dear old fathers or mothers.
 The old landmarks are removed and we have every reason to hope that they are now planted on the everlasting soil of the Heavenly Cannan.

Mrs. McLEAN.

On Wednesday night at 11.30, Sept 14, 1904, there passed away Catherine Black, relict of the late Hector McLean, at the age of seventy-eight years, after a brief illness from paralysis and apoplexy.
 On Sunday the 11th inst. she retired to her bed in her usual health and during the night was seized with total paralysis, from which she never regained consciousness. Mrs McLean emigrated to this country in the year 1845 from her native country, Scotland, and from the Isle of Mull in that country. She lived for some time in the Township of Vaughan, County York. She, with her husband, moved to the County of Grey in the Fall of 1850, settling on Lot No 24, on the old Durham Road, Glenelg, now the property of A. B. McArthur. She, like a great number of her sex, had to endure the hardships of a bush life, but being possessed with a strong constitution, she did spare no time at her disposal in helping out her husband in the hewing out of a home in the forest. In the year 1855 she with her husband and family moved to the place where she ended her days on Lot 26, 4th con., South Glenelg.

Mrs McLean in religion was a Presbyterian, and seldom was her seat empty in the sanctuary when opportunity allowed her to be there. She was always thankful with small mercies, for although the language that was dear to her heart, the Gaelic, ceased to be preached every Sabbath of late years, she was always thankful to be privileged to hear it monthly or semi monthly as the case might be.

Mrs McLean leaves a family of 4 sons and 4 daughters: the sons are, John at home, Hugh, Neil and Archie, in Montana; the daughters are, Maggie, at home; Mrs McPherson and Mrs Neil McManell, Glenelg, and Mrs Black, Oak River, Manitoba, and another daughter (Kate). Mrs John McDonald, died sixteen years ago. Mrs McLean was a dutiful mother and grandmother for those grandchildren who were left motherless in youth never knew the realities of being deprived of a mother while they had their dear grandmother, and those dutiful daughters who stood in turns at the pillow of their dying mother during her short illness have comforting assurance to know that they did what they could to alleviate the sufferings of now a departed parent.

The funeral on Friday, the 16th inst., to Priceville cemetery, was the largest seen here for some time. Her pastor, Rev Mr Matheson and Rev Mr Campbell, of Dromore, conducted the funeral services. She was laid beside her husband who preceded her seventeen years ago. Thus ended the earthly career of another of the pioneers of this place.

DUNCAN McINNES.

Died at his son's residence, Mr John McInnes, Durham Road, Glenelg, on Thursday night the 16th inst, Mr Duncan McInnes, aged 86 years. Mr McInnes left his native land, Iona, in Scotland, fifty-seven years ago, residing in the Township of Vaughan for two or three years, when he moved to the Durham Road, Glenelg, in the year 1850. When the place was almost a dense forest, he like the rest of his pioneer friends, had to endure the hardships of a newly settled country.

Mr McInnes by trade was a shoemaker in the land of his birth, but after coming to Canada, he preferred using the axe and other implements used on the farm than to content himself to the Shoemaker's seat.

In religion, Mr McInnes was a staunch Presbyterian and was preacher in that church for over 50 years. To him a great number of us who are now going down the steep grade of life owe a debt of gratitude for learning us how to sing our first tune in music as he taught a singing class in the old school house on Hugh McDonald's farm for some time.
 He was gifted with a musical voice and was always pleased to render his services wherever required, irrespective of denominational differences.

Mr McInnes leaves as chief mourners four sons and two daughter: John at the old home, Hugh and Malcolm, at Calgary, N. W. T., and another son, John, in some other part of the world; Mrs Duncan McDonald, near Priceville, and Maggie, Mrs _____, of Calgary.

Mr McInnes was always a healthy man and his death came very sudden being only a day or two laid up. He was always a man that welcomed the stranger and the needful to share with them when in want. The funeral on Saturday last to Smellie's Cemetery was largely attended. Rev. Mr Matheson officiated at home and grave. The remains were laid to rest beside his wife, son and Father, who preceded him long years ago.

The Rev Mr Farquharson of Durham will preach preparatory services in the Presbyterian Church on Friday next at 11 a. m. Sacrament on Sunday following at the usual hour.

Mr John McNichol of the Finance Department, Ottawa, visited for a day at his sister's, Mrs Jno Nichol, near this place. We were sorry that we did not meet with him.

Mr Wm Watson of this town received a telegram that his sister, Mrs Wm Henderson, who lived in the States, died suddenly a few days ago. Wm and Herbert, brothers, left to be present at her burial.

Miss Maud Watson of Cheboygan, is visiting friends in this place at present.
 Pleased to hear that Mrs Wm McLeod, Jr., is getting better and able to be up now.

A number from here attended the Exhibition at Toronto recently, of which we were amongst the number.

Mrs Fyfe, of Woodbridge, is here at present. She attended the funeral of her sister-in-law, the late Mrs Hector Mc-Lean, whose obituary notice appears elsewhere.

Mr Hugh McDonald (red Hugh) is lying in a critical condition with some bowel trouble, but we hope to see him around again soon. Mrs Duncan Mc-Dougal, North Line, is very low also and probably her time is drawing nigh as she is advanced in years.

Mrs Dyas of Toronto is visiting her father, Mr Neil McLeod, near this place.

We are sorry that our good friend, Mr Butler, is not feeling very good for the last couple of weeks, but we hope he will be all right again soon.

Mr W J Young preached a very impressive discourse in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday evening to a large audience.

Miss Maggie McDonald, daughter of Duncan McDonald, D. Road, Glenelg, left on Monday morning to take charge of a large school in Normanby, near Calderwood.

Mrs Cias McInnes of Paisley attended the funeral of her father-in-law, the late Duncan McInnes.

Mr Hector McDonald and sister, Mrs McPhail, both of Wainerton, attended the funeral of their aunt, the late Mrs H McLean. Mr Chas McArthur, a nephew, and two daughters, of Dundalk, were also present.

Commissioner John McArthur was on business during part of last week at Markdale.

Thrashing is the order of the day now; grain is doing very good so far.

MULL CORNERS.

Thrashing is about over and the farmers are well satisfied.

W Vasey of Seranton, Penn. made a call on a few friends last week.

We are glad to see Mr Quinn about again.

We expect to see a few prizes taken in Durham Fair by the Mull Corner Farmers.

Alex McGillivray of Bruce spent a week with friends here.

Bob Ewing is still buying cattle, we wish him success.

H McCormick is bidding his many friends good-bye before his departure for Washington, D C.

Miss Tena McCormick arrived home Monday from Owen Sound after spending two weeks with friends.

Roots are looking fine, also the fall wheat. D McQuarrie got sale for his wheat the day he thrashed. It shows good for Duncan's wheat which is up to the standard.

VICKERS.

Mrs McCulloch and son Wm., after a visit of two years with friends in Michigan, are welcomed back to this burg.

Mrs Marshall, of Durham, visited her sister, Mrs H Reay, last week.

Mr Chris. Reay visited friends in Bruce lately.

Mrs R Smith, of Durham, was the guest of her sister, Mrs E. Hopkins, last week.

We are sorry to hear that, owing to illness, Miss Gilchrist has resigned her position as teacher. Mr Chris. Sumpton is engaged to fill the vacancy till Christmas.

DROMORE.

Harvesting is now a thing of the past and thrashing is now the order of the day. The whistle of the steam thrasher is to be heard in all directions, Mr James Eccles taking the lead, with Mr M. Hooper a close second. By all reports the grain is turning out fairly well.

Messrs Harry Sterne and John Pinkerton left last Monday on a hunting tour to Muskoka district. We expect to see some large game shipped down here soon.

Mrs Geo Moore, of Normanby, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs Geo. Moore, Jr., of Teeswater, were the guests of the Lothian family over Sunday last.

Misses Aggie Renwick and Mary Taylor who have been visiting friends in the great North West for the past two months, returned Monday looking as if the prairie plain agreed with them.

Miss Mary Hastie of Egerton was renewing old acquaintances here over Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Laughton and Mrs John Snell leave Thursday of this week for Sarnia, where they intend spending a month among friends.

We are pleased to say that Mrs Mc-Williams, who had an attack of fever, is almost herself again.

The Rev Mr Campbell leaves this week for a month's holidays.

We are pleased to welcome back into our town Mr and Mrs Steven Boaks, who are moving into the house lately vacated by Mr and Mrs Neal Calder.
 Next Sunday will be Children's day in Amos Church.

BALSAM VALLEY.

It is a long time since we noticed a budget of news from Balsam Valley and thinking in our own mind that something had happened the scribe, we take upon ourselves the responsibility of writing a few of the most interesting items in this burg.

Harvesting and thrashing is the main topic at present. Some one will ask "are you through harvesting yet?" and the next one will ask "have you thrashed yet?" so we have a little of both here yet. Mat Hooper and his gang are doing good work with their steamer this year, while Colin McLean is at the North Line dusting them out.

Archie Ferguson's fine brick house is about finished and when it is completed will be a credit to owner and contractors, who are Joe Eccles, stone work; Mr Moodie, brick work, and Fred Runciman, carpenter work.

Mr Joseph Campbell has his barn partly finished. It is taking a long time to finish it, but when done he will have a large commodious building, and Joe will notice the change from the old hasbeen of 40 years ago.

The firm of J. & G. Orchard is doing a rushing business and anyone wanting first class lumber or shingles made from first class material, and manufactured by first class workmen will do well to come this way and be used right.

It is with profound regret that we have to chronicle the death of Mrs Hector McLean, who died very suddenly, she having taken a paralytic stroke and never regained consciousness until her death. The funeral on Friday was a very large one and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr Matheson and Rev. Mr Campbell, of Dromore. Mrs McLean was a woman highly respected by all and was a kind and loving mother; was always ready in time of trouble and her very sudden death casts a gloom over the whole neighborhood. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family in this time of their sore bereavement. We would mention more but our worthy Priceville correspondent will give full particulars.

WELBECK.

More rain and muddy roads.

Mr D Watson has commenced his new barn foundation, the contractor being Mr Henry Embke, Elmwood.
 Mr Embke being a first class mason, a first class structure is assured.

Mr Thos. Potter, our saw-mill proprietor, is busily engaged cutting shingles from timber purchased from Mr Ed. Welsh. Mr Potter claims to be on the deal. If the shingles keeps turning out until the time of their they have been since the snow disappeared last spring, there would be nearly enough shingles to cover a roof over 10 acres, 5 inches to the weather.

Mr John Stewart commenced thrashing last week and reports that although the straw is somewhat short the grain is a very fair yield, but not so large as last year.

Messrs Neil Stewart and John Vessey are the right and left hand men of John Stewart with his Puffer and Duster.

Mr Jos. Truax, Walkerton, passed through the burg on Thursday morning.

Mr and Mrs Wm Lake, our tie-maker Wm., spent a week visiting friends in and around Walkerton and while there took in the Northern Exhibition.

BOOTHVILLE

Mrs. M. McCannel visited at her father's last week.

Miss Ida Wilson returned home from the Queen City where she had a most enjoyable visit.
