WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

One of the best and most enjoyable meetings of the season was held at the home of Mrs. Wm Hunter, North Egrement on Oct. 6th, where upwards of twenty-five ladies were present. That our topic "pickling" was very skillfully treated by the President, Mrs. McGirr who introduced the subject by giving a racy little paper reading on "Pickling Time."

The discussions were excellent and were heartily taken part in by all present thus making the meeting interesting as well as beneficial.

It was decided that this meeting be the last for this year. The next meeting will be held in the Durham Town Hall, in January 1905.

There is no set topic for this meeting but several of the members have consented to prepare papers or give a talk on some important subjects.

We are looking forward to having a large attendance and will do all in our power to make the meeting interesting and instructive. Those wishing to join the Institute will have the privilege of becoming members at the January meeting.

RICH OR POOR.

To the Editor, DURHAM REVIEW:

An attempt is being made to create some sympathy for the Conservative Candidate on the ground that he is a poor man and Mr. Miller is rich.

We do not know whether McKinnon is rich or poor but we do know Mr. Miller began life as an office clerk in Durham twenty-five years ago and that whatever money he has made by his industry and saved by his economy. We believe that he made every dollar of it honestly and have never heard it, even hinted that he did not. He has never been miserly and what he has succeeded in making he has invested in South Grey to assist in developing different industries and in the providing of work for South Grey mechanics and workmen.

Because a man has been successful in his own business is no evidence that he will be a failure as a member of parliament, but rather an evidence to the contrary.
