DORNOCH.

Mr and Mrs Jno. Klein of the Queen City are holidaying with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs R. M. Dargavel. Exceedingly popular among the young people is Mr Wm Rytle, our enterprising merchant, who arrived last week after an absence of six months in the Prairie Province.

Dr. Godfrey of Toronto is in the village this week looking after the large practice of Dr Smith who has been under the weather for the past fortnight.

The smiling countenance of Miss Lizzie Smith again enlivens the social circles after a year's absence under the Stars and Stripes.

After spending a three month's pleasant holiday in the burg and community, Miss Susie McIntosh left last week for the Queen City.

He is broad in his views and an expert mineralogist is Mr Geo. Vasey, who left last week for Scranton, Pa., after a month's sojourn in the village.

After an extended absence among the romantic and picturesque scenery of New Ontario, Messrs Ed and Will McCartney are visiting their many friends and acquaintances in this community.

We miss the good humored smile and business propensities of Monsieur Simpson, who, for the past week has been absent from the village looking after the interests of his farm to the south of the burg.

BOOTHVILLE

Threshing and taking up potatoes is the order of the day.

Last Sunday Rev Mr Matheson preached in the forenoon in the interest of the Bible Society.

What might have been a very serious accident happened at the threshing of Harry Miller, Proton. They were finishing three day's work, belt was thrown off and the separator was slowing off when John Lane who was crossing a scaffold above, fell and narrowly escaped falling into the machine. It was thought he was bodily injured at first and that some of his toes would have to be amputated but it is hoped that they may be saved.

Neil McPayden with his tackling raised Neil McCannel's frame building.

Mrs John Ferguson, Proton, got a pleasant surprise lately, her brother Neil McGillivray visiting her whom she has not seen for 25 yeas. He was accompanied by his wife who is a Canadian. They live in Manson Co, Kansas.

Mr and Mrs Barber of Alton visited at John Ferguson's and Alex McLean, Brownsville.

Mr and Mrs D McCannel visited at S. McMurdo's on Sunday. The stone foundation of Charlie Ferguson's new house is completed. The contractors were D McCannel and R McDonald and the work is well done. Mrs Neil Cameron visited her many friends in Glenelg and her home last week.

HOPEVILLE.

Intended for last week.

Activity in church circles here. Our village preacher has been at Woodland with Toronto assistance, and good work is being done.

Friday, Sept. 30, pre-communion services were held by the Presbyterians, Rev Mr Campbell taking the Sunday services in Eplin church, which is steadily gaining at all points.

Mr Wm. McMurdo, a prominent member of the Latter-Day Saints church, with others attended a conference in Grand Valley last week end and reports much good being done.

Mr R. Davis, of Alliston, who formerly worked with H. Allan, spent the week end here in company with some Glenelg comrades. Tailor Stubbs is taking a trip to Caledon, his old home.

Municipal election matters are cropping up, and the council is not in good odor. Caucus meetings have been held to plan for next year's candidates. Reports from it say the present reserve will not run having found the work difficult. Walter Bell and Joseph Goodfellow were both mentioned, while among old reeves and officials there is some opposition to Joseph McArdle, whose name is again being brought to the front as a candidate, though he has not yet consented to run. There is talk of having more light let in on the acets.

Pastor Findlayson preached his fare well sermon on Sunday, the 9th inst, and other preachers from Toronto were there.

Tea-meeting mentioned to come off in Eplin has been put off till sleighing and by the appearance of the weather this morning that was long.

Mr Lee, the Student, leaves for his finishing College course. He will come out Saturdays for Sunday's preaching.

A bad accident to a son of George Lane at Millner's threshing. He slipped from above and got foot and toes crushed in the cylinder. It might have cost his life had machine been going full blast.

The contemptible dog poisoner is around. Mr J H Scott has a valuable colley poisoned.

Dr Sproule has poster's out for a meeting here on the 11th. Several of our youth took in Priceville show and concert.

PRICEVILLE SHOW.

Friday, Oct. 7.—"The best show for some years," "beats Durham and Flesherton," were among the laudatory remarks heard as the Attemesia Show closed last Friday. The attendance was up to the mark, the receipts being about $100. The hall had a really fine appearance in ladies' work, roots and fruit especially. The rough grains were well represented, but no wheat. Contestants in the bread-making class were numerous, and we noticed that Mrs. Neil McKinnon carried off the first prize offered by Mr. H. B. Miller for the best two loaves of bread which was a most worthy article as we can personally testify.

Outside the hall, in fine weather, there was a good display of horseflesh and Judges Marsh and Mercer had no light responsibility in making decisions. Jas Patton is a noted winner in this class and is naturally proud that colts from his horse Guardian have been 1st Prize winners at Durham, Flesherton, Priceville and elsewhere.

The cattle were not as numerous as we have seen, but there was good quality. Sheep beats anything we have seen this year. A Muir cleans out the Cotswolds with his flock. The Nichols are prominent in the Leicester class and Meads, Kinnel, Oliver and Fairbairn have all good flocks.

John Eckhardt is leader in Swine, winning firsts in every class. John McBeth in the Berkshire class shows a fine lot which being young will make its mark yet.

Piper Peter McArthur was on the grounds in the afternoon and played for Jimmy Girdiner, the noted dancer, to the pleasure of the crowd.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Neil McKinnon, the new Secretary for press favors, he is both efficient and obliging. The concert was as usual crowded. Mrs. Counts-Bain was the star of the evening, and Mr. A. K. Cameron on his first appearance brought down the house. Pipes and dancing of course filled in between, Jimmie eclipsing all former efforts. Mrs. Wm Haw was accompanist and gave several much appreciated organ recitals. Dr. Atkinson credibly filled the chair. President McCormack said a few words on behalf of the Society and "God Save the King" closed a well-managed concert.
