A HAND OFF.—Word came to-day, Tuesday, that Mr. Wm. Marshall, Jr., Normanby, had his hand taken off in a thrashing machine while oiling. A deplorable accident and we sympathize deeply with him and his family.

TEACHERS CHANGING.—By advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that a new teacher is wanted at Vickers in Bentinck. Miss McCannell, No. 10, Glenelg has resigned and the trustees have engaged Mr. D. McDonald for 1905.

NOTICE.—Only $1.00 for the REVIEW and fine 4-color cover Holiday Number till Jan. 1, 1906. Subscribe now and get the benefit of this year free. We have a few of our last year's Annuals left. If any one has been omitted we will send them one.

EARLY ISSUE.—We are for some of our mails a day earlier this week, being anxious to be free on election day. We purpose issuing a supplement after the election giving the returns as far as obtainable in the county and throughout the Dominion.

HOUSES TO LET.—Two houses in a desirable part of the town, corner of Garrafrua and Durham Roads. One contains 8 rooms, first-class furnace and bath room. The other contains 6 rooms Electric Light fixtures in both Rents moderate. Apply to Wm. BLACK.

Have you noticed when you meet a doctor he says "How are you"? A newspaper man enquires "what do you know"? A lawyer hits you on the back and ejaculates "what have you got in the pocket"? The undertaker smiles and says blandly, "How do you feel?"

Winter Flowering bulbs at MacFarlane's.

The Rev. Wm. Hinde, Rector of Shelburne, will preach missionary sermons, advocating particularly Church of England missions in the North West, China and Japan on Sunday next morning, and evening, and at Allan's School House in the afternoon. No special offertory will be taken at the services. Collectors will be made later on from house to house.

A LONGFELLOW NIGHT.—The Guild of the Presbyterian Church on Monday night had one of their pleasant and profitable literary evening the interest being centered round Evangeline, Longfellow's Acadian heroine. Miss Forfar takes a leading part and her exercise is to be continued. Miss Gibson sang a fine solo. The hallovenn naps outside showed poor taste.

WINTER FAIR.—The twenty first Annual Ontario Provincial Winter Fair will be held in Guelph on Dec. 5th to 9th and 10th. Over $3000 is offered in prizes. Practical lectures will be delivered each day during the show. Reduced rates on all railways. Prize lists and entry forms may be had by applying to A. W. Smith, President, Maple Lodge, Ont., or to A. P. Westervelt, Secy., Parliament Buildings, Toronto. Breeders of cattle, sheep, swine or poultry wouldn't miss this for any thing.

EPWORTH LEAGUE DEBATE.—The debate under the auspices of the Epworth League was well attended and interesting throughout. The subject was "Resolved that capital punishment ought to be abolished." The affirmative side was ably and eloquently spoken by Messrs. Cadden and W. Glass but the decision was given in favor of the advocates of the negative side, Messrs. Masson and Smith who in the opinion of the judges made more and stronger points. The judges were Messrs. Wolfe and Flarity and Mrs. Arthur McKeel. A collection was taken and the audience treated to home made candy.

Carr's cough cure—never fails—is guaranteed. MacFarlane's Drug Store.

"JERRY FROM KERRY."—This Company of players who played here last season and gave the very best of satisfaction, will appear at the Town Hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 6th. They have enlarged their company and they will introduce here for the first time many new and novel ideas in Farce, Comedy and Vaudeville acts. Conceded by press and public to be the funniest show on the road; every act moral and refined. Their uniformed Concert Band and orchestra is among the best on the road. See the street parade at noon and Band Concert 7.30 in front of Town Hall. Prices 25c and 50c. Reserved seats 50c. Seats on sale at Darling's Drug Store.

THE HOURS ARE PASSING.

Not many hours now till the die is cast and the rulers of Canada for another parliamentary term be discovered.

The return of Sir Wm. Redoubt Laurier and his government is a foregone conclusion. Two elections by acclamation both Liberals, took place last week. Laurier will win in every province except possibly Manitoba and New Brunswick. South Grey will be added to the Liberal column in Ontario, unless by the pure overconfidence of Miller supporters. A return in the Toronto News gives S. Grey to the Liberals.

The fight made by H. H. Miller has been an honest, manly struggle. He has won the hearts of his party friends, and will win their votes and many more on election day.

Let there be neither slackness nor indifference; don't wait to be driven by any one to the poll, go out in the forenoon and record your vote for good time, good government and a good member by marking your ballot for H. H. Miller, the second name on the ballot.

SABBATH SCHOOL SOCIAL.

A very pleasing event in the shape of a Sabbath School Social took place in Lower City School—88 No. 9 Glenelg—on the evening of Wednesday, October 23rd.

During the last two summers a large number of the young people of the school held in the above mentioned school. Mr. Wm. J. Young has been superintendent and has had the able assistance of an efficient band of workers. A social is held at the close of the season when parents, teachers, scholars and invited friends from surrounding country and towns meet to spend a pleasant evening.

On this occasion the school was filled to its utmost capacity. The ladies brought an abundance of good things, which were served by attentive waiters till all were in that happy state of mind experienced on festive occasions of this kind.

Then followed a literary program. Mr. John A. Graham was chosen chairman. The first was a chorus by the School followed by a report of the Sabbath School by Secretary Robert McFadden, who referred to the large attendance and general prosperous condition of the school.

Rev. Mr. Colling spoke of how environment so often decides the future of the young. Mr. John H. Brown referred to the wrong standard of manhood of the boys who follow many of the vices they see practiced by their elders. Mr. Alex. Firth spoke of the teacher's place in a human race. Rev. Mr. Newton humorously objected to some of the features of that "race," and also gave the young some wholesome advice regarding correct habits. Mr. Thos. Allan followed in the same strain and addressed himself to the boys and girls on the subject "Habit." Rev. Mr. Farquharson took as his subject "Pay as you go" and dealt with economy of time as well as means.

The following gave recitations: Misses Maggie W. Clark, Ritchie, Eva Atkinson and Blanche McNeave; and one by Master Willie Atkinson telling about boys and their good times.

Just before the close Mr. W. J. Young was called to the front and pleasantly presided by the presentation of a large morocco bound teacher's bible and a large hymnal. Mr. Young replied feelingly to the following address which in behalf of School was read by Mr. Wm. Veir while Miss Jennie Meenagh made the presentation.

To Mr. Wm. J. Young,
Supt. Union Sab. School No. 9, Glenelg:

DEAR FRIEND:

At the close of another season of Sunday School efforts, your fellow teachers and members of the Bible class desire to place on record their pleasure and pride in having you as their teacher and in your work, and from your teaching during the year. Your enthusiasm and self-sacrificing efforts have warmed our hearts and quickened our spiritual life, and we wish for you many years of usefulness in a sphere you fill so well.

We ask you to accept this Bible and Hymn Book as a token of our regard, and trust you and we may always be guided by the teaching of the foregoing, and at last, sing the songs of Zion around the throne above. With best wishes for yourself and family, signed on behalf of the donors:

ROBT. MCFADDEN, Secretary.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the doxology followed by benediction by Rev. Mr. Newton. Com.

MARRIED.

AITCHISON—ANDERSON.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Blyth, on Oct. 25th, by the Rev. Dr. McLean, Rev. W. W. Aitchison of Dornoch to Miss Janet Anderson.

Nomination Proceedings.

Last Thursday Returning Officer Telford had before him at his Majesty's summons the voters of the Riding. These loyal subjects all came prepared for their duty and during the quiet hours from 12 to 2 the necessary papers were handed in and the necessary $200 deposited for Chas. McKinnon and Henry Horton Miller.

With the Returning Officer in the chair the usual after meeting was held to enable the electors to hear the chosen ones state their views on public questions. An arrangement was amicably come to that Mr. McKinnon should speak first as long as he liked, Mr. Miller should follow with the same privilege and the former reply.

What followed we do not intend to give in detail, but there could be no question in the mind of any honest voter as to which of the candidates was the fit and proper one to send to Ottawa.

Mr. McKinnon set out by reminding them he was a native of the county, had held several public positions and claimed his public career had been a success. He made a brief reference to certain alleged broken promises of the Liberal Party, took up the tariff and wanted adequate protection, the phrase so much used by his leader, and which if it means anything, means burdens for the farmer. He then said something about insults to Lord Dunsdown about Fisher's junketings, and promised if elected to defend the interests of his constituents. He had done important committee work in the County Council and there would be work of that kind to do at Ottawa also.

There could not but be distinct disappointment among his followers at the short at a speech lasting some 7mi minutes and the contrast with what followed was so remarkable as to need no comment.

Mr. Miller spoke for about an hour and a half, receiving at intervals warm applause. He rejoiced at the better spirit prevailing in public meetings a decade of party feeling had passed and many prejudices, the party movement had left behind it a spirit of independence that gave promise of better things. He expatiated on our country, outlining eloquently its vast and varied resources and the importance of keeping pure its political life.

"We do not intend to try to report a speech freely admitted to be one of the best if not the very best ever delivered by a candidate in this riding. Mr. Miller has a power of massing his arguments that few possess. The evident sincerity which accompanies him throughout, easily seen to be born of conviction, makes of him a power on the platform which will yet be used for the country's good. 'Mastery,' 'Very fine,' 'Splendid' were a few of the many complimentary expressions applied to his speech.

He dealt lucidly with the G. T. P. bargain, Post Office successes, &c., and was specially at home in dealing with the tariff issues. Any farmer who values his own interests, would never after hearing Mr. Miller's speech, vote for the candidate of a party that has for its war-cry, 'adequate protection,' which plainly meant higher protection, which means higher prices for what the farmer has to buy with no increase in the prices of what the farmer has to sell. The great boon to the farmer arising from the abolition of the quarantine regulations was pointed out forcibly and a great deal more. The audience was plainly with the speaker and gave him rousing applause during his delivery and when he closed.

Mr. McKinnon followed and after saying some criticism for a minute or two, struck out on a new tack challenging Mr. Miller to produce a letter he had claimed to have showing that he, McKinnon, had supported Landerkin in 1896. Mr. Miller, amid great applause, walked to the front and gave the letter to the chairman. It appears that Dr. Landerkin, previous to the 1896 election sent lists to party friends asking them to mark the voters according to their political complexion: this McKinnon's name appearing with an 'R' for Reform. On the back fly-leaf of this list was the letter. It expresses regret for delay as the writer had been so busy he could scarcely get time to eat his meals receiving and handling 3 and 4 car-loads of hay and straw per day. This was signed 'Chas. McKinnon.' Mr. McKinnon, as is well-known was so employed in the winter of '95-'96, but he claims the letter is a forgery and there it rests. Mr. Miller was one of Dr. Landerkin's executors and the list was found among his papers.

Mr. McKinnon's memory is clearly at fault however, when he states that for 16 or 18 years he has not worked in Liberal committee rooms for a minute book of Durham Reform Association exists which shows that in 1894 he attended such meetings, taking part in the discussions, seconding motions, &c. One of these motions, moved by John Smith seconded by Chas. McKinnon expresses entire confidence in and requests the delegates to support Messrs G. Landerkin, M. P. and G. McKechnie, M. P. P., at a coming convention.

Returning Officer Telford closed the proceedings by leading in the National Anthem.

To the Electors of South Grey:
GENTLEMEN:
I respectfully request your vote and influence at the coming Dominion Election and, if elected, will earnestly do my best to promote the interests of South Grey and, without being a slave to party, to support good measures and oppose bad ones. Yours Truly,
H. H. MILLER,
Liberal Candidate for South Grey.
